A SAD TRAGEDY.

Little Annie Weathers accidentally killed Yesterday Afternoon

Little Annie Pearl Weathers, the ten year old daughter of Mr. A. S.
Weathers, who resides on Pine street, was accidently shot and killed yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at the Taylor farm north of the city.

The gun was resting on a shoulder of Miss Annie Bell, who in the hands of the aged seven years, when accidently it fired, the lead of shot striking the right side of Miss Weathers' fore head. The entire right side of the skull was blown away and death was instantaneous.

The unfortunate victim, in com pany with Misses Nannie and May Bell and Allie and Annie Gill, left the city yesterday afternoon to visit the Misses Gill.

At a point about 200 yards from the Taylor homestead the young ladies stopped to talk to Habert Gill, Mr. Gill had just returned from hunting and was resting. His gun, a single barrel breach loader, was on the embankment.

The young ladies were engaged in conversation and were watching a kite flying nearby, when the Miss Annie Gill picked up the gun. The child had hardly placed the gun in Miss Bell's shoulder before it fired, and Miss Weathers, who was sitting directly in front of the barrel, caught the full load on the right side of her forehead and fell to one side, limp and motionless.

None of the children know how the gun fired. It is not even known whether it was cocked. The little girl must have jerked the trigger unconsciously and unknowingly in some way. They were all sitting close together.

The parents of the dead girl were frenzied with grief. Kind neighbors everywhere were possible to console them. The body was removed here at night and taken to the city morgue at 10 o'clock.

At 11 o'clock the body was taken to the city morgue. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow at the residence of the parents.
