Cooler Weather.

A light depression is moving off the New England coast and the barometer is generally high in the Southwest over Texas.

The weather is cooler in the Valley and Lake region, but warm still along the Southern and Gulf coasts.

The weather is clear in the North but cloudy in the South, with conditions favorable for local showers.

The next few days will be cooler in the east.

With His Honor Today.

In the Mayor's court today, Ruffin Weaver was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Robert Ransom was given thirty days on the roads for engaging in an affray.

One Pollard had been given the benefit of a right-hand swing on his head by a young man named Hayes and he took the stand as principal witness against his aggressor.

Pollard stated that Hayes cursed him and in return he called him brother. Mayor Russ asked him if the blow was a hard one, and his reply was that it might have been harder. When asked whether his assailant was drunk, he replied that he was somewhat drifty. Pollard's course was conciliatory from the start and his concluding remark was, "I want to avoid trouble."

The gospel tent at the corner of Cabarrus and Person streets, where meetings have been going on for the past two weeks, was removed this morning to Oak Dale avenue, the grove at the northern terminus of Person street, where meetings will be commenced tonight for the whites conducted by Revs. Williams and Brooks. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Wants a Presidential Candidate.

The Progressive Farmer says: "A million Populists will refuse to support Bryan if Sewall is not taken down."

"The Populists have met the silver Democrats more than half way, but if Sewall is not taken down a Presidential candidate is certain. This feeling is strong in the North and West as well as in the South."
