Dough-ton, of Sparta, is in the city today. Mr. J. L. Stone and wife, of Newport News, Va., are in the city visiting relatives. Mrs. Mary I. Exam, of Palestine, Texas, is visiting at Mrs. Tuttle's. She is a relative of Rev. Tuttle. Mr. H. H. Granger, of Kinston, who has been in the city for several days, returned home today. Rev. Mr. Charles, of Murfreesboro, was here today on his way to the Baptist Convention in session at Greensboro. Col. A. B. Andrews, accompanied by Dr. James McKee and Mr. M. T. Leach, left for Atlanta yesterday in the private car, Agawam. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thompson, of Washington, D. C., are at the Yarrowburgh. Mrs. Thompson it will be remembered, made an unsuccessful attempt to secure custody of her child, Hugh D'Ana. Commissioners Adjourn. The matter of adding the increase valuation of taxes, amounting to $62,000, which was referred to the city and county attorneys, was not acted upon by the County Commissioners. Adjournment was taken this morning after a three days session. School matters occupied the attention of the Commissioners most of the time. Parham Man Killed by a Train. A man by the name of John Staley was run over by a train in East Durham this morning and almost instantly killed. Staley was a carpenter and it is stated that he was under the influence of liquor. No further particulars were obtainable. Keys Lost. Three keys and a private office key on a horse shoe ring, probably near the postoffice. Finder will please return to this office and be rewarded. Malesia grapes at Dugli's. A Great Blanket Sale. We have begun a great sale of blankets. Five hundred pairs of white wool blankets, 10-4 11-4 and 12-4 at special prices. These are being shown from the original cases, just inside the Fayetteville street door. With this cold weather no one should miss such an opportunity to buy Blankets at these very low prices. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. Catawba grapes in five pound baskets at Dugli's. Rich Winter Dress Materials. We have just received a shipment of rich, warm, winter dress materials, the kinds suggestive of December and January wear. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. Extraordinary large stock of Christmas goods at Thomas & Maxwell; will be sold to their old patrons without any profit. Do you ever eat garlic? If so, Dugli has got it. Carpenters Wanted. Ten carpenters can obtain employment by applying at once to GASTON STAFFORD, At Fair Grounds. In appreciation of the large trade bestowed on us in the past we will sell to any of our customers all Christmas goods at cost. Thomas & Maxwell. Fresh oysters every day at Dugli's. Bicycle for sale. A Rambler of '94. Good as new, for a cheap. Apply at this office. A $3.00 fancy Rattan Rocker for $1.00 at Thomas & Maxwell's. Money Saved on Magazines for 1896. The undersigned hereby gives notice that she has lost or her late husband, W. H. Smith, has lost, two certificates of shares of the Capital Bank of the City of Raleigh, Va., numbered 20 and 21 respectively, the former for three shares and the latter for two shares, each of $100.00 and which were returned to her by Mrs. MARY O. SMITH, daughter of W. H. Smith, 2215 1/2 DuSable Street, Raleigh, N. C.

A Straight Tip.

Although I am no poet, Can't make a rhyme, But can tell you the truth If you give me the time.

Of pure old corn First I will sing, Then to the eyes I hope you to bring.

I will give you the best With a straight guarantee, Then if I deceive you Come back on me.

I will offer a forfeit For every wrong, Come round and see me, It won't take you long.

First I will show you The old Broom, Which I can furnish in barrels, bottles or jug.

Then I will give you The old Eagle Crook That will far surpass That on North Market street.

I'll also show you The old Golden Crown; An equal to it Can not be found.

Then I will show you Nelson D. C. D., But will give you choice Or you can leave it with me.

But the old Hawthorne As fine as silk, The people call for it, As children do milk.

The Toronto Club Is considered the best By all who have tried it From the East to the West.

Our girls are from Holland, The land of their birth, Where people all use it, And o'erflow with mirth.

Old North Carolina Peach, As yellow as gold, Can never be told.

And old Apple Jack, With rhubarb in his face, Is also a favorite, With the Adam's race.

But the old Rock and Rye, This you all know, Is as nice and as sweet, And as pure as the snow.

But the treddle water, In which, as you know, You can get it in corn, Just 20 below.

Old Crow and McBrayer, Oscar Pepper and L. Henie, We put on our shelves, And call it the best.

See our large doggers, In red all the way, You can tell by them, We have come here to stay.

Though bitter the tears, And long be the years, We will take our medicine Without any fears.

All this you will find With a written guarantee, At the wholesale house Of Lambeth & Co.

Now, these goods are here; If you wish to invest, You can buy them for half, What you pay to the rest.

Yours fraternally, G. A. LAMBETH.

Not being able to give all of our many customers a Christmas present, we will sell from now until after Xmas all fancy Rockers, Brice-Brice, Pictures, Kamele, Music Boxes and all Christmas goods at cost.

Respectfully, THOMAS & MAXWELL.

Christmas Opening. Look out for our Christmas opening on Wednesday, December 4th. We have a handsome line of holiday books, Christmas cards, etc., and will be sure to please you.

Yours truly, North Carolina Book Company. 2-4.

Dog Lost. A black and white setter dog, collar on neck with my name on it, about 8 years old, Liberal reward will be paid for his return to residence of Y. B. Moore, B. M. Moore, Dec 3rd.

For Rent. Two nice, well furnished rooms in a desirable part of the city, 100 yards from Capitol. Agreeable location. Terms easy. For further notice apply to T. B. MOSELEY.

A Full Stock. Mr. H. S. Lowry having purchased the bar and grocery of R. E. Farham at 235 South Wilmington street, has now a complete stock of everything that a man needs in the grocery or whiskey line. He has the largest and best stock of liquors, beers and wines to be found in the city and guarantees prices to suit his trade. 2-11

GO TO SPENCE'S NEW STORE for cheap China, Crockery, Glass and Tinware. 3-17 120 East Martin street.

THE TIME HAS COME THE TIME HAS COME

When you will have to shove yourself along. That is if you wish to be in at the finish, for just as sure as the snow fell this morning, just so sure will this store close January 1st never to open again under the name of Swindell, and not a DOLLAR'S WORTH will go at auction.

MRS. EMMA E. SWINDELL, 2215 1/2 DuSable Street, Raleigh, N. C.

It may be put down as a fact that Bretsch's crackers are better than any that come to this market, and his bread, cakes and confectionaries are unexcelled. He is doing a tremendous wholesale business, which shows that the public appreciates the importance of patronizing a worthy home industry. You always get the best at Bretsch's.

Extra large $2.00 Pictures can now be bought at Thomas & Maxwell's for $1.00. Ask to see them.

We are now making in their perfection the original Peanut Brittle and Butter Cups. We invite comparison with other makes. ROYSTER.

This is the Truth.

We do not like to be thrashing old straw, but we are willing to pay for space enough to tell the people of Raleigh that we do, can and will sell more and better oysters for the same amount of money than any dealer in Raleigh can afford to sell. We keep them as cold as ice without letting the ice destroy the natural flavor of the oysters. Try us and if we do not satisfy you, don't pay for what you get.
