Great danger was imminent with train crew, who went to the front trains. The duty of coming to the city and notifying the authorities of the wreck devolved upon engineer Robertson, as the rest of the train crew had gone out to signal. Mr Robertson came to the block house, shattered condition and broke the news. In a short time after the to the station house and Chief Heartt notified the Asylum authorities.

They remained at the station house last night and this morning, and were carried to Oxford on the morning train by Mr. Wm. F. Utley.

The boys were seen at the station house this morning by a Press-Visitor reporter. They were peering through the iron grates which extend over the side walk and through which passing people could be seen on the street. The little fellows were not communicative at first.
They were finally engaged in conversation and answered questions put to them. They gave as their excuse for running away that they were tired of Oxford and wanted to get away.

When asked did they want to return, they said "yes" half hesitatingly.

Both of the boys are in the printing department at Oxford. One of them was asked how amany em's he set a day.

"We don't set em's," he said, "but I sets a galley and a half a day."

A New Branch Postoffice.

Raleigh has a new branch postoffice. Mr. Dughi will hereafter keep stamps for every body, but the stamps, like all the rest of his goods, will be sold only for cash. This will be a great convenience to many people, especially at night, as Mr.
Dughi is always open till midnight.

they rejected over co-operation, &c., &c. There is a Democrat in the universe smart enough to catch an ordinary North Carolina Populist in such a trap as this. And they are hereby formally notified of that fact.

"Now, in our opinion, the Populist are ready to endure injury for the sake of their cause, but as for tamely submitting to insult from Bourbon Democracy, NEVER! NEVER!! Chairman Jones is supposed to be the mouthe-piece of Mr. Bryan. If Mr.
Jones is expressing the sentiments of Mr. Bryan, then Mr. Bryan is proving to be a man unfit for the Presidential chair; for no man who will refuse to respect sentiments and wishes of millions of his fellow countrymen is fit for the exalted position of President. And if this young statesman's head is becoming swelled on account of honors that have been accorded him, he should be promptly reminded that the same forces which caused that swelling can do that which will UNSWELL it, and that very little provocation is needed for doing it. He is by no means the only man in America that genuine reformers are willing to vote for.

Settle Tells How It Is.

Among the callers at Republican headquarters yesterday were Congressman Thomas Settle and Congressman Pearson, of North Carolina. Both brought encouraging reports from the State, and Mr. Settle said that he would not be surprised to see North Carolina's electoral vote in the McKinley column.
He said that there was more sound sentiment in the State than most people dreamed of, while the South was especially interested in protection. Gen. Dudley also called on Mr. Apsley, and expressed great interest in the impending campaign.
Washington Post.

There is no hope of victory for the Populists in Georgia. Fusion with the Republicans and Prohibitionists would not permit Democratic victory. Watson knows that, but he thinks that he can break the backbone of Democracy in doubtful States, and he intends, if he can, to punish the Democrats for their refusal to affiliate with him.

This is a forecast of the convention's probable action:

On national affairs endorse the St. Louis platform, depreciate the fact that the People's party has not been met in the same spirit as it displayed toward the Democrats in the nomination of Bryan, call upon the national committee to put out a straight Populist candidate for President.

On Georgia affairs: A short platform declaring chiefly for a free ballot and a State dispensary law; the nomination of a full ticket for State officers, to be headed in all probability by Rev. J. B. Garbrell, ex-president of the Mercer University. Macon.

Not Sending Money Out of Raleigh.

Mr. McDonald received seven checks for members of the Raleigh Branch of the Southern this morning amounting to $651.36. They had paid in only $596.40. A clear profit of $54.96. More than paid, this looks like money coming back home.
We can heartily recommend the Raleigh Branch of the Southern to our patrons.

Music at the Park Tonight.

There will be music at Pullen Park by Haywood's string band tonight from 7 o'clock to 9:30. These hours have been adopted in order that children may have an opportunity to go and enjoy the music before supper, while the grown people can go after supper.

Will Move Into the New Quarters.

Thompson, Mr. Waugh, the battery of lady type-writers and assistants who compose the Democratic Committee, will move into new headquarters at the

Mr. Manly and his force of of preliminary work. Everything will move along smoothly after the Damage to the Cotton.

The Charlotte News of yesterday says: "Within the past few days there has been a decided change in the cotton crop prospect of Mecklenburg. On account of the hot, dry weather, the cotton is dropping off at a rapid rate, and unless there is rain within the next ten days, the crop will be decidedly short. Sharon farmers tell the News that only the full grown bolls are holding on.
Everything under the size of a half grown boll is dropping off."
