MRS. GLASS' DEFENSE

Her Sister, Mrs. Beddingfield, States Her Case.

COUNTER CHARGES.

Mrs. Glass is in Richmond and Her Sister Writes a Letter to the Press-Visitor—Mr. Hart Also Makes a Statement.

In this morning's mail the following letters were received by the editor of the Press-Visitor:

MR. ANDREWS—Will you please contradict an infamous slander by publishing my sister's letter in justice to me.

Very respectfully,
MRS. GLASS,
711 East Leigh street, Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, May 13th, 1897.

MR. ANDREWS, EDITOR PRESS-VISITOR:

DEAR SIR—I see a false statement in your paper of the 11th regarding the departure of my sister, Mrs. Glass, from Raleigh. She has been at home with us since Friday afternoon. She notified us that she was coming. Geo. Glass lied when he said it was unexpected to him. Mrs. Glass told him two weeks ago that she would go home if he did not change his way of living, as the people in the city were talking about his conduct with other women and his own servants were sneering and laughing about him. My sister packed her trunks two weeks ago and sent them to the depot, but decided to plead with him to reform. He told her that if she did not like his way of living she could go home, and the sooner the better, saying also they had better live apart, as he did not care for her; and then she could not see what he did. I saw how he was treating her and tried two years ago to get her to leave him, and she had her trunks packed to leave him, but he came to me and begged me to intercede for him with her, promising he would treat her right in the future, but he has never been kind to her, as I can prove by others. He went out every night, saying he was his own man and would do as he pleased. Her home was a most unhappy one. Does it look like a kind and affectionate husband who beats his wife with a chair? which Glass did a few years ago because she told him she knew of some of his conduct with women.

As to the charges against her, they are false from beginning to end. Several of her friends down there knew she was coming home and the reason therefor, and advised her to do so.

As to Mr. Hart, my sister has not seen him since he left Raleigh. Moreover, Glass was not kind to Mr. Hart while I was there a few weeks ago. He did not treat him well. My sister left on Friday morning, as can be proven by Mr. Henry W. Miller, Passenger Agent of the Southern railway, to whom she had telephoned on the evening before leaving, asking for the schedule and rate to Richmond, and by Baggage Agent Green. Mr. Hart left Tuesday morning.

Would she have taken her son if she intended wrong doing? A child 11 years old and over would hardly have been taken.

Now to let you know in regard to the money which she drew, she only had sixty-six dollars in Mr. Lacy's bank. This she drew out a week before she left, and Glass was aware of it. Raleigh, her son, had twenty dollars in Mr. Pullen's bank which he drew out to pay his mother for her bicycle.

There are other things which can be proved on Glass which may be brought against him later and which will make him ashamed to show his face anywhere.

MRS. J. B. BEDDINGFIELD,
711 E. Leigh street, Richmond, Va.

The Press-Visitor also received the following communication this morning:

RICHMOND, VA., May 13.

To the Editor Press-Visitor:

I want you to contradict the statement against me in your paper. I left Raleigh Tuesday morning at 11:45 and not Thursday, as stated by Mr. Glass, and I was not ordered away. I bid all my friends good bye the morning that I left, and had no cross words with anybody. I have not seen Mrs. Glass since I left Raleigh. If she left her husband it was not on my account, but on the account of his misconduct. I knew

Mrs. Glass as a lady, and I always respected her as a lady. I can prove all that I have said.

HENRY HART.

The Press-Visitor publishes the above communications in justice to the parties concerned, who were referred to in our previous publication on this subject, based upon information given by a friend of Mr. Glass and which publication was submitted to Mr. Glass' attorney before publication. We give space to the above statements in order to be fair to all parties involved.

"The Cows Come Home."

Editor Press-Visitor—The trifle I paid you to insert an "ad" in your paper of my strayed cows yesterday brought "the cows home" before half past 8 o'clock last night. Just think how fast your valuable paper works. You had the ad. at 3 o'clock p. m., at 6 your paper was out, at 8:30 the door bell rang and the caller said, "here's your cows." Thanks, many thanks.

Yours truly,
B. P. WILLIAMSON.

NEW TURN OF AFFAIRS

Powers May Not Be Able to Force the Sultan.

TO VACATE THESSALY

A Semi-official Statement from St. Petersburg—Greeks Seem to be Reviving and Turks Preparing to Strike Domoko.

By Cable to the Press-Visitor.

ATHENS, May 11.—It is announced this morning that the Greeks have captured Nicopolis, the site of the Turkish fortress on the Peninsula of Preveza.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—It is semi-officially announced today that in well informed Russian quarters the belief prevails that it will be difficult and possibly impossible to prevent the forces of the Sultan of Turkey from continuing the occupation of Thessaly after peace with Turkey and Greece is concluded. It is intimated that Russia will not be opposed to the permanent administration, if not annexation of Thessaly to the Turkish empire.

A dispatch this morning from Arta says the Greeks have occupied Philippiada and Epirus. The Turks retired from Almyros, where Gen. Smolenz has been. It is believed the Turks have concentrated their forces with a view of making an attack upon the Greek main position at Domoko.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.

LANSING, Mich., 11.—A bill passed the Lower House of the Legislature today which raises the specific taxes on railroad earnings in Michigan from $700,000 to about twice that amount. The rates are as follows: Roads earning less than $2,000 per mile, 2 per cent.; from $2,000 to $4,000, 4 per cent.; from $4,000 to $6,000, 6 per cent.; over $6,000, 10 per cent. This is a partial victory for Gov. Pingree.

ENDED IN GAY DANCE

The Druggists' Hop Last Night at the Capital Club.

