They asked the Fitzgerald colony for a grant of 160 acres of land and lumber for the buildings, the value of which to be issued to the colony company in stock. The colony company accepted their offer, and Mr. Fitzgerald, its agent, is now in the North to try and complete the arrangements.

OIL HEATERS ECONOMY

May be necessary in many ways when dollars are scarce and wants many, but it is not desirable to practice frugality in the purchase of food, which is life. Below a certain standard food imperfectly nourishes; up to that standard it costs a reasonable price. We never want more than a reasonable price for our Groceries.

RAPID SALES
Give our customers the benefit of close margins. We never keep anything that is not the best of its kind, and we only want a fair profit on what we invest in it.

CHOICE GROCERIES

To the Tax Payers of Wake County.
I urge and insist that I must collect the taxes, and that each taxpayer must come forward and settle at once. It is important that I should close up my tax account for the year 1896, and hence make this urgent appeal. To all who come forward and settle before December 1st, 1896, I shall charge no cost, but after that I shall charge cost as allowed by law. This is positively the only notice I shall send out.

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY.
Under and by virtue of authority conveyed in a deed of trust given by Chas H. Belvin, trustee, Ella M. Harrison and Wm H. Harrison to George H. Snow, trustee, and Miss Catharine Boylad, cestui que trust, dated the 3d day of May, 1892, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wake county, North Carolina, in book 120, page 583, I will, on the 5th day of January, 1897, at 12 o'clock m., at the court house door in the city of Raleigh, N. C., expose for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, all the right, title, interest and estate of the said Ella M. Harrison and Wm H. Harrison of, in, and to the following described lot or parcel of land situated, lying and being in the city of Raleigh, county of Wake and State of North Carolina, being part of lot No. 83 in the plan of said city and bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a post on Martin street, Husted's corner, thence east with said street one hundred and sixty feet to a post, formerly Jesse P. Nevi le's corner, now Gooch's corner, thence south, with his line one hundred and nine feet to a post, in Thomas Jenkins' line, thence west with his line one hundred and sixty feet to a post, late said Husted's corner, thence north with his line one hundred and nine feet to the beginning, containing one half acre more or less, and being the same lot of land conveyed by deed to Chas H. Belvin, trustee, by S. D. Harrison, which is recorded in the Register's office of Wake county in book 36, page 252. Thence said Ella M. Harrison being the owner of a life interest in said lot of land, and the said Wm H. Harrison of an estate in the same, vests under in one-third of said lot upon the death of said Ella M. Harrison.

This 4th day of December, 1896.
