PERSONAL.
Prof. O. A. Betts, of the faculty of the deaf and dumb institution at Morganton, was in the city yesterday.
Gen. Smith D. Atkins, of Freeport, Ill., is in the city to spend Christmas with the family of Mr. N. T. Cobb.
Miss Grace McGill, who has been visiting Miss McPheeters, returned to her home in Petersburg yesterday.
Superintendent O'Brien of the Southern railway and his stenographer, Mr. Frank McMackin were in the city today.
Mr. John Gatling, who has been representing the firm of Barbee & Co., at Edenton and South Carolina points during the past season is at home to spend the Christmas holidays and it is a pleasure to his friends here to see his genial countenance once more.

Stands at the head.
Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says, "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Ariz, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds." I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at John Y. MacRae's drug store.

Don't forget I am headquarters for Norfolk oysters. I will have plenty of Xmas oysters for everyone.

Old Santa Claus' Reception a Great Hit.

Three thousand visit the store. Enjoyable sights. Little ones made happy. Day's receipts a record-breaker. Grand finale a crowning success. All reserve stock brought out. Everything displayed. Big reduction. Prices slashed on all Christmas specialties. Valentine's novelties at half price. Now for the RUSH for the next four days. Be on hand early in the day.

By special request we continue the great
50c Kid Glove Sale
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, equal to any $1 or $1.50 Glove in the city.

PICTURES.

Nothing more appropriate than a nice picture for a present; they are ornamental and useful. We have quite a nice selection, ready framed in elegant frames with hook and card ready to hang. The prices range from 50c to $3.50 each. We want to sell all of these this week. As an inducement tomorrow, Wednesday, we will give free with every framed picture we sell one of those hand-painted oil pictures which we have been giving with every $2.00 purchase. We have given more than a thousand of these and have only about 200 left. Remember, one of these tomorrow free with every framed picture we sell from 50c up.

Tomorrow afternoon at Metropolitan Hall, at 4 o'clock, all children who have written Santa Claus are requested to be present. The big doll for the little girl who wrote the best letter will be presented. All who have written will be remembered by old Santa Claus.
Monday after Christmas we put on sale all Cloaks and Capes at reduced prices.
We have had the best Cape season we ever had, but it's because our prices have been so low and our stock so worthy. We still have a good stock on hand, but we want to sell the last one before stock-taking time. That's why we are going to reduce the prices.
All Toys are reduced 15c off of marked price.
