

THE PRESS-VISITOR.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 193.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 7, 1897.

$4.00 PER YEAR.

CALHOUN RETURNS.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Special commissioner W. J. Calhoun, who was sent to Cuba to investigate the death of Ruiz, arrived this morning. His mission in the matter was a failure so far as securing proper testimony was concerned. Important witnesses were not produced and examined. They dared not tell the truth. They had been coached in their testimony. Fonsdeviele, under whose orders Ruiz was murdered, did not appear. His whereabouts are unknown to the commission. Ruiz's cell was suspiciously cleared when the commission arrived. The attendants were laughably polite to the unfortunate prisoners. He is satisfied Ruiz met a violent death and says no end of the war is in sight, though the Spaniards tried to make the impression it was over. The Cuban's expressed great confidence and determination to carry the fight to an end. He visited a number of American prisoners and found all well treated. Very few native Americans were in actual want.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A Washington Attorney Shoots His Stenographer and Himself.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Charles E. Barber, a prominent patent attorney here shot his former stenographer, Miss Dorothy Squires this morning and then shot and killed himself. It is thought Miss Squires will recover.

Can We Come In, Please?

In the Sunday's issue of the News and Observer appeared an article headed "Poverty at the Pen." Toward the close of this elevating dialect production the author refers to the undersigned as a "foreigner." Recently a resident of Raleigh aired his grievances on this point in the defunct Tribune. Evidently in the opinion of these gentlemen it must be a crime or against the constitution for a man from another state or country to enter North Carolina and the city of Raleigh in particular with a view to taking up permanent residence and becoming a citizen thereof.

This writer has always thought that it was the aim and desire of the state and municipalities to encourage immigration with a view to the up-building of towns in the state.

So far as this writer is concerned it does not trouble him in the least that the political narrowness of the authors, above referred to, should endeavor to make capital on the plea that he is not a native born, nor are these lines written as a defense thereof but would respectfully call their attention to the fact that if it is a crime, or against the constitution of this commonwealth for an outsider to take up his residence and transfer his citizenship to North Carolina then they had better employ their pen in the proper direction, i. e., impress upon the public spirited citizen of Raleigh and the state to stop advertising the advantages and resources that we possess outside of the state as we will be in danger of people from other sections and countries flocking in here and becoming citizens of North Carolina. And also on the other hand warn intending settlers that if they come within the borders of North Carolina or to the capital city that they will be guilty of trespass. Permission however will be granted if proper application is made to the "I-am-not-in-it" writer, and countersigned by the "State savor."

R. C. RIVERS.

Weather Conditions.

Fair weather is predicted for Raleigh and vicinity tonight and Tuesday. Rain is predicted in the State with clearing weather Tuesday.

The barometer is quite high on the north Atlantic coast and also in the west. From the Lake region down to the Gulf extends a slight barometric depression.

These conditions cause cool easterly winds, with cloudy, threatening weather over the eastern states. The temperature is quite low everywhere except on the south Atlantic and Gulf coasts. In the northwest frost is reported, at Bismarck, Huron and St. Paul. The weather is generally clear in the west.

The state superintendent of public instruction has decided to hold teachers' institutes in numbers of counties in the next ninety days, and to employ some of the ablest educators in the state to conduct them.

CANOVAS IS RETAINED

No Change in Cabinet Or Policy Towards Cuba.

WEYLER TO REMAIN

President McKinley, It is Said, Will Demand that the War Stop—Favors the Independence of Cuba—New Policy.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The news that the Queen Regent has decided to retain Premier Canovas has created no surprise, and that he assumes power without a change of cabinet is unexpected. General Weyler will remain in Cuba. There will be no change in policy unless Canovas anticipates a change of policy. Certainly fresh troubles are ahead that may assume a high and dangerous proportion, if he proposes to adhere to his former lines. The situation in Cuba will continue to drag and the same uncompromising negotiations are out of the question from the standpoint of the rebellion. The decision of the Queen Regent will be in its favor as far as its effects on the United States are concerned.

