Dr. Fleming, of Warrenton, was is the city today and paid Governor Cara short visit, Mrs. W. S. Barnes left for Wilson this morning where he goes to visit Rev. T. L. Grissom, of the Christian Advocate, was in the city today and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. John Wilbur Jenkins, of the News and Observer, has returned from the streets of Cairo and elsewhere. Rev. W. H. Davis of Wake Forest was in the city today on his way to Dinn where he will presch tomorrow

Governor Carr returned to the city yesterday from a a visit to Tarboro, and was hard at work in the Execu office this morning.

Hon, H. J. Turner, Congressman trom Georgia and a brother of Dr. V. R. Turner, of this city, is here from Washington visiting the latter.

Mr. Hardy T. Gregory, Postoffice Inspector, is here attending Federal Court, in which he is a witness in several eases. Mr. Gregory is one of the youngest inspectors in the service.

Governor Carr, Col. Fred. A. Olds and Mr. T. K. Bruner leave Monday for Southport and vicinity, where they will spend several days on a pleasant outing. Col. Olds, whore talent for story telling is known over the State, has been elected historian by the party.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Drop in and see Mesers. Heller Bros. "Reverse Button Fly" and "Viel." They are the latest.

Rev. Joseph Potts will preach at the First Saptist Church temorrow in the absence of the pastor.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell county was here again today, and saw the Governor in behalf of the old convict White, who was mentioned in Thursday's pa-and court had to be adjourned for the term. The Bath conspiracy was up for trial.

Judging from the handsomely gotton up and engraved invitations, the inauguration of Governor-elect Bradley at Frankfort, Kentucky, on the tenth, will be a grand occasion. Governor Carr today received his in. vitation to be present.

We regret to note that Mr. W. H. Lancaster's valuable family horse, "June-bug," got a bad kick last night, breaking one of his hind legs, and today had to be shot. He was a fine animal and was greatly prized by Mr

Governor Carr today offered a reward of one hundred and fifty dollars for the capture and conviction of the the unknown person or persons who burned the store, barn and dwelling of W. L. Bryan, at Boone, Watangs county. The arson was done on July 5th last. It is thought that the reward will secure the guilty parties'

Mr. J. W Mitchell, ticket agent of the Southern rallway, is scheduled to leave for the Atlanta Expositiva tomorrow. When told by Thos. Beartt, that Papenta, the mirrow danear had fallen through a gloss window and would not appear in several weeks. Frank had not fully determined so to the time of his departure. Mr. Mitchell has had his ticket countereigned by Col. T. "Spencer" Hearts, which fact gives him right-of-way on the Hidway heights.

The cranial resistance of the coon of this section is something to defy the chiese of the lapidary. To-day a runaway stude team on Wilmington street struck and upper a wagon and threw a negree toy out, allinging him about Mines feet. His head struck the rock parement with a being subsplanted to wake the despens, and the appearance of tracture or scannation, but the count bubbed up occasely and waited or with a grin. He didn't get so much as a jaz.
