BILL PASSED HOUSE

House Refused to Adjourn in Honor of McKinley.

The House met at 9 o'clock this morning.

The Cumberland dispensary bill was taken up and discussed at length.

A motion to leave the establishment of a dispensary to a vote of the people was defeated.

Mr. Pinnix of Yadkin, advocated his bill to take Moore's North Carolina History out of the public school list.

Mr. McKinley asked Pinnix if he favored state adoption.

Mr. Eddins said this was the only state history we have.

Mr. Albert Guerry of Atlanta, who painted the likeness of Vance is one of the rising young artists of the present day.

Mr. Ray opposed the resolution. He said it was out of order as the senate was not in session.

Mr. McCassey moved the rules be suspended and the resolution be passed.

Mr. Hollins from the committee sent forward the report of the election of trustees for the University.

At noon the house went into an election of trustees of the university.

Mr. Roberts made a motion to adjourn one minute in honor of William McKinley.

Miss Oora Holt of Graham is in the city visiting Mrs. M. T. Norris.

A SUBERB COMPANY

Miss Floy Crowell at Metropolitan Hall—Best of all Popular Priced Attractions.

The Floy Crowell Company is delighting large audiences every evening at Metropolitan Opera House.

The play last night "A Fatal Error" was enthusiastically received by a good sized audience.

Messrs. Armitage and Fitzpatrick have an expensive company and one that is deserving of crowded houses.

Tonight that delightful little comedy, "A Circus Girl" will be the attraction.

The house ought to be crowded.

PAINTING OF VANCE.

Can be Had for $1,000—It is Very Much Admired.

The painting of Vance, which is on exhibition in the rotunda of the Capitol is an object of admiration by large crowds every day.

McKINLEY TAKES THE OATH.

A Successful Inauguration Ceremony.

EXTRA SESSION 15TH.

Washington, March 4.—McKinley will issue tomorrow his proclamation for an extra session.

For the first time in the history of the nation members of a defeated party join hands in cordially and sincerely with the victors in celebrating a change of administration.

The senate after sitting until the small hours this morning recessed until eight o'clock.

Cleveland's rheumatism is practically gone this morning.

The police had no difficulty in preserving order.

Forty thousand people witnessed the inauguration oath by Chief Justice Fuller at the eastern portico of the capitol.

"Our money is all good now, but its value must not be further threatened.

"We should have more revenue without delay, hindrance or postponement.

"The question of international bimetallism will have my early and earnest attention.

TO TAKE THE OATH.

The Carnival to be Presented at Wilmington—Two Raleigh Boys on the Stage Elsewhere.

The Clique Dramatic will present "The Carnival" at Wilmington Easter.

Raleigh not only has the best amateur theatrical talent, but she is furnishing it for other cities.

Mr. John W. Faison and Mr. Jas. Q. Anderson, whose Raleigh friends and acquaintance are legion received very complimentary notices from the Norfolk Landmark in its criticism of the production.

"In the character of Mr. Cattermole, Mr. John W. Faison was perfect. His representation of the cynical, morose, rich East Indian was as true to life as if the genial Carolinian had really been himself of the churlish kind.

"The Broad street tailor, which Mr. James N. Anderson successfully essayed, was creditably performed.

"The following are the opening, highest, lowest and closing quotations of the New York cotton market today:

Table with columns: MONTHS, OPENING, HIGH, LOW, CLOSING. Rows for January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, Sept, October, November, December.

The following shows the semi-weekly movement of cotton at 13 leading interior towns this week compared with that of last week, last year and 1895:

By Telegraph to the Press Visitor. WASHINGTON, March 4.—The Spanish legation has no news regarding the release of the Compellit's crew.

DR. LEAKS VICTORY.

Induced to remain in Washington with Mark Hanna and Gov. Bushnell.

It is with reluctance and sorrow on our brow that we record the fact that the Rev. Dr. R. H. W. Leak failed to make the trip to Canton to escort the president elect to the seat of government.

Dr. Leak, Jim Young will take leave of the county and his admirers will meet the Rev. Leak on his triumphal return from Washington and do him the honor that he is entitled to.

The following extract from a letter from Dr. Leak dated Washington and addressed to a gentleman in this city will explain the Doctor's movements:

"I promised to wire you from Canton, but late Sunday morning I received a message from the committee to remain in Washington for a conference Monday at ten o'clock.