It is now stated by friends of the administration that President McKinley will soon forward a note to Spain demanding that the war in Cuba must stop. It will offer mediation to Spain on the basis of the independence of Cuba and the payment of a suitable indemnity. The rejection of this friendly offer will be sharply followed by a message to Congress.

Big Railway Deal.

CHICAGO, June 7.—A trans-continental railroad, from tidewater to tidewater, is the gigantic enterprise which was set in motion when $30,000 was paid at Springfield for the incorporation of a company with a capital stock of $30,000,000.

The Baltimore and Ohio, the Wisconsin Central, the Chicago and Northern Pacific and the Northern Pacific systems figure in the great undertaking. By a consolidation of these, their branches and connections, will be produced the new system, one end of which will touch the Atlantic, the other the Pacific.

The headquarters of the system will be located in Chicago. The chief promoter and the man who has carried this gigantic plan to a successful issue is William Allen Butler of Yonkers, N. Y. Associated with him are Edward Adams of the Northern Pacific and F. T. Gates of Montclair, N. J. Mr. Gates represents the Rockefellers, the Standard Oil corporation being largely interested in the undertaking.

Ambassador Hay the Guest.

LONDON, June 7.—United States ambassador Hay will spend the Whitsuntide holidays as the guest of Ferdinand James De Rothschild at Waddesdan Manor, near Doylebury.

The Advertising Contest.

Mr. W. E. Jones, who offered two pretty hats to the two ladies who should write the best two advertisements in the Press-Visitor, authorizes us to state that the two ladies to whom the numbers selected by the committee correspond are Mrs. John W. Jones and Miss Katie Duffy. Through a mistake Mrs. Jones's advertisement, which won the first prize, was numbered 26 when it should have been No. 24. This was the advertisement to which the committee awarded the first prize and the name of Mrs. Jones was the name which should properly have corresponded to it. The committee decided the contest upon the merits of the advertisements, without knowing the names of the contestants, and reported to Mr. Jones the successful numbers, which were 26 and 20, and No. 26 as it appeared was written by Mrs. Jao. W. Jones.

Last Notice.

Tabernacle excursion trains leave at 6 o'clock sharp in the morning. Every arrangement has been perfected for a great trip.

See the great city of Richmond; its the trip of a lifetime. Baggage checked at extra cost, bicycles checked 50 cents each way. Fare round trip $2.25.

Miss Annie Wyatt of Durham is in the city visiting relatives.

IT WON'T BE JIM YOUNG

That is Raleigh's next Postmaster—About the Marshalship.

Mr J B Hill has returned from Washington, D. C. Though it has been definitely decided that Mr H C Dockery is to be appointed marshal of the district, it is understood that Mr Hill is to be given substantial recognition at the hands of the administration.

Jim Young sailed in from Washington yesterday and from all reports Jim learned positively that he will not be Raleigh's next postmaster. Jim says he, in company with Recorder Cheatham, made a pleasant call on the President, but that the post-office was not discussed.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch said in Sunday's issue:

"According to visiting North Carolina republicans, the republican party in that state has reached the stage of disintegration. The disposition of the Raleigh and Charlotte post-offices seems to have brought about the culmination. Jim Young, a 'sable statesman,' of unsavory reputation, claims a mortgage on the Raleigh office, on account of services rendered in the last senatorial election in the state. He was a member of the legislature, and voted for Pritchard, with the distinct assurance, he says, of the appointment of postmaster at Raleigh. He is now an adherent of the Russell faction of the party, and therein lies the explanation of his failure to foreclose his mortgage. After talking with Senator Pritchard and Chairman Holton, he left for Raleigh, with the understanding that he is 'not in it.' He threatens to get even with the 'Washington ring,' and henceforth will make open war on the regular organization.

