December Crop Report.

The state crop report for Decem ber has been issued. Inquiries were made as to what crops actually were. The answers, taking all crops together, show a high average. The September and October report on the condition indicate respectively 63 and 65 per cent. of an average, while the vield is now shown to have been 76 per cent. The exceptionally long, warm season and dryness caused phenomenal maturing. Corn was 80 per cent, peanuts 78, sweet po-taices 92. The amount of wheat sowed is 98 per cent, and its condition is over 100. Of eye 86 per cent. is sowed and its condition is 95. Of fattening hogs the percentage is 99, and of cattle 95.

A Town Kid Puts a Country Youth in Thoughtful Mood.

A colored boy, just grown and fresh from the country was walking along Cabarrus street yesterday afternoon with a five dollar bill in his hands. The boy had an unshaken confidence in the world at large and his mind was centered on city objects rather than the five dollar bill of which he was the proud

A Raleigh kid-a colored youthwho, like the heathen Chinee, has learned ways that are dark, and tricks that are vain, was sauntering close behind with no special object in view.

He caught sight of that five dollar william and happy thoughts of anbe congratulated. He has a jewel ticipated pleasure flitted through his cranium. He was overcome with joy; he could stand it no longer.

With a look of wonder the beguiled countryman saw the swift footed little nigger dash past and as he did he "reech" after the greenback.

The unsuspecting countryman was not so slow in taking in the situation and he put out in chase of the boy. But the nimbleness of the town boy's limbs was too much for country. The latter hollowed and yelled as he ran along the street in Officer Melvin Andrews saw the pursued as he speeded past a corner at a flying gate. Officer Thompson saw the countryman in wild pursuit, but he did'nt glimpse the boy who was gaining ground every minute.

The boy went down the Fayetteville road and turned at the railroad crossing near the wagon factory. A squad of section men were at work on the railroad. Some one cried,

"stop the boy." Out came a pistol from the little demon's coat and the laborers on the railroad fell down the embankment When the kid had passed, some one suggested that the crowd pursue

EVANGELINE BOOKED.

The Great Comic Opera Production Com The management of the Academy of Music booked, last evening, possibly the greatest attraction that ever came to the city. It is none other than E. E. Rice's famous Evangeline, one of the largest comic up to secure the production. After a lively telegraphic correspondence for the past several days with E. E. Rice, the Manager of Evangeline, the management of the Academy of Music closed a contract for the appearance of that celebrated Opera on the evening of the sixteenth of January. Raleigh and Charleston were bidding for the attraction which makes only one stop between Richmond and Savanah, Evangeline carries its own splendid scenery and a company of more than fifty people. Raleigh has for a long time been desirous of seeing a big opera just from the metropolis and now the people have the opportunity. It is safe to say that this is the largest and greatest operatic production before the people.

The management of the Academy had to put up a guarantee of five hundred dollars before the company would consent to come here. They feel justified that the music and operatic-loving people of Raleigh will see them out in their under-

Evangeline is one of the most magnificent productions of the day. It is sent our by E. E. Rice, the author of "1492" and other great successes. It has had a highly successful run in New York for many months, continuing through the summer season.

Stuart Rolson Another theatrical engagement of more than usual interest is the appearance of Stuart Robson and Janauschek, the following night: The cleverness displayed by Matthew Ponderbury when discovered by his wife, celebrating with the ex-music hall singer, is one of the genuine comedy hits of the year and is sufficient in itself to insure the success of that amusing comedy 'Mrs. Ponderbury's Past," which in conjunction with the one-act farce 'Mr. Gilman's Wedding" will be the entertainment offered on Thursday the sixteenth at the Academy of Music by Stuart Robson and his excellent company of actors, headed by Madame Janauschek, the greatest tragedienne of the present stage

I have the battle ground already, and there will be no interference." Stuart would say nothing regarding the location beath of Little senneth Young. Died, at 9:30 a. m. on this 10th day of December, 1896, Kenneth Kreth Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Young, aged three years and five months.

