DIAZ ASSAULTED LYNCHED.

Mexicans Stormed the Jail American Fashion.

TWENTY LYNCHERS ARRESTED.

The Common People Dragged the Trembling Arroyo From His Cell and Made Short Work of Him

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
CITY MEXICO, Sept. 17.—Arroyo, who yesterday assaulted President Diaz was lynched last night by a mob of common people. About twenty of the lynchings were arrested. The mob proceeded along the most approved line of an American lynching and had apparently no organization yet was directed in some mysterious way. They broke the jail by forcing the doors with huge timbers handled by a hundred men. They overpowered the guards and surrounded them while a detail of men ran down the corridors and dragged out the trembling Arroyo. Crowds thronged the streets cheering for Diaz and the republic.

OFF FOR SPRINGFIELD

Messrs. Chas. M. Busbee and Chas. Lumsden to Attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Mr. Chas. F. Lumsden, Raleigh's excellent tax collector, left this morning for Springfield, Illinois, to attend the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the world. Mr. Lumsden is one of the delegates from this state to the grand lodge.

Mr. C. M. Busbee, who was once the honored Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, leaves this afternoon for Springfield to attend the sessions. Mr. Busbee is one of the best known Odd Fellows in the order. The state will be well represented by these two gentlemen.

Messrs. Lumsden and Busbee will be absent from the State for some time.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge is the head of every subordinate lodge in the world. Odd Fellowship differs away under fifteen flags of different nationalities. The membership of the order is 1,000,000 in round numbers.

Refuse Unboxed Liquor.

By Cable to the Press-Visitor.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 17.—Original package people, competitors of the dispensary under recent decisions of the United States courts, received a shock today when the Southern and Atlantic Coast Line roads, controlling three fourths of all inter-State lines, posted circulars refusing to hereafter receive for shipment into this State unboxed liquor packed in chaff or sawdust in cans.

It is only by such shipments that the "original package" dealers can sell with profit, as otherwise bottles must be packed and shipped separately or in case, and cases cannot be broken.

The decision is believed to be the outcome of a conference between traffic managers of the roads and Governor Eilerbe, held two weeks ago at the Governor's request. These roads have done an immense business with this class of freight, and have not sustained a single loss.

Oberlin Shocked.

Mollie Davis, a respectable resident of Oberlin, shocked the inhabitants of that village yesterday afternoon by disrobing and taking flight through the principal thoroughfare.

Mollie was forcibly taken and locked up until this morning when she was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Goldsboro. Annie Banks, of Garner was also adjudged insane and taken to Goldsboro this afternoon by Deputy Black-nall.

Justices Roberts and Rivers held both inquisitions of lunacy.

Mr. George Tonoffski, of the clerk of the court's office, came across a valuable book this morning. It contained the laws of N. C., from 1717 to 1796. Notable among the contents of the publication was the charter granted by Chas. II, of England, to the prospectors of the Carolina.

A NOVEL SWINDLER.

Charged With Fraudulent Use of U. S. Mail Inspector Gregory's Work. Special to the Press-Visitor.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Sept. 27, 1897. Wednesday, night Sept. 15th, 1897, Peter Dudley, a negro man residing near Johnsons Mills, in Pitt county was brought before United States Commissioner, A. J. Lofton, charged with fraudulent use of United States Mails, or an attempt to swindle through the mails; having been arrested upon a warrant sworn out by postmaster inspector H. T. Gregory. Dudley was committed to jail in default of bail to await trial in United States court at Newbern, N. C. The witnesses for the government, besides the inspector, were Miss Annie B. Harding, Miss Martha Harding and Walter F. Harding, all of Johnsons Mills, N. C., the former having been postmaster at that office for sometime.

Dudley was engaged in peddling medicines, remedies, etc., about the country, and his scheme appears to have been to induce Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, Ill., to send him money for an alleged registered letter, which he claims to have sent them, containing $36.47, but of which no record has been found, and instead of reporting the matter to his postmaster, or the postoffice department, he enters into correspondence with the postmaster at Chicago and the firm, intending to convince them by various letters and two mutilated register receipts, that he had sent the registered letter; the receipts having been altered in Dudley's writing and afterwards had ink poured over them to hide the alterations.

