From Now Till Xmas

Only 8 more weeks from now to Christmas, but they will be busy days for us, and you.

All this great big stock of holiday goods must be disposed of. The Books, Dolls, Toys, Games and Fancy Goods are to be sold; we carry one of them over.
Great crowds visit us daily—still greater crowds will follow.
There is a reason why we have these crowds—a glance through our store will show you the reason.
We cordially invite you to make our store your headquarters, not only during the holiday season, but every day during the year. We are building business; we aim to make yesterdays best, better today, and every day. We are not yet quite one year old. We have to thank you for helping us make the store more to your liking. Your approval is our aim and desire; we hope to merit your good will more fully each day, week, month and year. Just now our entire attention is given to helping you in your gift-giving. You'll be able to decide on what would suit you in half the time here, and you'll have to spend less money for it here than elsewhere. We don't know what any other store in the city has; we have as much as we can attend to in our own business, but we have heard many ladies say that our Christmas stock is the best selected in the city, and the prices are much lower.
If you haven't been in, come; we want you to see our stock.

Our Christmas Tree

On the 23d will be quite an event; we have asked Mrs. Dr. Bobbit, with two other ladies, to assist us with the Christmas tree. She has kindly consented to do so. All the little ones who have written old Santa will please remember and be at the opera house at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 23d, when old Santa will deliver each one some little present, and the big doll will be delivered to the little girl writing the best letter at the same time. Some of the letters will be read. Parents and friends of those who have written are invited.

Oil Paintings Free.

We have made a new contract with Mr. Matt, the lightning artist of New York. He will be with us this week only. During this week we give with each $2 purchase one of these elegant oil paintings free. Drop by and see him painting them in our big show window.

Tomorrow
