

The Confederate Re-Union.

The Nashville papers are urgent in their calls on the people of that city to make ample arrangements for the great crowd expected there during the confederate re-union this month. The Nashville, Tenn., Banner says:

It is estimated by men who are in a position to form a correct idea that not less than 75,000 visitors will come to Nashville on that occasion to attend the reunion. This does not include the thousands of visitors who will be here, not as ex-confederates, but as sight-seers. It is not unlikely that the number of visitors in the city on June 22 will be nearer 100,000 than 75,000.

"To properly take care of these people for three days will require the help of every resident who can possibly render aid. The homes of the city must be opened, and all who can appreciate the importance of sustaining the reputation of the city must evince their interest and public spiritedness by making unusual and extraordinary effort to help, even if it be at a sacrifice of their own comfort. Householders who have not agreed to take some lodgers for the three reunion days or who have hesitated in offering their homes for this occasion, should come to the relief of the committee and consent to help house visitors if they can possibly manage to do so. By the use of cots and pallets, by giving up parlors for a few days for sleeping apartments and by various expedients which will suggest themselves to thoughtful and hospitable housewives, provision can be made for many visitors in homes which are now, under the ordinary arrangement, well filled. Nashville cannot afford to fail in making full provision in this matter."

Go to Charlotte to the woman's exposition. Only $2.00 for the round trip including admission to exposition by special train over the Seaboard Monday June 7th.

LOST BOND.

On the 3d day of January, 1896, Andrew G. Hill and wife, Mary A. Hill, executed and delivered to me their bond, under seal, secured by mortgage on real estate for two hundred dollars with 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually, due and payable on the 3d day of January, 1897, which mortgage I have, but the bond I have lost or misplaced and cannot find, and I hereby warn any and all persons from buying or trading for said bond with any person who may have found the same, as I have settled the debt with said Hill and wife by agreement.

HEARTS BOWED DOWN

By Weight of Woe to Weakest Hopes Will Cling.

But why cling to the weak hopes, when certainty and safety is within your reach? Munyon's new School of Medicine—his Homeopathic Remedies—place darkness with light, sorrow with gladness, pain with peace, disease with health. They are within the reach of all, and every sick bed in America today may be rid of its occupant if the people will brush away the darkness of the way and accept the health that is offered them.

Thousands have done so, and they gladly relate their experience. Reader, it is your turn now. Mrs. F. A. Howard, Decatur, Ala., says: "Pardon me for not returning thanks sooner for my cure of a bad case of Rheumatism. I was a constant sufferer for years; could get no relief until I used Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. My niece, living with me until recently, believed that she had Consumption, and upon her return to Kansas stated that she never expected to see me again. I believed her disease to be Rheumatism of the chest, and actually forced her to take Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. Now she writes that all her lung trouble has disappeared. I keep the Munyon Remedies in the house, have no need for a doctor, and my neighbors send for me in case of sickness in preference to their regular physician. Munyon's Remedies are certainly a great boon to the suffering."

Munyon has a separate specific for each disease. For sale by druggists, mostly 25 cents a bottle. If in doubt, write to Prof. Munyon at Philadelphia, Pa., and get medical advice free.

Big Revenue Month.

The month of May was a big one at the Durham revenue office says the Sun: Especially was this the case in regard to cigarettes and tobacco. The exports during the month were thirty seven million, four hundred and twenty-five thousand cigarettes and three thousand, five hundred pounds of tobacco.

The amount of revenue collections for the month were as follows: Tobacco forty-three thousand, fifty-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents, cigarettes fourteen thousand, twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents, cigars seven hundred and fifty-one dollars and twenty cents, snuff three hundred dollars. Total fifty-eight thousand, one hundred and fifty-eight dollars and sixty-nine cents.

Collector Redmond and Mr. Williams have not been idle as the above record will show. They are looking with eager expectancy to the time when they can take up their abode in that looked for public building.

Castoria. Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children. Dr. J. C. Osborn, Lowell, Mass.

"The use of Castoria is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a waste of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D.D., New York City.

"I prescribe Castoria every day for children who are suffering from constipation, with better effect than I receive from any other medicine in recommending this best child's medicine." DR. L. O. MORRIS, South Amboy, N. J.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M.D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"For several years I have recommended Castoria and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARFEE, M.D., New York City.

"We have three children and they cry for Pitcher's Castoria. When we give one a dose, the others cry for one too. I shall always take pleasure in recommending this best child's medicine." REV. W. A. COOPER, Newport, Ky.
