Populist leader and fusion Justice of the Peace W. R. Hartsell, Sr., of Locust, was sentenced to six months imprisonment in jail by Judge Hoke *Wednesday on a verdict of guilty of fornication and adultery. This seems to us very righteous judgment, and we would suggest that if it is in the province of the court his commission as justice of the peace ought to be taken from him, so that when he is liberated he may not continue to administer justice among citizens of the county in his way .- Stanly Enterprise.

Short Cottsn Crop in South Carolina

The Baltimore Sun says: "It is the opinion of all correspondents that the cotton crop will much smaller than the condition of the p'ant during July and August promised. The loss in condition is greatest over the central and eastern counties, where the August squares and young bolls nearly all dropped off and where the plant is, for the most part, apparently dying, with no appearance of a top crop, and where rust was most prevalent.

A Suicide's Startling Act.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 12.-A man walking in a crowd opposite the post office shot himself at 10 o'clock last night and fell dead at the feet of a woman, who swooned and sank at his side. Many persons identified the man as Thomas Killain, a painter. The body was taken to Killain's home, but Killain's mother and sisters declared that the body was not his. There was nothing upon the suicide to identify him, and the body was taken to an undertaker's.
