THE POOLING BILL

Senator Chilton Sides With Butler-Say There is Indecent Haste. By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.

Washington, June 11-Republican ex-Congressmea are talking about any old thing of an office that comes within their reach these days. The latest catches in this line were ex-Congressman Andrews, of Neb., who has been nominated to be auditor for the treasury department, and ex-Congressman Brown, of Pa., who has been nominated to be auditor for the war department.

Senator Chilton, of Texas, a member of the interstate commerce committe, the chairman of which has been so active in trying to push the Foraker railroad pooling bill through the committee since the supreme court decision adverse to railroad pooling, took the side of Senator Butler, of N. C., when he declared that there had been "indecent haste" in pushing the bill. Chairman Cullom of the committee tried to deny the accusation by saying that the committee had been considering a pooling bill long before the supreme court decision. Senator Chilton said he had been a member of the committee for two years but had no knowledge of any attempt to press consideration of a pooling bill until after the adverse decision of the supreme court. Senator Butler gave notice that no railroad pooling bill could be acted upon by the Senate until the bill meeting the objection of the supreme court to an income tax had been acted upon.

is Prof. Munyon's self-confidence. If Munyon's self-confidence. If Munyon's self-confidence. If Munyon's self-confidence. If Munyon would have been driven out in disgrace. But they did cure, and Munyon's greatest record is at home.

Mr. Thomas E. Roper, No. 1214 Baidwin Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "I have suffered greatly from Rheumafism. Have not been able to walk without a cane for four years, and some time ago was confined to my bed for three weeks, since which time I have not been free from pain. Last Monday I procured a bottle of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure, and was so much relieved before using one vial that I have thrown away my cane and feel like a new man. It is certainly a great cure, and I consider it the greatest friend I ever found."

Mr. W. D. Stratton, of $4 North Forsythe Street, Atlanta, Ga., says: "I am giad to give my name as one of the many who used Munyon's Rheumatism pains and lameness were very great and often prevented me from working. I gave Munyon's Remedies a faithful trial, and found a positive cure in a very few days. I can use my limbs as well as ever, and am perfectly free from all rheumatin pains."

A separate cure for each disease.

At all druggists, mostly 25 cents a vial. Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1,505 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease,
