GUESS AT THE RESULT.

While the sporting world is busy placing money on the chances of the favorite candidates of its respective constituency, the PRESS-VISITOR proposes to have a small trial at guessing among its readers.

We will give a year's subscription to the PRESS-VISITOR to the one who names the successful gubernatorial candidate in North Carolina and who guesses nearest to his plurality, and we will also give a year's subscription to the one who names the Presidential candidate who will carry North Carolina and comes nearest to his plurality.

The contest will be open for guesses to be sent to the PRESS-VISITOR up till the evening before election day and will be decided by a committee which will be announced before that time.

Those who think that they hold the key to the political situation will now have an opportunity to display their powers of calculation and prophecy. Let them send in their predictions. The successful contestants will be announced as soon after election day as the results can be obtained.

SAVE THE STATE.

One of the most prominent and best informed Democrats in the State, and one who has observed the political history of the State as closely as any man in it, expresses the belief that if the full Democratic strength comes out on election day Mr. Watson will poll from 150,000 to 155,000 votes, Russell probably 125,000 and Mr. Guthrie the remainder.

He is confident that Mr. Watson will be elected if the white Democracy of the State does its duty. According to this figuring Mr. Watson ought to get a safe plurality, and we would impress upon the Democrats of North Carolina the importance of mustering their strength on election day to preserve the interests of the State against Russellism, whatever else the day may bring forth. It will be a sad day for North Carolina when Daniel L. Russell goes into the gubernatorial chair and the respectable white people of this State should line themselves up in an infrangible phalanx against such a calamity.

Albert Newson, an Englishman by birth, and a resident of St. Louis, has a most pronounced tendency to enter the uncertain state of matrimony. Four times he has ventured in the role of a husband and court records show no divorce proceedings against him. All four of his various wives are said to be alive. One of them, who claims to be Mrs. Newson the third, on Tuesday applied for a warrant against Newson, charging him with bigamy, and he was arrested. Newson does not deny that he is much married. He said that his various wives told him that they would not agitate the matter of his many marriages.

Annie Weir, a former slave, who used her old master at Louisville, Ky., William Weir, for twenty-four years' pay at $3 per week, has been given a verdict of $1,650, which is about half the amount she asked for. She had worked for him ever since her emancipation without wages on her agreement to lodge, clothe and feed her as long as she lived.

We deeply regret to note the death of the mother of Mr. G. Sam Bradshaw, of Randolph. He has countless friends throughout North Carolina whose most heart-felt sympathy will go out to him in his greatest of sorrows.
