Consul General Fitzhugh Lee is in Washington, but state department officials declare that his visit has no official significance, and that he will return to Cuba about the first of October. That is more, however, than Gen. Lee has said.

Rev. Sam Small has gone to Kentucky and Ohio. He will take an active part in the campaign in both States, making Democratic speeches. He recently had a conference with Mr. Bryan, and he will probably tell the Kentucky and Ohio voters some of the things they talked about.

A motorman in Atlanta has been indefinitely suspended for representing an insult offered a young lady on a traction car by one of the soldiers from Fort McPherson. A petition is being circulated among citizens asking his reinstatement and commending him for his chivalry, which seems to be somewhat of a discount in Atlanta just now especially among Uncle Sam's brave soldier boys at the fort.

A unique entertainment for charity purposes is on the Atlanta boards for the early part of next month. It is to be a prize military drill by a company of young ladies, given for the benefit of the Grady hospital under direction of the ladies' auxiliary of that institution. Forty young ladies have agreed to become members of the company and have been hard at work "shouldering arms" and right-wheeling for a week or more, drilling under command of Lieutenant Foster, of the Capital City Guards. They will carry regulation rifles and wear a natty uniform, being specially made for the event. The show is sure to draw a crowded house.

The fact is noted that a suspected thief lately arrested by the Kansas City police carried in his pocket and diligently perused while in custody, not a tale of blood, murder and crime, but Beatrice Harraden's "Ships That Pass in the Night." This is taken as a singular circumstance, it being a popular belief that most criminals are made so by reading bad books, and that after they enter upon a career of systematic wickedness they read nothing else. The observations made by the officers of prison libraries show that the literary tastes of prisoners are fairly good, and that they seem most inclined to standard fiction.

If the Havana shall not be alarmed at the prospects of the dredging of the harbor of their city in order to admit the floating dock which has been towed over from England for the use of the naval ships of Spain they will display even more than their ordinary indifference for sanitary surroundings. Havana harbor has been for nearly four hundred years the sink of a notoriously unsalubrious city, and the sluggish and tideless waters of the bay cover an accumulation of filth the stirring up of which will mean death to all who shall breathe the noxious exhalations. The condition of Havana harbor, however, is merely typical of the rottenness which permeates Spain's colonial administration

The newspaper men who tries to interview Mr. Gorman on politics meet with the usual result. He interviews them and finds out what they know, but doesn't tell them what he knows. Whether Senator Gorman intends to retire from public life at the expiration of his present term is a question that is still being discussed both by his friends and his enemies, but whatever may be his intentions about retiring, there is no doubt about his intention to regain Maryland for the democratic party, nor of his confidence in his ability to accomplish that result. His expansive smile when existing republican discussions in the State are mentioned shows his satisfaction with the situation.

Strong Nerves

Nerves just as surely come from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla as does the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, or other so-called blood diseases. This is simply because the blood affects the condition of all the bones, muscles and tissues. If it is impure it cannot properly sustain these parts. It made pure, rich, red and vitalized by Hood's Sarsaparilla, it carries health instead of disease, and repairs the worn, nervous system as nothing else can do. Thus nervous prostration, hysteria, neuralgia, heart palpitation, are cured by

Harris' Lithia Carbonated

We guarantee that one glass of Harris' Lithia Carbonated Water will relieve any case of indigestion in one minute's time or money refunded, or if taken after each meal will cure any case of indigestion. Read what the noted Dr. Davega, of Chester, S. C., has to say for it:

MR. J. T. HARRIS:
DEAR SIR—For the past eight months I have been using Harris' Lithia Water, with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity daily. The Carbonated has no equal in Gastric disturbances. In old chronic dyspepsia if you will wash the stomach with salt and water, and have an hour later have your patient drink the Carbonated Lithia you will make many friends and improve many stomachs. It is an excellent laxative. It is a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia.

FARMERS DIFFER IN OPINION.

Now is the best time to sow Annual Clover Seed. In the huck they are surer and better crop than Cleaned Seed. If ground is baked between your cotton and corn rows, run over very lightly with cultivator and now broadcast thirty of cleaned or sixty pounds of seed in the huck.

The month of September is the proper time to sow all grasses. Small plots should be sowed deep, and fields should be broken with two-horse ploughs, and thoroughly pulverized with disc and harrow.

We are giving this information from our experience. We have seed to sell. We charge only for them. We have now in stock Crimson Clover Seed, cleaned and in the huck; Choice Red Clover Seed, best quality Orchard Grass Seed; Blue Grass of finest quality for lawns, etc.; Virginia Winter Oats.

There is no advance in field seed with the exception of wheat. Will be glad to give prices on anything you wish in the seed line.

Nearly everything in the grocery line has advanced 40 to 50 per cent. We have been compelled to advance the price of "Roller Champion Flour." Our "High Art Coffee," "Ho-No-Tee" and "Clover Hill Butter" are retailed at former prices, although there has been material advance in price of butter.

Canned Goods are very much higher. Will make it to the interest of persons buying in large lots to give us a call.
