FUSION AGAIN.

Some days since we published the following editorial from the Fayetteville Observer: "We can drive out the present gold-bug fusionists and recover the state for clean and honest government by 'co-operation' of the Populists and Democrats."

The only question for partnership is as to the particular form in which this 'co-operation' may be effected. None but a traitor to his State would oppose such co-operation." The Observer informs us that the above quotation was a mutilation of a lengthy editorial, and says: "The extract, which all three of the papers named (Citizen, Charlotte Observer and Raleigh Press-Visitor) have begun with a sentence cut in two, is one of half a dozen lines taken out of the body of an article of 245 lines. This article consisted, two-thirds, of an editorial in the Wilmington Messenger, all the balance of the Observer's articles, in which it expressed its opinion on the subject of fusion."

country, taking the degree of D. D. is now in charge of the Siang Hu hospital at Foo Chow, and a story is told of a coolie who wheeled his blind old mother 1,000 miles on a barrow to take her to the woman doctor. A double operation for catarract was the result, and the old woman can see as well as ever. Dr. Hu King Eng is to be one of the delegates to the Woman's Congress to be held in London next year. Her grandfather, a mandarin of great wealth, was converted to Christianity some years ago, and she herself is a Christian.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis states that she finds the air of New York city much more beneficial to her health than the more languid climate of the south, hence her residence in the metropolis. At her present time she also likes more society than she was able to have at Beauvoir, her Southern home, which was very isolated; and, moreover, she was obliged to keep the house constantly open to visitors and sight-seers, who at times almost overwhelmed her, greatly taxing her strength.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists.
