"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.
To exchange a faded and worn nature for one bright, buoyant and powerful.
To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.
To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.
The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to credulous seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.
A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:
"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I had, I'm afraid, with joy, I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born today. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"
And another thus:
"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."
Write to the IRIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y. and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any charge, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

a shirt home from a place dignified by the name of laundry, which looked as though it had washed itself?—which was of varying colors—the predominating tints being blue and yellow—poorly iron, with a crease here and a wrinkle there, by way of ornament?