He gradually weakened on the amount he claims until he stated that almost any amount would satisfy him. His object was evidently exposed when he claimed that the firm had written him previously that they had $5,000 in bank, which had been sent them by parties failing to sign their names to orders, and he claims to have failed to sign his name to his order in the alleged letter.

Revival at Central Church.

Contributed.

The revival at Central Methodist church still continues without any abatement in interest. The sermon by the pastor last evening from the 14 chapter of the Gospel by Luke, known as the parable of the "marriage supper," was delivered with great force and earnestness, in which were described the greatness of the plan of salvation by the Lord Jesus Christ—first in respect to its freedom; second, to its universality; third, to its adaptability; and fourth and lastly, but not least, its great cost, being nothing less than the precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. At the close of the sermon penitents were invited and a number came forward to be prayed for. We were much gratified to witness the presence of our well beloved brother, Rev. W. C. Norman, of Edenton street church, who rendered valuable assistance at the altar. Let every member rally to the help of the pastor in this great and important work of soul saving. We are so thankful for the prospect of a gracious work.

West's Excursion a Big Success.

The Asheville Citizen, of yesterday, says of Jim West's excursion, which left here Tuesday morning: "J. H. West's excursion from Danville, Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte, reached Asheville last evening about eight o'clock, bringing 682 people.

"It is the largest excursion of the year, the largest number heretofore being 500, and the visitors make one of the finest looking excursion crowds that has come to Asheville. This train load increases the total number of excursionists coming here this year to 7,142.

Sleet Off Hatteras.

The Philadelphia Times, of the 13, says: "While the people in this city were suffering last Thursday from the extreme heat the crew of the steamer Ethelred, which reached this port last evening, were almost frozen by cold weather. Off Cape Hatteras the Ethelred was struck by a cold 'wave,' which almost froze the crew. The mercury dropped 59 degrees in three hours. When the winds had subsided considerably the coldest kind of sleet fell until until the deck of the vessel was dangerous to tread upon. The sleet was followed by a fierce snow storm, which continued for 15 minutes.

A DEAD LETTER.

An Important Law Which Has Not Been Enforced in Years.

Mr. W. W. Briscoe, of Warrenton, N. C., writes the Press-Visitor the following communication: Section 2030 of our Code reads as follows: "Overseers shall cause to be set up, at the forks of their respective roads, a post or posts, with arms pointing the way of each road, with plain and durable directions to the most public places to which they lead, and with the number of miles from that place, as near as can be computed; and every overseer who shall, for ten days after notice of his appointment, neglect to do so and to keep the same in repair, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect ten dollars."

Section 2031 of the Code reads as follows: "Any person, who shall unlawfully remove, knock down or deface the said posts, arms or any mile mark shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay to the State ten dollars and be guilty of a misdemeanor."

This law is still a live law; yet if our people will travel in a buggy through any county in the state they will find there is not one overseer who conforms to the law. Why is it? Are they ignorant as to the existence of such a law, or do they think it a useless effort on their part, to assist the traveler by pointing out to him the way he wants to go, and thereby saving him a vast amount of trouble having to stop and inquire his or her way at every house along his route provided there are houses for him to gain the desired information, if not the traveler must rely upon his own judgment, and nine chances to ten he will lose his way, which in a great many instances, is very embarrassing. The trouble, I fear, is that the overseers think every one knows their individual roads as well as they do, but it is not the case. One going from one section of the state to another without some guide to go by is like a boat at sea without a compass.

Who is the proper person to inform the overseers of their neglect of duty? Will the press please inform me or him and I will take the matter up at once.

HOPPER'S ENGAGEMENT.

Comic Opera Star to Appear in London Shortly After he is in Raleigh.