The appointment of United States Marshal for the Eastern District is still undecided. Marshal Carroll's term expires in January, 1898, but on account of alleged official derelictions, the Department of Justice will either demand his resignation, or will remove him. Solicitor-General Holmes Conrad, it is said, insists upon immediate removal, but no disposition of the matter will be made until the report of the attorney is received. The charge against Mr. Carroll is an old one, and was investigated a year or more ago, and some surprise is expressed that it should be revived and his removal demanded just at this time. Mr. H. C. Dockery, who, it is understood, will succeed Mr. Carroll, is here, but is not understood to be taking any hand in the effort to remove the latter. Prominent Republicans from the State do not approve of the seemingly hasty action in the matter, and they will ask the Attorney-General to delay it.

Late information is to the effect that Senator Pritchard saw the Attorney-General today in connection with the Carroll matter, and it goes over at his request until Monday. From intimations, it appears that the Attorney-General agrees with Solicitor-General Conrad in regard to the matter.

Personals.

Prof. James J. Britt, of Bakersville, principal of Bowman Academy, county examiner and trustee of the A & M college, is in the city today.

Mrs H H Dodson and child, of Milton, who have been visiting Mrs Sherwood and the Misses Bates on Morgan street left today for Morehead.

Drs R H Lewis and Jas McGee, Jr., left for Morehead today to attend the Medical Convention. They were joined here by Doctors Laird and Murphy.

Col A B Andrews left for Asheville in his private car this evening to attend the injunction hearing. He was accompanied by Mr A B Andrews, Jr. Mr F H Busbee went to Asheville last evening.

Dr Hubert A Royster returned yesterday from Philadelphia, where he attended the convention of the National Medical Society. Dr Royster left this morning for Morehead to attend the annual convention of the State Medical Society.

Mr Robert Hancock, president of the A & M railroad arrived in the city yesterday and left this evening for Asheville to attend the injunction hearing before Judge Simonton.

Mr Chas F Newsome who has been connected with several well known attractions on the road during the past season is in the city. Mr Newsome has a promising future on the stage.

"THE SHADOWS WE CAST"

Subject of a Forceful Sermon by Dr. Hoge to A. & M. Graduates.

The baccalaureate sermon at the A. & M. College last evening was a gem of its kind, ornate, appropriate and powerful. The utterly unpretentious manner of the distinguished minister was very becoming. His subject was "The Shadows we Cast." His text was taken from the account of the people throwing themselves in Peter's shadow as he went to the Temple. The unseen and unheard voices are greatest. In science, gravity; in life, motherhood; in the affairs of men, example. What kind of shadows shall you cast young men; shall they be baleful or healing? It depends upon your religion. There is but one name whereby men must be saved, Jesus Christ the Righteous.

The audience was charmed. There were present great numbers from the city. The singing was excellent. The hall was appropriately decorated.

"Rock of ages was splendidly rendered by a quartette composed of Messrs. Wharton, Overton, Brunner and Mitchell.

The solo, "Come unto me" was touchingly sung by Mrs. Charles McKimmon.

BRIEFS.

Master Shell Jones, son of Sheriff H T Jones, is in the city.

Mr W P Anderson, representing Harvey Blair & Co., spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Sam Heller, who is now traveling for a big shoe house, is in the city.

Dr and Mrs Chas Baskerville of the University passed through the city today to Wrightsville.

Miss Ida Montgomery and Mr. Charles Henderson, of Troy, Ala., are visiting in the city.

Mrs W P Whitaker and son and Miss Connie Carroll have gone to Trenton on a visit to relatives.

We regret to learn that Col. L D Stevenson has been taken quite ill at his home a few miles from this city.

The most attractive bargains of the season in men's shoes can be found at Heller's. See their new ad. today.

President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern railway, passed through the city this afternoon en route to Asheville.

See the new advertisement of Messrs. Cross and Linehan in this issue. They will have special suit sales this week.

Attention is called to the new ad. of Messrs. Berwanger in this issue. Go and see them for bargains in clothing.