Some of the committee were here and others were on the way, therefore I remained with Hon. M. A. Hanna and Governor Bushnell who came on to perfect arrangements."

Attention is called to the ad of R. D. Bynum in this issue. He furnishes all kinds of rubber stamps on short notice.

Rev. C. A. G. Thomas, of Fayetteville, is at the Park. Mr. Thomas was once pastor of the Fayetteville Street Baptist church of this city.

Judge E. W. Timberlake went to Louisville yesterday. He said he thought the sentiment of Louisville was in favor of the dispensary.

Miss Lollie Williams returned yesterday from a six weeks visit in Portsmouth Va. Her many friends in Raleigh are glad to welcome her return home.

We call attention the new ad of Royal and Borden in this issue. They are making a special sale this week of ten-piece toilet sets, beautifully decorated and the price is a wonder. They are open at night.

Wiley P. Mangum, who was sentenced to three months imprisonment and fined $100 for illicit distilling at the recent term of federal court was taken to Oxford this morning to serve out his sentence.

At the office of Messrs. E. B. Cuthbert & Co. in this city interesting bulletins were received today giving an account of the inauguration ceremonies at Washington.

There will be a called meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. By order of the president.

Many Mormon Converts. CHICAGO, March 4.—A party of Mormon elders, under the leadership of B. H. Roberts, who have been preaching in the suburbs of this city since October 1, expect to take a colony of young people, many of them girls, to Salt Lake City about April 1.

Meetings have been held Sunday nights of late in Wicker Park, but it seems that the general public has not been aware of their nature.

Of late, however, reports of family trouble, anxiety about daughters, supposed to be visiting friends on Sunday evenings, and growing unrest in the community, have led to the suspicion that the Mormon influence was becoming strong enough to cut a figure. Already, it is said, 200 residents of the west side have come over to the Mormon way of thinking and the air in the vicinity of Wicker Park is thick with growing excitement over the work of proselyting.

The Charlotte Postmaster. CHARLOTTE, March 2.—Senator Pritchard has appointed Thursday night as a time for holding the primary to let the republicans here name their choice for postmaster. After the choice has been signified in this manner, a mass meeting will be held next week to ratify it.

The Hon. Fester will then not be called upon to decide between any political factions, and he will thus be enabled to maintain his hold on each.

ARBORVITAE L SWINSON

Causes Lieut-Governor and Speaker to be Arrested FOR TRESPASS.

Constable Upchurch, After Waiting Some Hours, Served the Papers—Governor Reynolds and Speaker Hileman Make no Resistance.

At the instance of Arborvitae L. Swinson, late enrolling clerk of the General Assembly warrants were issued for the arrest of Chas. A. Reynolds, Lt. Governor of North Carolina and A. F. Hileman, speaker of the House of Representatives for trespass.

The warrants were issued by Justice J. C. Marcom and placed in the hands of constable John Upchurch. The warrants commanded constable Upchurch to arrest Gov. Reynolds and speaker Hileman without delay and carry them immediately before Justice Marcom.

While the Lt. Governor and speaker were presiding over their respective assemblages, ratifying bills and dispatching the state's business, officer Upchurch was waiting in the lobby of the capitol, to serve the papers on the Lt. Governor and Speaker.

Friends of the two officers communicated with Mr. Upchurch. After having the warrants served on them, they agreed to appear at Justice Marcom's office this evening at four o'clock.

Arborvitae Swinson, who has added so much to the gaiety of the state, eclipsed all former achievements today when he swore out warrants for the arrest of two of the state's most honored officers. Every child in North Carolina knows that at one time Swinson was enrolling clerk of the legislature. It is equally as well known that he was kicked out of office because he refused to appoint two negroes to office. Next Mr. Swinson's office was forcibly taken from him.

Now Mr Swinson takes action against that action. The warrant, which is signed by Swinson sets forth that the affiant was in the lawful possession of a certain office and room in the state capitol building at Raleigh, N. C., known as the enrolling clerk's office, and while the affiant was in possession as aforesaid and on or about the day and date aforesaid C. A. Reynolds and A. F. Hileman late of said county unlawfully and wilfully and with force and arms and with strong hand break open the private drawers of said affiant in said room, all of which said breakings and entries were against the will of affiant he being present and forbidding contrary, etc.

At the office of Messrs. E. B. Cuthbert & Co. in this city interesting bulletins were received today giving an account of the inauguration ceremonies at Washington.

There will be a called meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. By order of the president.
