Wants to Know the Reason Why.

In regard to the statement that the Raleigh and Gaston Road is in excellent condition, the Wilmington Messenger says: This is good news to many women and children and other stockholders all along the ninety-eight miles, who have not received a cent in dividends in nearly three long years. That road is indeed an excellent one, with the best of warehouses and a ballasted road, and heavy iron rails, and it never fails to make an excellent showing in earnings. Its main fault is it makes no dividends with its fine showing and large net earnings. Why? Many much interested people would like to "know the reason why?"

Visit "Denton's," a good time pass. In friendship meet and enjoy a social glass. Superior wines and choice old liquors too. Imported and domestic "Ed" keeps for you. The best place in Raleigh, bear in mind.

Denton's European House you will find elegant restaurant in connection, too. None-excellent meals "Ed" serves to you. Tourists, residents and strangers, all on "Ed" at 311 Fayetteville st. should call Night or day to Denton's, a visit pay. See his place while in town today.

Please you certainly "Denton" always a can. His house is run on the European plan; When feeling hungry, tired or dry Ed V. Denton all wishes can supply.

Grand Matinee Tomorrow.

There will be a special school children's matinee tomorrow afternoon at 119 Fayetteville street to see the African wonder, the largest serpent ever captured and other trained animals and talking birds. The African wonder will give to each child a nice present free. Admission only five cents, and it is for the benefit of the St. Paul church, everybody should attend; for it is instructive and very interesting.

Dr. Harvey C. Upchurch. Has begun the practice of medicine and surgery in this city and offers his services to the citizens of Raleigh and vicinity. Office at No. - Dawson street.