The county commissioners are in session today. The poor of the county consumed the attention of the board this morning.

The new officers in the department of agriculture have been notified of their election and are expected to assume their duties next Monday.

Mrs. Annie S Bailey and granddaughter, Annie Jones, who have been visiting in Washington, D. C., and Virginia for some weeks, have returned to the city today.

The great dissolution sale of Tucker's stock will take place at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, June 12th, instead of Friday. The stock was so very large that it was found impossible to complete the inventory by Friday.

The University is steadily growing in popularity, patronage and efficiency. The enrollment this year is the largest in its history. We would like to aid some needy boy to get its advantages of scholarships and loans. See ad in another column.

Judge Simonton has requested Judge Purnell to hold for him a term of the United States Circuit Court at Asheville, beginning June 14th, to try the civil docket. That docket is greatly congested, and Judge Simonton says he needs aid to clear it. Judge Purnell will hold the term as requested.

Rev. Mr. Snyder, who was sent to Africa as a missionary by the Presbyterian denomination, will speak at the Presbyterian church in this city next Wednesday evening. Rev. Mr. Snyder is here on a short vacation. He is a most entertaining speaker and his talk about Africa will interest many persons. Mr. Snyder's address before the General Assembly at Charlotte was very highly complimented.

MANY WERE DRUNK

Mayor Russ Sent Stokes and Three Other Offenders to the Roads.

This was the heaviest day Mayor Russ has had since he began his second administration. Judging from the number of drunks before his honor, a very mean quality of liquor was dispensed somewhere in the city Saturday evening.

A smile flitted over the many faces in the court room when Stokes Crump, the oft-times offender and public road promoter, stepped forward to receive the judgment of the court. Stokes places a small value on liberty. Two weeks ago he returned to the city after thirty well spent days abroad. Saturday the veteran offender tanked up and when an officer went to arrest him he fought like a demon. This evening Stokes began a thirty days engagement with Mr Mackin.

Samuel Keith got drunk and resisted an officer and the mayor gave him thirty days on the roads.

Amos Farmer took on a heavy quantity of juice, conducive to loud talking. N Furnell ditto. Both were sent to the roads for thirty days each.

It cost Nathan Dixon $3.25 for engaging in an assault. Several other cases were tried, but were dismissed for lack of evidence.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

The Movements in New York and Liverpool Markets.

NEW YORK, June 7. Market quotations furnished by E. B. Cuthbert & Co., 30 Broad Street, New York, and 305 Wilmington street, Raleigh, N. C., over their special wire:

The following are the opening, highest, lowest and closing quotations of the New York cotton market:

MONTHS.	OPENING.	HIGHEST.	LOWEST.	CLOSING.
January,	6.82	6.82	6.82	6.81
February,
March,
April,
May,
June,	7.19	6.19	6.19	7.19
July,	7.20	7.23	7.20	7.22
August,	7.19	7.20	7.18	7.19
Sept./m/r,	6.93	7.04	6.93	6.94
October,	6.78	6.79	6.76	6.77
November,	6.76	6.77	6.75	6.76
December,	6.78	6.79	6.78	6.78

Note:—During June, July, August and September the New York Cotton Exchange will open on Mondays at 11 a. m.

Chicago Grain and Provision Market.

The following were the closing quotations on the Chicago Grain and Provision market today:

Wheat—July, 66; Sept. 63.
Corn—July, 24; Sept. 25.
Oats—July, 17; Sept. 17.
Lard—July, 7.70; Sept. 7.75.
Pork—July, 3.52; Sept. 3.62.
Clear Rib Sides—July 4.22; Sept. 4.27.

Note:—Election day in Chicago, the Board of Trade was closed.

Liverpool Cotton Market.

The following were the closing quotations of the Liverpool cotton market today:

June 4.34 v
June-July 4.23 b
July-August 4.11 b
August-September 3.61 s
September-October 3.54 s
October-November 3.49 b
November-December 3.46-47 v
December-January 3.45-46 s
January-February 3.45-46 s
February-March 3.46 s
March-April 3.46-47

New York Stock Market.