Announcement is made in the Dramatic Mirror this week that De Wolf Hopper will produce El Capitain in London after January. The engagement calls for an indefinite run. As is known the great comic opera star and his excellent company will produce El Capitain at the Academy of Music in this city December the ninth, before he enters upon his London engagement. Mr. Hopper has presented El Capitain for the better part of the past two seasons in New York city.

The engagement of De Wolf Hopper, who will be supported by the petite Elna Wallace Hopper, is the most notable event in Raleigh's theatrical history. An absolute guarantee of $800 was required to induce the star to come here and this would not have been the case had not the railway connections been more favorable than in some of the larger Southern cities.

Since the announcement of the engagement of the great star, the management of the Academy of Music has had requests for seats from numbers of towns in the state.

Lillian Lewis.

Miss Lillian Lewis comes to the Academy of Music at an early date direct from a successful run in Boston to present "For Liberty and Love." No advance will be made in the prices. This play has created a great sensation in the north. Boston papers have devoted columns of glowing praise to Miss Lewis, play, production, and cast. So intense is the story and theme that it becomes of personal and direct concern to every American.

Today's Appointments.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The president today made the following appointments: George J. Pettit, of Pittsburg consulate to Dusseldorf, Germany; Frank Simmons, United States marshal for the southern district of Alabama; John A. Steel register of the land office at Huntsville, Alabama, vice Ellis removed; Herschel V. Cashin register of public moneys in Huntsville, Alabama, vice Avery removed.

DIFFERENCES ENDED

Ohio Miners Returned to Work This Morning.

ANOTHER OUTBREAK.

Miners Attacked Powder House Near Hazelton—Assistance Sent to the Scene at Once.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 17.—Twenty hundred miners went to work in the Massillon district today. They agreed to ignore the ten day's provision adopted at Columbus. The difference between the operators and miners was adjusted last night at a conference at Massillon. Both sides made concessions. A uniform car limit was established. The price paid for break throughs and room turning being increased.

HAZELTON, Sept. 17.—Word was received here this morning by telephone from one of the night watchmen at the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre mine at Cranberry, stating that a crowd of strikers were breaking into the powder house owned by Edward Turnbeck, who was one of the deputies that took part in the shooting Friday. The message called earnestly for troops and a force was immediately directed to hasten to the scene of disturbance.

Invalid Cities.

"There is a close analogy between the birth, growth, and success or failure of a man, and the founding, development, success or failure of a city. Both have or should have means of obtaining supplies, organs for assimilation, arteries and veins through which life blood circulates. It is indeed an unfortunate man who has poor circulation, or who fails to be properly benefited by the food which he is able to obtain.

Such a man lags with heavy tread behind his fellows. The word "invalid" is stamped upon his face although he may not know it.

If in the above simile we write "avenues" for arteries and "streets" for veins the reader at once sees a complete analogy, and that a city suffering because of the lack of proper avenues and streets can be regarded as an "invalid city." False local pride alone will not suffice to enable that city to compete with others.

We can quickly think of several cities thus enfeebled.

Burglars Stay to Breakfast.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
MEDA, Pa., Sept. 16.—While the family were asleep up stairs the residence near Moylan, of Deputy Sheriff Walter S. Pennewell, of Philadelphia, was entered by burglars early this morning, and all the family silver, worth several hundred dollars, was stolen. The thieves, after securing their booty, went to the kitchen and made coffee and fried a breakfast of eggs. They were tracked by boxes and papers dropped to the Wallingford road, where they evidently had a team.

Refused $1,000 for 1,000 Bushels.

Mr. George Sigmon, of Catawba county, we are informed, last week refused an offer of $1,000 for 1,000 bushels of wheat. Mr. Sigmon refused the offer because he could not spare the time from his plowing to haul the wheat. He is said to have 3,000 bushels on hand.—Lincoln Journal.

Andreé Sighted Again.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
LONDON, Sept. 17.—Dispatches received here today say another supposed Andreé balloon is reported to have been discovered at Yenissisk east of Siberia.

Gold Received.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The assay office today received fifty thousand in gold from Havana.

