Printers, as a rule, are perhaps the best spellers in the world, yet we frequently see in the daily papers a certain little word spelled wrong. We see it in editorials, news items and advertisements. What is it?

To the one first guessing the word, we will give a case of Panacea water; second correct guess received, six bottles of Panacea water; third, four bottles; fourth, two bottles, making two cases in all.

Guesses will be numbered from one up, as received, and will be opened at 12 o'clock, July 31st.

We are agents for this celebrated water and the only objection we have to selling it is that it cures everybody that drinks it and cuts us out of the sales of lots of medicines.

We sell the best 2 1/2 cent cigar on earth. Six 5 cent tickets for 25 cents, 25 for $1.00.

North Carolina Bacon now in store which is perhaps the finest lot seen here this season. It is cut and cured on the order of Virginia meat. The hams are close cut, round, plump and sound as a dollar. The sides are small, "strak o' lean and streak o' fat" with rib left in; all is smoked to a rich brown color, which preserves and imparts to it that sweet, delicious flavor so much sought after and appreciated by connoisseurs. The party who cut and cured this bacon is a man of experience, who enjoys a well-earned reputation for fine cured meats. It must be seen to be appreciated.
