RECALL FOR DE'LOME

That is One of the Results of the Spanish Ministry's Fall.

Washington, June 3.-Official and diplomatic circles are greatly interested in the news of the Canovas ministry having finally fallen. Secretary Sherman says undoubtedly the general opinion is that the relations between the government of Spain and the United States will be unchanged.

Changes in the policy of Spain toward Cuba wont be radical and Cubaus will not be benefitted by the ministry. Minister DeLome's recall from Washington is confidently expected.

The Spanish government has taken prompt steps to disown the responsibility for firing a solid shot at the ward line steamer, Valencia, by the Spanish cruiser, Maria Merodes. A disownal is made by Dehome of the consequence of the protest made to the state department by the ward officials

COAL MINE TO BE SOLD

All Parties Agree to Sale of Cumpock Property.

DECREE OF COURT

Signed by Judge Purnell Today-Compro mise in the Damages Cases Agreed To-John Gough Gets $1,000 For Damages.

A decree of foreclosure was signed by Judge Purnell in the federal court this morning by consent of all parties in the Langdon-Henszey Coal Mining Company matter.

Messrs A H Taylor, J W Hinsdate and T B Womack are appointed commissioners to sell the mining plant of the company at Cumnock, N C. It is understood that the sale will take place about September 1st, when the property will all change hands and the mines actively worked.

The litigation between the several parties will then be over the fund.

The court approved the compromise in the Cumnock damage suits by which the sum of $3,000 is directed to be paid by the receiver and the remainder of the compromise, the amount of which is $5,000, will take its place among the other claims against the corporation.

There was one other action also compromised at $1,000. This was for the alleged wrongful death of one Gough, a miner, who was killed by a coal car running over him about a month before the explosion.

Mormons in Evidence.

The Salisbury World of yesterday

Rowan county seems to be the golden field from which Mormon elders expect to reap an abundant harvest. Mention has been made in the World of the frequent arrivals and active doings of the Mormon missionaries in the county. Last week three genuine Salt Lake City elders arrived in the city and are probably at work disseminating their nefarious doctrine in the county today. The three men alluded to were approached by a World representative and asked for information regarding their line of work Parker, Jr., of Graham, and Miss in this county. They refused to say anything and would not even state united in marriage this afternoon at how long they would be in the SEAWELL-CARVER.

A Pretty Country Wedding Vesterday Near Forestville.

The magnificent and stately country home of Mrs. O. J. Carver, near Forestville, was the scene of a very pretty and happy wedding ceremony yesterday, when Miss Eddie Pearl Carver became Mrs. Joseph Lacey Seawell.

The families of the contracting parties are among the oldest and best known in Wake county and there was a very large attendance of relatives and specially invited friends. The Forestville road was alive with vehicles yesterday morning, more than sixty Raleigh persons going out by private conveyance.

As the hour for the ceremony approached the parlor and spacious hallway filled with admiring friends. Lovely and fragrant were the roses and choice flowers, brought with full hands to make a bridal bower of the parlor, which was made more attractive with decorations of ferns and palms.

The eighteen brides-maids first entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The brides-maids were:

Miss Lollie Williams, Raleigh N N C.; Miss Annie Baker, Greensboro; Miss Julia Cross, Gatesville; Miss Gertie Satterfield, Roxboro; Miss Annie Wiley, Salisbury; Miss Minnie Reid, Greensboro; Miss Lee Cross, Gatesville: Miss Lizzie Jones, Wake county; Miss Kate Stronach, Raleigh; Miss Margaret Hill, Raleigh; Miss Lilly Dunn, Forestville; Miss Susie Heartsfield, Forestville; Miss Bessie Belvin, Raleigh; Miss Miriam Seawell, Raleigh; Miss Bessie Brown, Raleigh: Miss Etta Watkins, Ramseur, NC ; Miss Bessie Gainey.

The couples were beantifully gowned in white and green organdies, the colors of Greensboro Female college, at which institution the rived at Burlington 6:30. bride and most of the brides-maids were school mates. The white and dainty boquets.

The groom next entered with his best man and brother, Mr. Richard Seawell, and the bride with her sister, Miss Lizzie Carver, who was maid of honor, followed.

The bride and groom were made man and wife by Rev. Mr. Hales, this city. The ring cermony was observed. When the beautiful and solemn service was over, kindred and friends flocked around the bridal couple with hearty greeting and good wishes.

The ushers were Masters Craige Jones and Shell Jones, and pretty Misses Grizell Hinton and Julia

Hales were the flower girls. The marriage ceremony was beautifully carried out and it was typical of the charming country weddings in the old south. Lunch was served in a truly hospitable fashion, before the bridal couple took the Seaboard train at Forestville for Atlanta and Nashville, where they will spend their honey-moon.