Arrest of a Negro Who Slew His Sweetheart.

WINSTON, Sept. 16.—William Day, colored, who killed his sweetheart here Saturday night, has been arrested at Stoneville.

No New Cases.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 17.—No new cases of yellow fever reported today. Gratifying reports continue to be received from all the sick except two.

RAIN, DECIDEDLY COOLER

Thunderstorm is Predicted for Tonight—Northerly Winds.

The weather bureau's report, issued at 8 o'clock this morning, says: "Rain, with thunderstorm, tonight and possibly early Saturday. Saturday cloudy, decidedly cooler, with brisk northerly winds." The maximum temperature yesterday was 90, the barometer this morning was 29.96. The high barometer and cool wave is advancing rapidly southward and eastward and now covers the entire country west of the Mississippi to northern Texas, and has also advanced into the Ohio valley and Lake region. Very considerable changes in temperature have occurred: 20 degrees cooler than yesterday at Detroit, Davenport, St. Louis, 22 degrees cooler at Kansas City, and 18 degrees cooler at Chicago and Cleveland.

Light rain occurred at all points where a decided change in temperature occurred, largest amount 1.32 inches at Knoxville. In the south and on the Atlantic coast the weather continues hot and dry.

PLEASED WITH RALEIGH

Two Prospective Investors From Reading, Penn., Here Today.

Mr. F. H. Kuiper and Mr. James White, two prosperous citizens from Reading, Penn., spent last evening and this morning in the city prospecting and looking at property with a view of making investments here.

These gentlemen have just completed a tour of the Seaboard Air Line in this state stopping at several towns where they made investigation of the resources of the soil and climatic conditions. Southern Pines, Vaughn and Raleigh were points that most interested the Pennsylvanians. They were under the guidance of Mr. E. C. Robinson, of the immigration department of the Seaboard Air Line.

The party was taken in charge here by Mr. H. S. Leard, the Seaboard's clever passenger agent, and shown the principal points of interest about the city. They also inspected the farming lands.

At the depot this morning the two gentlemen stated to a reporter of the Press-Visitor that they were delighted with Raleigh and the people here. They were agreeably surprised with the growth and activity of the city and expressed a desire to return here.

Messrs. Kuiper and White intend to make investments in considerable amounts of land, which they will likely populate with settlers.

The Meeting at the Park Hotel.

This meeting was called by persons interested in the welfare of Raleigh. Several matters were discussed but the principal subject was the desirability of putting in active operation the charter granted to the South Atlantic Life Insurance Company of North Carolina. The meeting was not large, but when twenty-five of the solid, active business men of the city met on such a hot night, and patiently discuss a subject, the inference is that the matter is worth considering. The meeting was presided over by Mr. N. B. Broughton, and interesting and valuable remarks were made by Messrs. R. H. Battle, John Nichols, J. E. Pogue, Frank Ward and others.

The statement was made by an officer of the company that the capital stock of the company would be $100,000, and that it only required now about $25,000 in addition to what had been subscribed in order to put the company in condition to begin work. The statement was also made that plans had been prepared under the supervision of a New York actuary which were conservative and which would amply protect both the stockholders and policy-holders. The stock is being sold on the monthly payment plan, giving 100 months in which to make the payments. Considerable stock was taken and a committee was directed to wait on the citizens, and endeavor to have the full amount taken, and to report to an adjourned meeting on Thursday evening, September 30th, at the Park hotel.

Overdue Vessel Safe.

By Telegraph to the Press-Visitor.
QUEENSTOWN, S. pt. 17.—The overdue anchor line steamer Circassia which left New York August twenty-eight for Glasgow was signed this afternoon off Kinsale-Head in tow of the British steamer Memnon from Montreal.

HIS SWORD RECOVERED.

Major Burrage of Maine Finds His Long Lost Prize.

Major Henry S. Burrage of Portland, Me., who some time ago wrote to Governor Russell with the object of recovering his long lost sword, which was taken from him near Petersburg by North Carolina troops, has found the much prized relic.

