Mr. C. H. Stonebank, Denton's chef, is able to be at work again after two weeks' sickness.

Mr. Sherwood Higgs left this ning for the North. He will visit Baltimore. Philadelphia, New York and Boston in search of Christmas tricks and seasonable goods at barmin prices.

A convict from Jones county, who some time ago escaped from a gang and fled to South Carolina, was returned to the penitentiary today.

James Barber, a little darkey d 9, is a burglar and a "slick" me too, it seems. He was in the tation house this morning. He enrugh it, but found nothing to his taste, so on leaving he carried away a broom. It is his second offence.

The canvass of the voie, for elec-tors began this morning in the office of the Secretary of State. The clerks in that office are sided by Messrs. John Nichols, A. B. Andrews, Jr., W. J. Bragg and Crowder, of the State Treasury, so all political par-tics save the Prohibition are repreinstead

The crews on the Norfolk and Chaitanooga special on the South-ern now have their lie-over in Raleigh, and the many friends of Pull-man Conductor Campbell are glad to see him in the city again. The Norfolk and Chattanooga special is now a very fine train and is also a quick one. It now leaves Baleigh for Greensboro at 3:40 p. m., thirty minutes earlier than formerly.

The weather this morning is re-markably fine over almost the entire country. The high area is now central over the South Atlantic States, while a new storm is central in the northwest, over Minnesota. Very little rain has fallen anywhere, small amounts being reported only from Marquette and Omaha.

The weather is clear everywhere except at Huron, Memphis, Vicksburg and Key West, where it is

The temperature has risen considerably in the central valley; it is still cool in the east, and frost was reported at Charlotte.

A Night's Frollo Tuesday. The chief claim made for the commay which will be seen at the demy of Music Tuesday night in of s' jolly, rollicking comedy, "A ght's Frolic," is its general exallence and its showing that a com-dy performance need not necessa-rily be horse-play or burlesque. There are no rivers of real water, no locomotives, nopickanniny bands, and no attempts at realism in "A Night's Frolic" with which to com-Night's Frolio" with which to com-mand attention or win success, for the piece depends entirely upon con-nervative methods and legitimate acting, and in these particulars, it is said, every inember of the Wilson-Thayer Company does commendable work. In the matter of scenic dis-play, effects required by the story and appointments, however, the management have been quite as com-nistent as in its selection of a cast, and the production will have the ad-vaniage of special settings and every its stice to detail. intion to detail.
