

State Library

THE PRESS-VISITOR

VOL. XXXIV.—NO. 83.

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 29, 1895.

$3.00 PER YEAR.

Tomorrow's Weather. For North Carolina, Fair, slightly warmer.

Tomorrow's Weather. Fair, increasing clouds, slightly warmer.

RUSSELL'S DOOM BEGUN

The Big Mogul Made a Characteristic Speech.

WAS FULL OF ABUSE.

The Meeting Said to Have Been in His Interest—Not a Large Crowd Present.

About four hundred voters of the fusion persuasion found their way into Metropolitan Hall last evening.

Mr. J. C. Logan Harris, the signer of the call, was unable to be present, having been called away from the city by the announcement of the death of an uncle.

Maj. J. B. Hill was called to the chair and acted as chairman. A storm of applause greeted Ex-Judge Russell under the escort of Register Rogers upon his entrance in the hall.

On the "halfway" was seated, in addition to the gentlemen above mentioned, "Hon." Patrick Stewart, J. R. Ouell and several of the colored brethren.

Letters were read from Senator Fritchard and State Senator Chas. A. Cooke, expressing regret at their inability to be present. Senator Butler's letter missed connection and has not been in sight up to date.

Senator Cooke said that he was in full sympathy with the meeting and considered Thanksgiving an appropriate time to give thanks for the past year's result in the fusion field.

The Hon. Daniel L. Russell, who is making a big bid for the fusion gubernatorial nomination, was next introduced. Mr. Russell made one of his characteristic speeches, which abounded in abuse and extravagant assertions.

Talk about thanks, there has not been in America an occasion for such thanksgiving as exists to the victors since the victory at Appomattox.

Talk about thanks, I am thankful to get my vote counted. I was a slave for fifteen years. When the vote of the negro was counted out, so was mine.

When the sunning old man threw out this "jolly" to the crowd, the negroes went wild with applause.

As to North Carolina, fusion is a necessity and fusion we must have. The speaker made this statement with great emphasis and worked his audience up to a high pitch.

"And then they thought they did not need it."

We have restored to the people the right of self-government. The Democrats look our vote away from us by disfranchising us.

Cotton men are coming to North Carolina from the North. A man who would go to South Carolina, where they are disfranchising voters, would be fool enough to buy a yard in hell for a summer resort.

Judge Russell made complimentary remarks to the Southern soldier, which were sadly out of place.

Pointing with an air of pride towards the Capitol, Judge Russell said "and we fusionists built that monument to their memory."

I fought in the war and am glad we got licked. The Democratic papers will rage about this. I have got to say something to get the Democrats to abuse me.

The Governor has made requisition on the Governor of Virginia for the delivery of Wm. Murdock McGinnis of Richmond.

The case of Sherrill vs. the Western Union Telegraph company, which was affirmed by the Supreme court involves a big amount.

This case was tried at the August term of Rowan Superior court and a verdict given Sherrill, the plaintiff of $1,100.

The excitement was great and the crowd went wild. Lambert kicked the goal and made the score 8 to 6 for Virginia.

Every person who saw the game and knew anything of football, saw at the conclusion the remarkable spectacle of an inferior eleven walking proudly from the field as winners.

Relative in Wilkesboro, says the Chronicle, have received information of the recent death at Shreveport, La., of Mrs. Ann Jones, widow of the late Dr. Roland Jones.

TAR HEELS WERE BEATEN

But Never Was There Less Disgrace in Defeat.

LUCK AND THE UMPIRE

Gave to Virginia a Victory Over a Far Superior Eleven—Carolina Forced the Play.

The ball was put in play promptly, going to the Virginians, who made an excellent kick off, but by repeated mass plays North Carolina began to force it back towards the centre.

North Carolina made a great run and carried it past centre, and excitement got to fever heat.

Virginia here rallied and punted forty yards, and was checked by a fair catch.

North Carolina, after a pause, in which some of the players begged the crowd to leave the grounds, made a slight gain.

Penton refused to call the game and the crowd was too much for the police and continued to crowd around the players.

Virginia made a 40-yard punt. The ball was again put in play at this point and after a slight gain by the Virginians the North Carolinians got the ball.

The umpire refused to begin the second half until the field was cleared. As soon as the grounds were nearly clear the second half was begun.

Virginia made the first touch-down by a tremendous forty-yard run by Lang aided by the beautiful interference of Coake.

The excitement was great and the crowd went wild. Lambert kicked the goal and made the score 8 to 6 for Virginia.

Every person who saw the game and knew anything of football, saw at the conclusion the remarkable spectacle of an inferior eleven walking proudly from the field as winners.

The result was brought about by a combination of poor luck and bad umpiring. It is never fair to cry "fraud" where there is the shadow of a doubt.