The following were the closing quotations on the New York Stock Exchange:

Sugar 118 1/2
American Tobacco 74
Burlington and Quincy 79 1/2
Chicago Gas 86 1/2
American Spirits
General Electric 32 1/2
Louisville and Nashville 48 1/2
Manhattan 87 1/2
Rock Island 68 1/2
Southern Preferred 28 1/2
St. Paul 7 1/2
Tennessee Coal and Iron 21 1/2
Western Union 79 1/2

Raleigh Market.

The following are the quotations of the Raleigh cotton market today:

Middling 7 1/2
Strict middling 7 1/2
Good middling 7 1/2
Strict good middling 7 1/2

Governor Russell will deliver the diplomas to the graduating class of the A. and M. College next Wednesday. The Governor has also accepted an invitation to be present at Trinity College commencement this week and he will leave here Wednesday afternoon for Durham.

SHORT STATEMENTS.

Minor Matters Manipulated for the Many.

AROUND THE CITY.

Pot-Pouri of the News Pictured on Paper—Points and People Pertinently Picked and Pithily Put to Print.

Next Monday the Tribune sale occurs.

The festive strawberry has about completed his race this season.

The first cotton square of the season has made its appearance in Charlotte.

Tonight will be class night at the A & M college and interesting class exercises will take place.

W. J. Bryan says he has no intention of going to Europe or elsewhere out of this country.

Don't get left. Be on time, the Tabernacle train leaves for Richmond at 6 o'clock sharp, Tuesday.

By virtue of a decree of Wake Superior Court the State farm at Castle Hayne has been sold at auction.

Cropshare now three weeks behind. Farmers are well up with their work and reports are that there is no grass.

The alumni addresses will be delivered tomorrow at the A & M college by Messrs C W Gold and W K Davis.

The prizes offered by Mr. Dugli for the two best jokes have been awarded to Miss Emily Walker and Miss Annie Trevathan.

Fayetteville street Baptist church has received a new bell. It weighs 1,000 pounds and is being placed in position by Mr. John D. Briggs.

Shaw University, District of Columbia, has conferred the degree of LL. D., on Recorder of Deeds Cheatham, the North Carolina negro.

Read the new announcement of Mr. D. T. Johnson, the popular grocer, and call on him for the freshest and nicest articles in his line.

To accommodate those who attend the class exercises at the A & M college tonight the street cars will leave the college at 11, 12 and 1 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of St. Mary's guild at Mrs T C Harris' Wednesday evening June 9th, at 5 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

The Raleigh sports who attended the cooking maids at Wilmington have returned, the majority of them with empty pocket books. Nine of the thirteen fights were won by the Halifax boys.

Tickets for the Tabernacle excursion can be had at Johnson's drug store, C. H. Anderson & Co's or Barbee and Pope. Secure them early—$2.25 round trip to Richmond, Tuesday, June 8th.

Several people went to Charlotte today to attend the Woman's Exposition. This is Raleigh day at the exposition and it is to be regretted that our people are not better represented in the Queen city.

Superintendent N. M. Lawrence sends us an invitation to be present at the annual celebration of the Oxford Orphan Asylum June 24th. Dr. C. D. Melver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, will deliver the oration.

Attention is called to the announcement elsewhere of Peace Institute. This excellent school is one of the best and most popular educational institutions in the state and its long and successful record is proof of its good work in educating the young ladies of the state. Send to Mr. James Dunwiddie, president, for catalogue and information.

There were tears in many eyes last evening as the little children of the Sacred Heart Sunday School entered Oakwood Cemetery, and two by two pressed forward and lovingly laid their offerings of flowers upon the grave of their little comrade, John Thomas Stronach.

