Santa Claus.

A Magnificent Line of High Class Novelties, Toys and Fancy Goods for the Holidays, all Bought when Prices were Lower than Ever Known.

All the other lines were renewed and filled up with the newest and best to be found. Our store is now a veritable Santa Claus land for young and old. Everybody is invited to come and inspect the most elaborate display of lovely goods to be found. The best and choicest goods always go first, therefore we suggest that you come at once, when the lines are all complete.

We will pack and store any purchase made now and deliver when you wish them up to the 23d. We cannot promise to deliver later for the reason that we will be taxed to our utmost to deliver goods sold on the 24th.

Take a bird's eye glance at our windows. We are agent here for Santa Claus. All little children who wish to write the old man will find a box at our front door for them to mail their letters to Santa. Every letter mailed in this box and written by a child 10 years old and under, by the 23d of December, will receive a remembrance from old Santa. The best letter will get the biggest doll in the house. Direct all letters to "Mr. Santa Clause," care of W. E. Jones, Raleigh, N. C. Don't wait; write now.

CAPES.

Hush! don't talk too loud. Did you know that we were selling capes at lower prices than most merchants buy the my we had one hundred new capes in the latest makes to come in this week; we have new ones coming in daily; we can't get enough, it seems, but we like it. The more we sell the cheaper we can sell; we mean to make this R sleigh's best store; we are certainly receiving the hearty co-operation of the people, and it makes us re-

MILLINERY. Don't forget your new hat for Christmas; wasn't we fortunate in securing our present milliner? we have had hundreds of ladies to tell us that she could suit them in a hat better than any trimmer they ever tried. Another thing, we sell millinery goods at the same small profits that we do other things, which insures you a saving of a good bit on your hat. Trimmed hats 50, 75c, 81, 1 50 and up to $5 $8, or as high as you want.
