The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. G. Cailionstte, druggist, Beavers-ville, III., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with he grippe and tried all the physi-cians for miles about, but to no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and be-gan its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at John Y. Mae-Rae's drug store. Rae's drug store.

The life of business shows in busy stores. Empty aisles deserted; corners, lonely buyers, are not seen with us. All is life and busile and business. Why not, when we give such extraordinary bargains. The all at surbing question of the hour to the man is where to find the finest fabrics in Fall Clothing at fair prices—the ever present and engrussing question and what to wear and where to buy it. How much we have simplified the labora of selection, and lowered prices to fit all purses, can be seen by a perional lo-spection only. Picture to yourself a store heaped with the latest and firest ideas of home and foreign looms, and at prices apace with modern times, and you will understand why we do the business.