Mr. A Dugli is certainly enterprising if anything at all. He had a special train to carry his supplies for the banquet at Chapel Hill on Thursday night, and was highly complimented upon the perfection of the arrangements he had made for the occasion, which it is needless to say were up to Dugli's best standard.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

That the Seaboard Proposes to Furnish to People Along the Line of Its Road.

The people who live along the Seaboard Air Line will not suffer for want of practical information on industrial matters if the S. A. L. can possibly help it. The latest enterprise is explained in a letter from Mr J T Patrick, chief industrial agent. The letter, brief in part.

We want the people along our line of road to see and use every kind of household and farm convenience and labor-saving implement, and to learn how to save the little things, fruit, vegetables, milk, and all kinds of farm products, and to this end we are fitting up a train of cars and employing expert farmers, dairymen, canners, &c., and will make exhibits at the one hundred and fifty stations on our road from Norfolk, Va., to Atlanta, Ga. We will be glad to have you contribute to our exhibit. Whatever you want to exhibit we will carry over our line free of cost, and if it is necessary for you to send some one to explain your exhibit, we will furnish them with free transportation. We want to start about 10th to 15th of June, and we would like to have shipments made at once to address of Seaboard Air Line, Pinebluff, N. C., so that they can be provided for and arranged in our exhibit car.

The mad dog rage appears to be growing in Raleigh. Three dogs acting very strangely and supposed to have been mad, were killed last week.

This morning Officer Lambeth took the life of another weary canine on Fayetteville street. The dog was acting strangely and had the appearance of being mad.

The animal was a shepherd dog and was about the same one that bit Jake Taylor, drayman, in East Raleigh last night. Taylor was bit on the hand, but is not suffering to any extent today. The dog greatly frightened the inhabitants of the eastern section of the city last evening.

It is a difficult matter to tell when a dog is mad.

ANOTHER MAD DOG.

Bit Jake Taylor and Was Killed on Fayetteville Street Today.

The mad dog rage appears to be growing in Raleigh. Three dogs acting very strangely and supposed to have been mad, were killed last week.

This morning Officer Lambeth took the life of another weary canine on Fayetteville street. The dog was acting strangely and had the appearance of being mad.

The animal was a shepherd dog and was about the same one that bit Jake Taylor, drayman, in East Raleigh last night. Taylor was bit on the hand, but is not suffering to any extent today. The dog greatly frightened the inhabitants of the eastern section of the city last evening.

It is a difficult matter to tell when a dog is mad.

ASHEVILLE GOES DRY

New Aldermen Refuse to Renew the Liquor Dealer's License.

Asheville has gone dry and a huge cry of distress is heard in the city among the mountains.

The board of aldermen have, by a vote of four to two, decided to renew none of the liquor licenses which expired in July. The license tax in Asheville is $1,000, and thirteen applicants asked for license.

The July interest on the bonded debt of the city amounts to more than $12,000, which sum would have been derived from liquor licenses. Now the aldermen are thinking to find a way by which they can meet the bond interest.

HELD FOR PERJURY

Thos Hester, a Witness in the Robertson Seduction Case.

Thos Hester was arraigned before Justice Marcon today on a charge of perjury. The defendant waived examination and Justice Marcon required a $350 bond of him for his appearance at the July term of court, which he gave.

Hester, it will be remembered was a witness in the seduction case of Louisa Hester against Thos Robertson. He swore to a statement derogatory to Miss Hester's character, which, it is claimed he denied at the stand.

The criminal charge of seduction against Robertson will also come up at the July term.

Interest in the sporting world is now centered upon the coming fight between the two fistie gladiators, Peter Maher and Tom Sharkey. The battle will be pulled off next Thursday at the Palace Athletic club, New York city, under the management of William A Brady, who has been identified with James J Corbett during all of his great fights. The prediction of the entire sporting fraternity is that the coming battle will be one of the hardest ever fought in the pugilistic arena.

Maher is training at Westchester, N. Y., near the Morris Park race track, while Sharkey is laboring at Bochan's road house, S. I. A $15,000 purse is the inducement for the winner.