WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for North Carolina: Friday—Fair, preceded by showers on the coast today.

Local Forecast for Raleigh and vicinity Friday—Showers tonight and Friday.

Thursday, November 14th

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today—Maximum temperature, 54; Minimum temperature, 41; Rain-fall, 0.00.

PERSONAL.

Prof Meares left for Suffolk this morning on professional business.

Mayor Russ has gone on a visit to Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. John B. Kenney returned this morning from the Atlanta Exposition.

Messrs. D. G. Cooper and J. H. Bridgers, of Henderson, arrived in the city today.

Mrs. B. C. Rogers left this morning in answer to a telegram announcing the severe illness of her grandmother who lives in Oak Forest, Va.

Captain Thos. Ward, a brother of Mr. Frank Ward, and a captain of an ocean steamer plying between San Francisco and Japan, is in the city visiting his mother.

Mr. Charles Ward, a brother of Mr. Frank T. Ward, is here from Denver on a visit. He is engaged in the drug business in Denver, where he is doing well and has many friends here who extended him a cordial welcome to the city.

Comparisons of Football Scores.

The University of Virginia Tuesday defeated Richmond College at football by a score of 60 to 0. One half was thirty minutes; the other, eight. The game is of local interest because U. N. C. has played the same team, defeating it, after forty minutes of play by a score of 36 to 0.

Comparisons in football, however, are of little importance. For instance: Harvard beat Cornell 26 to 0; Princeton defeated Harvard 10 to 4; then Cornell held Princeton down to a 6 to 0 score. Richmond College had played a hard game with V. M. I. the day before she met Virginia.

Cain Slew His Brother.

Governor Carr today offered a reward of $100 for the capture of M. C. Cain, who on the seventh day of last August murdered his brother, W. F. Cain in Davie county.

The name would seem to indicate that the slayer was one of the descendents of the Biblical fratricide. Had the slain brother been named Abel, for once might history have repeated itself.

Now Mr. Cain is very likely in hiding, waiting to surrender himself at the proper time to his friends and use the hundred so kindly given by the State to wrest his release from the stern old common-wealth.

$17,500 REFUSED.

It is Said This Offer was Refused for Patchen, the Pacing Stallion.

Since Joe Patchen placed his valuable hoofs on North Carolina soil, covetous eyes have turned towards the pacing "phenom."

Brood Rock stated that Mr. L. Banks Holt was negotiating for Patchen and would in all probability secure him. Today it was stated that Mr. W. Reynolds, the big tobacco manufacturer, had offered $17,500 for the animal, but that the proffer was refused. It was also stated that $20,000 was the price set for the horse by the owners.

It will be remembered that a reported offer of $20,000 for Gentry was refused.

Just whose property the noble Patchen is, is not exactly known, but it would seem that he is very likely to come into possession of a North Carolinian.

Federal Court Two Weeks Off.

Mr. Clifford Carroll, chief clerk of the marshal's office and Chief Deputy Hannah returned from Wilmington today, where they have been at the Federal term of court. Both of them are up to their eyes in work, but they will be up to date when Federal court convenes here two weeks hence. The docket is a heavy one.

Crown Lavender Pocket Salts, with or without the kid purses. Odora, Lavender, Orabapple Blossom, Matzakia, Violette and Lilac.

James McKimmon & Co.

A Living Curiosity.

At a public examination yesterday afternoon by some of Raleigh's learned scribes, they pronounced L. N. Monroe, the African wonder, who is now on exhibition at 219½ Fayetteville street, one of the most remarkable persons they had ever seen. He is 48 years old, weighs 87 pounds and has served one-half of his body in 30 years, and for all that, he is bright, very intelligent, and carries a very interesting history of himself. He is a curiosity that should be seen by all.

Maurice Wells, Barber.

Has removed from his old stand to 218 Fayetteville street (Oak City Steam Laundry building). Polite attention and first-class service assured to all customers. 14 3t

Nice butter 20c per pound; fresh eggs, fat chickens and turkeys.

W. H. Rogers,
14 3t No. 11 Exchange.

It may be put down as a fact that Bretsch's crackers are better than any that come to this market, and his bread, cakes and confectionaries are unexcelled. He is doing a tremendous wholesale business, which shows that the public appreciates the importance of patronizing a worthy home industry. You always get the best at Bretsch's.

Found

To be a fact that Johnson & Smith can make photographs that are unsurpassed by any artist in the profession. Prices reasonable.

Our Butter Cups, Peanut Brittle, Cream Almonds and Taffy are the best, 20c a pound.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

The firm of Barbee & Thompson is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Alf A. Thompson retiring. The business will be continued by Mr. E. B. Barbee.

(Signed) E. B. BARBEE,
ALF A. THOMPSON.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 30, 1895.

Under the advice of my physician I have concluded to retire temporarily from business and beg to cordially commend Mr. E. B. Barbee, who continues the business of Barbee & Thompson, to the patrons of the old firm. My connection with Mr. Barbee is severed with sincere regret. Not only as partners, but friends, our relations have been, without exception, thoroughly cordial. With every facility for conducting the business, an entire knowledge of the wants of the trade, and a fixed intention to give value received, there is every reason to assure those interested that dealings with Mr. Barbee will be entirely satisfactory.

ALF A. THOMPSON.

I desire to thank our patrons for past favors and solicit a continuance of the same with the assurance that I will do my best to please them.

E. B. BARBEE.

"LOW RATE ENDOWMENTS"

at 60, 65, 70 and 75, with Cash Surrender Values in 10, 15, etc., years, the best and most desirable Endowment Insurance ever issued. Life and Limited Life Policies also contain large Cash Surrender Values, stipulated in the policies and forming a part of the contract.

It maintains a higher standard of solvency than is employed by any other Company or any State Department in this country, having in 1888 voluntarily adopted a thus making its contracts the safest and most valuable ever offered.

All policies are by their terms non-forfeitable after two or three payments, but even requiring surrender in case of lapse, and such policies participate in annual dividends. The Cash Surrender and Paid Up Values are plainly stated in each policy, thus avoiding all misunderstanding or disappointment. The agents of the Company respectfully solicit correspondence with anyone desiring further information. Good, conservative agents wanted in each county.