The closing feature of the meeting of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association was a brilliant german tendered complimentary to the druggists last night at the Capital Club ball room. It was largely attended and Raleigh society was well represented, although there was a small attendance of the pharmacists themselves, and the "Dickey Bird," who flitted in at the window during the evening flew away after twittering the opinion that the Press-Visitor ought to give the druggists a roasting because so few of them were present. The "Dickey Bird" declared that here was a galaxy of the most beautiful women to be found in the United States who had come out to do them honor and he did not see more than about three of the visiting pharmacists present and he declared that they were the ugliest representatives in the association.

Among the dancers were: Miss Gertrude Bush with Mr Miller, Miss Lizzie Taylor with Mr Baker, Miss Strupper, of Columbus, Ga., with Mr Gwathmey, Miss Carrie Holt with Mr Geo H Snow, Miss Ethel Bagley with Mr Yearby, of Durham, Miss Blanche Blake with Mr Chears, of New Orleans, Miss Hoke with Mr Roberts, Miss Simmons with Mr S B Snow, Miss Andrews with Mr S J Hindsdale, Miss Mary E Davis with Mr A M Bobbitt, Miss Gulick, of Columbia, S. C., with Mr W H King, Miss Farrer, of Tarboro, with Mr Cook, of Fayetteville, Miss Hindsdale with Mr. Tom Denson, Miss Turner with Mr. Alex Andrews, Miss Davis, of Louisburg, with Mr. Pritchett.

The chaperones were: Mr and Mrs O Z Foster, Mr and Mrs Geo. Gatling, Mr and Mrs J B Timberlake, Jr., Mr. and Mrs Sutherland, Mrs J E Pogue, Mrs Julius Mahler.

Another most enjoyable feature of the convention of the druggists was the barbecue and Brunswick stew at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon. The occasion was under the supervision of Mr. John Y MacRae, which is enough said, and the barbecue and Brunswick were prepared by Sampson Anderson. It was most delightful and was highly enjoyed by the gay crowd of druggists and invited guests who gathered around the tables in Floral Hall.

The athletic contests were started with a foot race by Mayor Russ and Mr J Hal' Bobbitt, in which the latter was the winner.

The game of ball between the Sugar Coats and Gelatine Caps was quite amusing, and there was some good plays, in fact. The game resulted in a score of 5 to 2 in favor of the Sugar Coats.

In the "rifle contest," James I Johnson, of this city, won the first prize, a lot of assayed powders for percolation. J P Steadman of Oxford was awarded the second prize, one dozen bottles bromo seltzer.

The committee on papers read before the association, announced awards as follows:

For the best paper on "How to Make a Drug Store Pay Better," W W Parker, of Henderson. Best paper on "Practical Window Dressing," Mr. William. For six best written ads for local papers, W G Thomas, of Louisburg. For best formulas for soda water syrups, Mr E V Howell, of Rocky Mount.

The following other prizes were awarded to wit:

Ugliest member N C P A present, Mr. H R Chivers, of Philadelphia.

The heaviest weight member, Hal Bobbitt, of Raleigh.

The lightest weight member, Mr J A Melcher.

The biggest dude member, Mr. Birdsong, of Raleigh.

The slickest-headed pill roller present, Mr. E V Zoeller, of Tarboro.

The first prize in the throwing contest was awarded to Mr E N Howell of Rocky Mount. This was two dozen bottles bromo seltzer.

Mr Robert Mebane of Baltimore carried off the second prize, one dozen of the same drug.

Mr E V Howell won the prize in the running race. This was a five-pound package of pick leaf smoking tobacco. Dr Hubert Royster of this city was awarded the second prize, fifty cigars. In the standing long-jump the winners were the same as in the running race. Mr Howell's prize was a pound of pepsin and that of Dr Royster one-quarter pound pepsin.

Mr W H King won the first prize in the bicycle race. This was a handsome electric "bike lamp."

The second prize was a golf cap and fell to the lot of Mr A M Yearby of Durham.

One of the liveliest features of the afternoon was the wrestling match between Messrs E V Howell and W W Parker. Mr E V Howell carried off first prize, one hundred cigars, while Mr Parker was awarded one dozen bottles of Pond's extract as a second prize.

MORE THAN LIKELY.

Bill Life Says Some Durham Man Will Die in 60 Days.

Bill Life, the evangelist who is conducting a revival in Durham prefaced his remarks last night by stating the sermon to be preached would be the funeral of some person in Durham.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Life said:

"I say to you, I expect to hear of the death of some one in Durham within 90 days. It may be a minister of the gospel that has said, hands off of this work. I won't touch it, brethren, this work is of God. It may be some officer in the church, it may be some dancing girl, I don't know. It is not clear in my mind."

WOMEN CAN NOT VOTE

The Convention Defeats Mr. Battle's Resolution.

BISHOP CHESHIRE

Opposed It Vigorously—Resolutions of Sympathy—Bishop Cheshire Heartily Commended by the Convention.

The Diocesan convention had another interesting session this morning, which was largely attended.

The amendment to the Canons of 1878, proposed by Mr. R. H. Battle, chairman of the committee on Canons, to allow women to vote in all parochial elections was defeated.

An animated discussion was provoked by the consideration of this resolution. A number of delegates entered into the discussion.

Bishop Cheshire took the floor, vigorously opposing the resolution introduced by Mr. Battle. He declared it to be the most radical and revolutionary issue brought before the diocese.

The vote resulted as follows: ayes, clergy 10, Parish 7; noes, clergy 17, Parish 7. The resolution was defeated.

The following standing committee was elected: Dr M M Marshall, R H Lewis, PEHINES, Bennett Simdes and B F Bronson.