At the depot the happy couple were the recipients of sincere congratulations and good wishes. As a parting adieu a shower of rice from the brides maids fell thickly or the fair bride and groom.

The gifts were varied and handsome and in a measure told of the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

Mr. Seawell is a talented young citizen of Raleigh, who has, by his native resources, worked his way forward. A year ago he received license to practice law and at present holds a responsible position in the office of the clerk of the supreme court. Mr. Seawell is well known and liked by the legal fraternity in the state. He has the friendship and esteem of a bost of people in Raleigh and elsewhere who wish him a most successful career in life. The bride is a woman of rare refinement and culture. She is possessed of many admirable qualities and traits, which have endeared her to a large circle of admiring friends. It is a pleasure to note that she will reside in Raleigh.

Lieut. Shipp Leaves.

SHOWERS PREDICTED

lonight and Friday by the Local Weather

Showers are predicted by the weather bureau for Raleigh and vicinity tonight and tomorrow. The thermometer was 70 this morning and the barometer 30.16. The storm from the west has moved northeastward to the Lake region, while another has developed over western Texas. The pressure is high on the south Atlantic coast and in the northwest.

The weather has become cloudy or threatening almost everywhere, with rain at a large number of stations in the central valley, generally small amounts, though St. Louis reported 1.20 inches and Marquette 1.58.

The temperature has risen con siderably in the south, with southerly winds, and has fallen slightly in the northwest

An Interesting Trip The Burlington Newssays: Wed nesday morning Messrs. W 1 Hoit and Will Paylor left Burlington at 6:30 o'clock to visit all the cotton mills in the county, the trip to be made on bicycles. When they stated their purpose they were laughed at by many who did not believe they C; Miss Epie D Smith, Gatesville, | could make the trip, but subsequent events prove that Messrs. Holt and Paylor were up to snuff and knew better. At each mill visited they had entered in a register carried for the purpose, the time of arrival and departure from each mill. The trip was made as follows: Leaving Burlington at 6:30 o'clock, a. m., the time of arrival at each mill was as follows: Elmira, Lakeside Plaid mill 6:30 Ossippee 7:00, Altamahaw 7:20 Glencoe S:10 Carolina 8:30, Big Falls 8:40 Sidney mill 9:15, Onedia 9:20, Granite Mfg. Co., Cora mills and Thos. M. Holt Mfg. Co. 10, Swepson. ville 11:45; Saxapahaw 1:15 p. m.; Belmont 4:30; Alamance 5:40, ar-

The trip summed up is as follows: Number of hours gone 12, less 34 green tints blended in becoming hours for stops making actual time shades. The brides-maids carried on bicycles 81 hours. Number of miles travelled 70, measured by standard cyclometer.

They are now planning a trip to Baltimore and will probably start about the middle of the month. On this trip there w'll probably be half a dozen riders.

A Mountsin Retreat. The Asheville Gazette says:

A real estate transaction involving a large pecuniary consideration was consummated yesterday by the gayment of the purchase money and the delivery of the deeds. We allude to the transfer of about five thousand acres of land near Black Mountain station, to the Retreat as sociation of that name, composed of northern capitalists.

Negotiations have been pending for some time for the purchase of this vast domain and it is a source of gratification to all concerned that the deal has been at last satisfactorily completed. A portion of the and will be reserved for the use of the "Black Mountain Association Retreat," which has for its object the building of a home to which the ministers of all denominations, and such laymen as may be spiritually inclined, may retire for a season from all the disquietudes of the world and spend their time in meditation and religious study, while at the same time recuperating their health.

MAD DOG SCARE.

Infuriated Animal Creates Excitement on the Street-Attacked his Master.

There was a general mad dog scare in the Southern and Eastern portion of the city this morning.

A big black mixed breed dog, beonging to Henry Heartsfield, was the occasion of this unusual commotion and excitement in some ordinarily quietstreets.

The animal started his wild career this morning by attacking Henry when he stepped in his yard. The dog dashed upon his master seezing his shirt and tore the left sleeve from his arm. Heartsfield fought the dog valiantly and succeeded in beating him off, but not until he had lacerated his arm. The dog passed by Mr. C. B Barbee's, where he made an a tack on that geutleman's bird dog. Mr. Barbee kicked the infuriated animal and drove him way. Strange to made no effort to attack Mr. Barbee when heassaulted birn.

The dog passed down Favetteville street and then out east Martin in a slow trot. Near Blake's stable he attacked Mr. Will Taylor's large Dane, but there is no evidence of his having bitten him. Mr. Taylor has taken the precaution to chain his dog and awaits decelopments. After passing Blount street the dog continued his course, though at that point a great crowd collected and followed in pursuit of the fleeing animal. At least a hundred persons with clubs and pistols were in pursuit.

This evening it is reported that the animal was killed together with
