Christmas Thanksgiving.

For their generous patronage during the late Christmas season, we desire to offer our hearty thanks to the people of Raleigh and vicinity. Although our store long since won the name of the "L. A. S.," our eleven years of experience shows no parallel to the wonderful business of the last few weeks.

Our natural gratification over this happy situation is enhanced by the knowledge that every Christmas purchaser will be a friend in the future—that every article that went out of our doors was worthy, reliable, serviceable and economical in price.

Those who follow the pleasant and time-honored custom of remembering their friends on New Year's Day, those who forgot some friend in the excitement of the Christmas rush, and those who wish to reciprocate for unexpected gifts, will find this store and this stock just what they were a month ago—ready for any possible demand.

Before Christmas, after Christmas, at any and all times of the year, this is the great popular furniture house of Raleigh.
