W. E. JONES,

206 Fayetteville Street.

As the vast majority of the patrons of a retail dry goods establishment are women, it follows as a matter of course that the store that carries the lines and prices most attractive to them falls not in its reward. We are constantly aiming to arouse the enthusiasm and affections of the fair shoppers of this community by carrying an array of elegant and useful articles in dry goods, fancy goods, shoes, etc., a little below our competitors, making the store "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." CAPES.

One hundred and fifty new garments on sale temorrow. We have the capes you'd be proud of. All the style you can stand, all the wear you want, all the warmth of comfort, and we will sell them lower than we ever have sold so good a cape. What's it made off How much is the price? Come and see; there are some things that can't be all told about on paper.
