day says looks like Raleigh's new board of aldermen is going to defeat Charley Heartt for chief of police. We of course can't tell from here, but if LIVETY they do it will be a burning smame -one of which they will repent before the year is out

Greensboro tried this same thing once, and will never forget her experience. Men are not made to order for a place like this-they are born for the work-and when you get a man suited for it, keep him.

The Durham Sun of yesterday says: A beautiful Ferris wheel, made of corn, oats and rye, was Thursday afternoon loaded on a flat car and shipped to Charlotte for exhibition at the Woman's Exposition. It belonged to the Occoneeche farm, and was indeed an artistic thing, and will show off the products of the farm to good advantage. The wheel was boxed up in a frame so that it could not be injured in any way and then covered over with thick canvas to keep from getting wet in trans
