BUSINESS ITEMS.

On Thursday, June 10th, 1897, I will sell at the court house door, at public auction for cash, one six-legged cow with calf. This freak of nature has been exhibited at various fairs and drawn large crowds. She was sold recently for $240. She was shipped to J. C. Blackley at Raleigh, N. C., from Baltimore, Md., and reached Raleigh, March 29, on which cow said Blackley has refused to pay the freight due for transportation. This sale is made to satisfy two claims against said Blackley on account of the cow and calf. One for $22.50 for freight charges, and another for $15.00 for feed charges.

The two winning ads. will be printed in tomorrow's paper. They should have appeared before, but I have been kept from the store by sickness and could not attend to it. The committee meets this afternoon to decide which are to receive the prizes.

LITTLE PRICES,
LARGE VALUES,
BIG SELLING.

JUNE AT JONES' is to be a month of activity. Right kinds of goods at right prices win trade. It pays to lose money sometimes to make money, when we lose you make that is what we are losing for, we want you to make.
Our price chopper has been let loose from end to end of the store, and he has made mad havoc of all former prices. You know our policy—we never carry goods from one season to another. No kind of goods are allowed to remain in the house longer than the season they are bought for. This is one of our iron-clad rules. We have not marked down a few staple things to attract your attention and draw you into a net, but we have made a general, thorough and noticeable reduction through every department on seasonable goods. We have made this big cut to move the goods, but we have a big stock, and to be sure of clearing out completely we begin now.
We have the best bought stock of dry goods in the city, and for you to find as low prices as we are now offering, your only hope is some of the large cities, and it's doubtful then.

MILLINERY—Every hat trimmed or untrimmed, every piece of ribbon, every flower, leather and yard of material is reduced in price.

WASH GOODS—Same way; every piece has had a large block of the price split off.

WHITE GOODS—Same here; all grades, all prices; the price of each and all is cut down.

SLIPPERS—Prices cut here too; $2.50 slippers now $2.25 now $1.50; $1.25 now $1, $1 now 75c, etc.

MEN'S HATS—Prices here gone all to pieces; best values ever offered by any house anywhere, men's and boys'; the hat opportunity that comes but once.

PARASOLS—Lovely line, new, popular goods, prices marked down; they must go; same in the umbrella stock. Now is your time. Don't wait for tomorrow.

UNDERWEAR—All the good kind. Ladies' 6 for 25c in proportion for the better ones.

In a word we have put on more steam. Our low prices is our steam, and we are going to set a pretty lively pace, for even below cost rushes too much. We mean hustling; if you have some cash to invest at big interest, come down and interview us today, tomorrow, or any day. The cut prices are for keeps.

W. E. JONES.

All the advertising in the world won't make poor coffee drink good. Neither will it make permanent customers. Our
