

THE GRAVEYARD RABBIT.
Mrs S S Williams of Raleigh in the School Supplement.

When shades of night are falling,
And the whippoorwill is calling
To his mate within the dark and silent wood,
You may see a rabbit flitting
From grave to grave, or sitting,
Looking at the moon in quiet,
Thoughtful mood.

Perhaps he then is thinking,
As he sits there fearful, shivering,
Of the place where juicy peas do most abound;
But he dares not, as when younger, Brave the guard—d-spice his hunger—
Dreadful dragons they, that boy and been-nosed hound.

Now, with tim'rous ears upstart-
ing,
Hark, the fœt then lightly darting
Through the leaves with noiseless, ghostly tread.
'Tis but the pine trees' sighing,
Or the light wind gently rough-
ing
The brown mantle o'er the silent sleepers spread;

Or a twig bereft of footing
On the dead bough, where the hooting
Of the owl above him fills his breast with dread.
Now he nibbles cold, unfeeling,
At the grass, that upward stealing
Thrusts its green spears through the roof above the dead.

Should you wish to catch this rabbit,
Note with care his wary habit;
Lay him low with stroke upon his glossy head.
Twelve the hour, he moan to fling
you
One bright ray—the act will bring you Rarest luck (the left hind foot) 'tis gravelly said.

But because of tattered magic,
Would you do a thing so tragic?
Take the life as sweet to Bunny as yours to you.
He has taken sanctuary,
He asks out grass and berry
And a home among the graves be-benned with dew.

Now is the winter of our discontent because it is cold. Hitherto it has been the same because it was unseasonably warm. We humans are not easily pleased. It becomes every one of us to cultivate the place of contentment.

Well known Merchant—
APEX, N. C., Jan. 22, 1898.—Mr
A J Wood, of the firm of Wood & Searls of this place, and well known all through this section, has had trouble with the grip. While recovering from this debilitating disease he took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did him so much good by tuning up his syst. m that he has since taken it every spring as a blood purifier.
He says Hood's is the best selling medicine he keeps.

The Discovery of the Day.

Aug J Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: Dr King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best salve I have. J H Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ala., writes: "Dr King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it cures falls, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at any drug store.

Woman's Friend
The Great Medicine that Gives Nerve Strength

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes the Blood Rich and Pure, Creates an Appetite and Restores Health, Vigor and Vitality.

"I feel that I ought to write a few words in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has done great things for me. I was in a delicate condition and was sick at my stomach and constipated. I tried remedies highly recommended for female weaknesses, but the medicines brought on other troubles. I was so weak I could not attend to my household duties, and I then determined to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After I had taken this medicine a short time I began to gain strength. I became stronger each day until I was able to work all day without any inconvenience. I have taken Hood's Pills for constipation, and I am better today than I have been for five years.
Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills I feel rested in the morning.
I am less nervous and am sure I have richer and purer blood. I have always been bothered with scrofula, but now I am rid of it. Before my last child was born I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and my girl baby was fat and strong, while my other child was not well and lived to be only two years old." Miss E. E.
DEAL, Box 419, Missouri Valley, Iowa.
