Did You Ever Did You Ever Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubleat If not, get a hottle now and get relive. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wond-rfal di-rest influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleep-less, excitable, melancholy or troubled with diary spells. Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use, Bifty cents and and $1.00 at John Y. McBae's drug store. preservation of Fort Baleigh. which was built there by Sir Walter Baleigh's colonists. It is one of the most historic spots in the United States. The fort and the surroundings have been carefully surveyed. It is shown to have been laid off by skilled engineers. It is 185 feet from one bastion to another. A part of it yet remains. In the restoration, permanent materials will be used and the fort will be used and the fort will present as nearly as possible the appearance it presented over three centuries

The work of restoration will be done by an association whose members are mainly of North Carotina and Maryland, and of which Graham Davis, of Newbern, is President Rospoke Island is in Dare county, which the Legislature some years ago created and named after Virginia Dare, the first white child born on American soil. The association will also erect on the island, near Fort Baleigh, a memorial out of the ballast thrown overboard by the Amadas and the Barlow in 1584.

Dr. Daniel.

The Bay. Dr. Engene Daniel, of Baleigh, delighted three congregations in Wilmington, says the Messenger. He preached the morning sermon at First Presbyterian church, and at night at St. Andrews Presbyte-rian church. At 4 o clock p. m, he spoke to a large number of men at the Young Men's Christian Association, his subject being "Son, Bemember." Large congregations attended at the services, and the discourses are spoken of as eloquent in delivery and strong in all particulars. Dr. Daniel is an able minister and made a spiendid impression on our people

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y. says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found that the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catekill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discov-ery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at John Y. MeRae's drug store. Regular size 50e and $1.00.