He writes the Governor under date of Sept. 5th: "Yesterday I received my long lost sword. You can hardly imagine with what feelings I took the sword again in my hands after so many years. War time memories crowded upon me and upon the seaboard were still the stains of blood which came from a wound received at the battle of Cold Harbor.

"I wish to thank you and all the other North Carolina friends, among them Col. Harrell for your kindly assistance in my search for the sword. If I had not recovered the sword I should have been well repaid for my trouble by the interesting and most kindly letters which I received, and especially by the evidences they furnish that we all now brethren, members of a common country and united in heart and purpose under one flag."

The sword was taken from Maj. Burrage at Petersburg, Nov. 1, 1864, when that officer was captured while trying to exchange newspapers. The sword was taken by Lieutenant Teague of this state. It drifted to Missouri and was in use in a masonic lodge in Belton, Missouri, when Maj. Burrage recovered it.

SHORT STATEMENTS

Minor Matters Manipulated for the Many.

AROUND IN THE CITY.

For Honor of the News Pictured on Paper—Points and People Perilously Ticked and Dithly Put in Print.

The three upper classes of the A and M. League will give a reception to the freshmen tonight. Refreshments will be served.

The official temperature at Swannanoa Gap yesterday one o'clock is reported at 90. This is the highest temperature recorded in the mountains of North Carolina.

The Wilmington papers gave the production "Sowing the Wind" very handsome notices. The press everywhere spoke in highest terms of the performers and performance.

Seaboard engine No 524, which brought the mail from Atlanta into the union station at 11:30 struck a cow on the road. The cowcatcher was covered with the remnants of the animal.

Mr. D. T. Johnson received another fresh lot of those fine boneless hams to lay. Everybody likes them who tries them. The small sizes (2 to 4 lb.) and low price 10c per lb., make them popular.

Information comes from New Orleans that the "Devil's Auction" company, which recently performed here, had been quarantined in that city. Other companies will have to take circuitous routes.

Mailda Merritt, colored, the mother of George Alston, who is employed at the supreme court building, died yesterday. He funeral took place at 4:30 p. m. today from the Congregational church.

J. H. Shields, of Orange county, who some time ago challenged Mayor McCown, of Durham, to fight, a duel, has been indicted in Durham Superior Court. It is against the law in this State to send a challenge.

Miss Ethel Wayland Fray, daughter of the late Capt. J. J. Fray, who was so well known in Raleigh for so many years, will come to Raleigh tomorrow and make her home with her aunt, Mrs. C. B. Barbee. Miss Fray is a very accomplished musician. She will give music lessons to a limited class.

Mr. W. W. Ashe, State Forester, left last night to join the Association of American Botanists at Baltimore and to attend their meeting at Nashville. Mr. Ashe is highly esteemed for his attainments as a botanist. He carried with him some exhibits of rare North Carolina plants that will be of interest to the association.

A tip-top five cent cigar which is winning great favor for its excellent quality and flavor is the "George W. Child cigar," sold by W. G. Mebane & Co., of Greensboro. It is a splendid cigar and is handled by nearly all our local dealers. By the way the firm of W. G. Mebane & Co., of Greensboro, which is one of the comparatively new business concerns of that progressive town, has grown to be one of the most important firms of that section and has worked up an extensive business.

Brooklyn Revival.

Contributed.
Brooklyn revival meeting continues with no abatement of interest. There have been up to last night, twenty or more conversions, while a great number continue to present themselves for prayer. Rev. J. F. Butt, who is so ably assisting the pastor, will remain until Monday next. He will preach tonight. On Sunday he will preach as follows: At 11 a. m., at Brooklyn; at 3:30 p. m., at Epworth, and at Brooklyn at night, when he will hold his farewell service. The people of Raleigh who learned to love this devoted disciple of the cross, have greatly enjoyed and will long remember his visit among them.

Seaton Gates Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gates Lodge No. 64, I. O. O. F., Friday night at 8:00 o'clock. It is earnestly desired that every member be present. Members of sister lodges are cordially invited to attend.
