WEDDING CEREMONIES.

From antiquity down there is a similarity in wedding ceremonies, says the Chicago News. The presents given the bridesmaids and ushers are simply a relic of the rough bribery used by the ancient bridegroom among his personal friends so that they would assist in his capture of his chosen bride when the day arrived on which he had determined to carry her off.

The best man, too, is but a survivor of the band of friends who accompanied the suitor in his wife-winning and kept watch for him for days over the bride's tribe, while the lover sought an opportunity to carry off his prize. Even the honeymoon is declared to be nothing more than the hurried flight of the husband with his wife to escape the vengeance of the pursuing tribe, headed by the bereaved father.

A REAL NOBLEMAN AS AN ACTOR.

The latest aristocratic recruit for the English stage is the Earl of Rosslyn, brother of the Duchess of Sutherland and a half brother of the beautiful Countess of Warwick. His skill as an amateur ballet dancer has already delighted select audiences in Great Britain and the colonies. In the seven years since he came of age he has spent $1,000,000 beyond his income in "money-leaders' interest, gambling, horse racing and other extravagances." He has just gone through the Bankruptcy Court, with no assets whatever. He has made his debut under the name of James Erskine at a London theatre in Pinner's new comedietta and will receive a salary of $100 a week.

In Japan a very useful accomplishment taught children is the use of both hands in writing and other work, hence there are no right or left handed people, as a rule, but both hands are used indiscriminately.

Probably the failure of Spain to promptly disavow such of the utterances of Senor De Lome as cast doubt upon her good faith in dealing with this government may be due to the fact that the contents of the unfortunate letter have not become known at Madrid. It is stated that the text of the letter has not been cabled to Madrid by the state department, and it may be taken for granted that Senor De Lome has not gone out of his way to supply the omission. The American people could afford to ignore the slurs of a Spanish duodecimo statesman; but Spain cannot rest under the imputation made against the honesty of her diplomacy by her own representative without loss of honor. The indications are that the Sagasta Ministry is still ignorant of the real gravity of Senor De Lome's offense.

The lonely little island of Tris'an d'Aouha, in the South Atlantic ocean, which has a population of about sixty persons, has regular postal communication with the rest of the world only once a year. The island, owned by England, is under the protection of the governor of Cape Colony. He arranges that a postal courier shall visit annually. This year the ship carrying the correspondence, the Pretoria, left the Cape on October 14. She started for St Helena, where she was to deliver the packet to the commandant of the English vessel Magpie, which would convey it to Tristan d'Aouha. The year's mail was composed of ten letters, three newspapers and two packages of books. Thus the island inhabitants of 37 degrees 3 minutes south latitude will soon be informed, albeit rather meagrely, of what has taken place in the world during the last twelve months.

Prayers for Munyon.

A Leading New England Clergyman Invokes Divine Blessing Upon Professor Munyon's Humane Work.

People like ministers of the Gospel who live for their fellow-men, are most ardent in their approval of anything that is of material benefit to the human race. Among the strongest endorser of Professor Munyon's Remedies are the leading clergymen of all denominations. Rev. M. E. Andrews of Westfield, Mass., writes: "I wish to add my testimony in favor of Munyon's Home Remedies. I have used the Cold Cure, Dyspepsia Cure, Nerve Cure, Headache Cure in my family with perfect results. These remedies are a blessing to our family. In my family they have cured the worst case of cold in one day, and dyspepsia of seven years' standing was cured with three vials of the Dyspepsia Cure. I have had very severe headaches, which were driven away in half an hour by the Headache Cure. My wife suffered greatly from sleeplessness, and one vial of Nerve Cure gave her perfect relief. I sincerely pray that God will bless the proprietors of the valuable remedies."
Munyon has a separate speciality for a disease. For sale by druggists, 25 cents a bottle. If in doubt, send for Prof. Munyon at Philadelphia, Pa., and get medical advice free.

Delinquent Taxpayers Take Notice.

I am compelled to close up the tax books as speedily as possible, but desiring to avoid resorting to harsh measures or attaching penalties and costs, I hope all those who have failed to pay their taxes for 1897 will come at once to my office and pay same—on or before February 15th, 1898. After that date I shall collect as law directs, which will involve costs.
I have granted the fullest indulgence and those not paying by Feb. 15th cannot shift the responsibility upon the law or officers in enforcing the law. February 15th, 1898, is positively the limit of indulgence. If you want to avoid costs or being garnished, pay up at once.
