

A KNOTTY QUESTION

The Dispensary Matter to Come up in Cumberland.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday says: Judge McIver has issued an order to the Board of county commissioners, Sheriff and Treasurer of the county and the Dispensary Board to appear before him on Saturday 19th and show cause why they should not be enjoined from establishing a dispensary in Cumberland county.

The order was issued upon application of Mr. S. J. Guy, who in his affidavit sets forth the plea that the whole matter from beginning to end is unconstitutional; had the sheriff, under the direction of the county commissioners, had already paid out to the dispensary board $100 of monies levied for other purposes; that the county commissioners had pledged the credit of the county to foster the dispensary, which was unconstitutional; that the sale of liquor by the county is illegal, and that there is no law to allow the county to use money in any such manner.

The following is a copy of Judge McIver's order: NORTH CAROLINA, MOORE COUNTY, At Chambers, in Carthage.

S. J. Guy vs. Board County Commissioners and others:

For the causes stated in affidavit the defendants will show cause before me at chambers in Carthage on Saturday 19th inst., why they should not be enjoined as prayed for in said affidavit until the hearing.

This June 14, 1897.

JAS. D. MCIVER, Judge S. C. Messrs C. W. Broadfoot and G. M. Rose represent the plaintiff in the action, and they have sent for the owner, in order that the Judge's order may be served on the sheriff.

If Judge McIver issues an injunction restraining defendants from carrying out the dispensary, it will probably mean total prohibition for the next two years, as the county commissioners will most likely refuse to issue liquor licenses.