The above announcement will bring sadness and grief to many hearts in this community. It has been known for several days that little Kenneth was very illand grave fears were excited soon after the first appearance of the attack which proved fatal. All that loving hearts and skillful hands could do to aid him in the battle against the dreadful disease (membranous croup), was done, but all proved to be of no avail. His sickness came with the wintry storm and he perished with the flowers. It is not very often that God sends into this world such bright sweet little spirits as was thot of Kenneth Young. His presence brought joy and sweetness into the home where he spent his brief sojourn here on earth, and wherever he went there was sunshine and gladness. He was the object of universal admiration and affection. The home which he made so bright and happy is left dark and sorrowful and loving hearts are bruised and bleeding; but he has passed from the shadows and sorrows of earth to the brightness and bliss of the Paradise of God.

The strongest desire and the highest ambition which he came to know while in this world was that he might become a "choir boy." Now he is among the white robed throng where he can sing eternally the song of Moses and the Lamb. The funeral will be held from the church of the Good Shepherd tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock.

Friends of the family are invited to attend.

May Davenport's Burlesque Company appeared at Metropolitan Opera House last evening. Let us hope that the Davenport aggregation has gone for all time. The audience was a kindly disposed one. No personal or bodily injury was done the Davenport aggregation and therefore we say the audience was a charitable

J. T. Allen, a mine owner of Arizona, and Ridge Quigley, of Cleveland, Ohio, also interested in the extensive mining lands in the West, especially in the Cripple Creek region, were in the city yesterday en route to North Carolina, says the Chattanooga Times.

These gentlemen and their associates have just purchased 700 acres of land in Warren county, N. C. where gold is believed to exisit in large quantities. They intend to largely develop the gold lands of that section and with this end in view have just shipped about $90 .-000 worth of gold mining machinery to Warren county.

They claim to have visited some of the finest gold fields in the world and declare that the best gold fields of the world, the richest, are in North Carolina, north Georgia and Alabama. These they declare will produce more gold than any other sections in the world when properly bandled

The specimens of the quartz found in the North Carolina field assays very high. It was tested in Kansas City and London and shows up magnificently. "In two years," said Mr. Allen, there will be the biggest gold boom in the world for years. This will be in the south."

Mr. Allen will have erected at Warren county a stamping mill and cloronization plant at once.

BUTLER HOTLY ROASTED

Tom Watson Scores Him Unmerel-

Tom Watson's latest utterance regarding Senator Marion Butler is as follows

"As long as Marion Butler is Chairman of the Populist Committee it will be utterly impossible to get the real Populists to take any interest in campaign work. They knew him to be a selfish, unprincipled trickster, and nothing he can now do will ever cause them to forget what a liar and traitor he was during the campaign of 1896. "Judged from the Butler stand point, Populism is a mere article of political merchandise. He is devo-id of any sense of honor. Words are to him the mere tools in the game of deception. "He does not mind telling the truth provided he loses no point in Mendosa was called in the Mayor's the game by doing so, nor does he court this morning, but continued mind telling an untruth even if it

> 'We harbor no resentment against Butler. It would be unjust to do so. When a constitutional coward runs away from the battle-field all generous men feel a profound sympathy for the victim of a natural defect of character. In the same way we judge Marion Butler. Nature made him what he is and he cannot help it.

"To be foxy, double-faced, false of tongue, and treacherous at heart is natural to him, and when he betrays those who trust him and deceives those who are silly enough to take him at his word, he has no more sinned against his nature than does our friend, the 'Willian Goat,' when it fights with horns rather than mouth or feet

'Too much Butler limbers us in the regions of our faith. Too much Butler gives us the inclination to look with longing eyes in the direc-tion of the mountains of Hepsidam. "This deponent has had enough of Butler to last him a life time,