Relative in Wilkesboro, says the Chronicle, have received information of the recent death at Shreveport, La., of Mrs. Ann Jones, widow of the late Dr. Roland Jones.

THE END NOW AT HAND

The Sultan or His Powers Must Give In.

TURKS ARE DEFIANT

The Sultan is Under Control of the Palace Party. The Situation at a Critical Stage.

By Cable to the Press-Visitor. CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 29.—The political situation has again reached a critical stage here. Either the Sultan or British Ambassador Curzon must give in.

Thus it is seen that while Turkish ministers apparently are the granting of firmans the Palace party, valiantly and bravely, are the opponents.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The State Department has advised from Minister Terrell that the Missionary School of Francis W. Horrah, was burned on the 19th.

Reports of Two Blood Massacres of Christians. LONDON, Nov. 29.—A Daily News special from Constantinople says that the Embassy has learned of a thousand persons killed in the massacre at Marash on November eighteenth.

It is feared that it is impossible to render assistance to the Sassanoids who were the victims of the outrages at that point.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

McDowell and Glenn Win. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Cotton Opens Lower and Closes Nine Points Off.

New York, Nov. 29.—Liverpool opened steady 1-64 up, became quieter, but improved later on and closed very steady 1-61 higher than last night.

Yesterdays receipts were 30,000 bales; for today they are estimated at 30,000 bales against 78,000 bales last year.

The tone is feverish, but the small receipts ought to present a decline. News from Europe is not favorable.

Options closed as follows: November, — to —; December, 8.35 to 8.36; January, 8.39 to 8.40; February, 8.44 to 8.45; March, 8.49 to 8.50; April, 8.53 to 8.54; May, 8.57 to 8.58; June, 8.60 to 8.61; July, 8.61 to 8.62; August, 8.62 to 8.63; September, 8.15 to 8.17.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter. Special to the Press-Visitor. NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—After the holiday a quiet market is always to be expected with the trade more or less indifferent to business.

The amount of cotton coming to market this week will hardly reach 28,000 bales, as compared with 27,000 bales the corresponding week in 1894.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

The market remains bullish because of the constant demand from spinners in Europe, which raises the Southern market above a parity.

NEWS GATHERED IN A DAY

Condensed and Put in a Readable Form.

FACTS AND GOSSIP.

Interestingly Told as Picked up on the Streets and Various Points About Town.

Federal court meets Monday morning in regular session.

The A and M boys won from Guilford College yesterday in Greensboro by a score of 26 to 0.

The sheriff of Nash county brought nine convicts to the penitentiary in one string.

The returning foot ball enthusiasts are somewhat sore over the result of the game in Richmond yesterday.

A farmer, living less than five miles from the city, who was here yesterday, stated that he did not know it was Thanksgiving day.

Members Heller Bros. have a new ad in this issue. They tell you of bargains which can be secured at their store.

At the residence of the bride's father, L. H. Pool, near this city Mr. Henry G. Riggs, was married to Miss Ella Pool, both of this county.

There were many conflicting reports on the streets last evening about the result of the North Carolina-Virginia game.

Rev. J. B. Boone, Superintendent of the Thomaville Orphanage is in the city.

Gov. Carr has pardoned Theo. H. Birg, colored, of Franklin county, who eight years ago was sentenced to serve 30 years in the penitentiary upon conviction for assault with intent to kill.

It was Submitted to the Cabinet Today—A Lengthy One.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—President Cleveland has completed his annual message to Congress and today that interesting document was submitted to the Cabinet and discussed.

Mr. Reed must expect to be more Carr-like than ever in his rule over the Republicans of the House.

Chicago Grain Market. CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Grain quotations closed today as follows: Wheat—December, 56 1-2; May, 60 5-8.

Chicago Cotton Market. Thursday, November 29th. Street middling, 8 to 8 1-8.

Engineer Killed. By Telegram to the Press-Visitor. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A serious freight wreck occurred on the Canterbury hill on the Norfolk and Western today.

Didn't Pay for his Furnishings. By Cable to the Press-Visitor. ROME, Nov. 29.—A judgment of nearly $30,000 has been secured against Prof. Cipari for furniture, carpets, etc.

Business Barred Tomorrow. By Cable to the Press-Visitor. PARIS, Nov. 29.—Dumas will be barred at Mont Martre cemetery tomorrow.

Campania Couldn't do it. By Telegram to the Press-Visitor. BOSTON, Nov. 29.—The Campanias arrived this morning a few hours behind the record.

New Portuguese Minister. By Cable to the Press-Visitor. LISBON, Nov. 29.—Cyrille Mahoso has been appointed Portuguese Minister at Washington.

Treasurer Worth has returned from Goldboro, where he has been attending the Sunday school convention.