EASTER AT THE CHURCHES

Sermons Appropriate to the Joyous Occasion.

GLAD ANTHEMS WERE A FEATURE

Anniversary of the Doctrine of Peace.
Hope, Joy and Good Will—The Weather Was Not Altogether Propitious, but There Was a Large Outpouring of People—Beautiful Floral Decorations.

Easter, the great church occasion, was celebrated and observed in fitting manner in the churches of Raleigh yesterday, though the weather was not altogether propitious for all the Easter accompaniments which the world has learned to observe. The sermons at the houses of worship were appropriate to the glad occasion, and the Easter music, sung to Him on high, gave an inspiring influence to the truths and doctrine of hope and joy expounded from the pulpits.

Upon the story of the Resurrection of the Saviour is based the underlying observance of Easter. The anniversary occasion is a day of gladness of good will and peace, when all will is forgotten. Such was Easter in Raleigh, and all that failed to make the beautiful observance of the day complete was the rather disagreeable weather that prevailed.

The services yesterday at the various churches were specially interesting, fully as much so as on previous Easter occasions, when the conditions were more favorable.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd the Easter offering was devoted to the building of the magnificent new college, which is soon to be removed. At the morning service more than $200 was raised.

CHRIST CHURCH.
The observance of Easter music in an unprecedentedly beautiful way at Christ church. In addition to the Easter music, the pastor, Rev. M. M.
McRary, preached a strong sermon from the text, "I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep, for thou only lead me to dwell in safety."

In the afternoon at 6 o'clock the children of Christ church Sunday school held their Easter festival in the church.
The children came and gave of their mite boxes.

Rev. Dr. Marshall then made a short but beautiful talk on "Fruitfulness," thus trusting death and the resurrection.

CHILDREN'S EXERCISES.
Yesterday afternoon the members of the infant class of the Edenton Street Methodist church held Easter exercises in the Sunday school room. A large congregation enjoyed the songs and recitations by the little folk. The collection amounted to $200.

The program was as follows: Professional by the entire infant class.
Children's offerings and prayer.
Easter greetings by Rufus Eason, Kate Gloria Patri and creed by the class.
Chorus, "Sweet Easter Joys," by Miss Annie Wynne.
Building the Cross by Earl Evans, John Wiggs, Katherine Brown, Mable Riddle, Douglas Leard and James Powell.

Little Mildred Brown sang about Burkhead Bobbitt, Eric Johnson, Ernie Wynne and Susie McKee who gave each a different meaning of Easter.
The Easter proclamation, "Christ is Risen," was formed by twelve children, each bearing a letter of flowers. The letter bearers were Edna Louise Taylor, Hattie Jones, Mable Riddle, Kate Cooper, John McRary, Lucy Woodall, Myrtle King, Anzu Ellington, Corbett Jones, Margerie Terrell. The cross was completed by the Junior League, professing the sentence "He is Risen, Indeed!"

Offertory, "Little Givers," by the class.
Solo, "Hail to the Happy Morning," by Ray Brown.
Chorus, "A Day of Joy and Gladness."
Benediction.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.
The Sunday School Union of this city held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Central Methodist church.

Mr. J. D. Boushall, superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday school, made a short practical but earnest talk on "What the Home Can do for the Sunday School."

The second speaker was Mr. J. H.
Weathers, teaching in the primary class in the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school. His subject was "How to Secure Attention; What to Teach and How to Teach." He impressed the necessity of consecrated, faithful and earnest effort on the part of the teacher.

The meeting was thrown open for discussion. One of the most interesting features of the afternoon was a short talk by Gypsy Prince, the son of a Zulu King, who is a visitor in the city.
He was an interested listener to the proceedings of the Union. Gypsy Prince is the youngest son of a family of twenty-nine children. He is 20 years old and weighs 214 pounds. He is a typical African, symmetrical in figure, erect and graceful in carriage and appears to be a perfect giant. He is now a student at the Colored Agricultural and Mechanical College at Greensboro, after completing his course of study at this institution he will return to Africa and become a teacher among the

IN THE BASE BALL WORLD.

Wake Forest Ties Macon in Eleven Inning Contest—Virginia Defeats Yale.
The college baseball season is one of surprises this early. In Richmond Saturday the University of Virginia defeated the Yale nine by a score of 6 to 3. Yale was unable to touch Sum-merskill, the Virginia pitcher.

The Wake Forest nine tied the Mercer University nine in an eleven inning contest at Macon Ga., Saturday.
The score was 4 and 4.

Wake Forest first team plays Furman University Monday, Wofford College Tuesday, and South Carolina College Wednesday.

The second team of the A. and M. will play the "Ironside," one of the scrub teams of Wake Forest, but not the second team, on Monday at Wake Forest.

At Greensboro Saturday the Oak Ridge Institute nine defeated the team of the Johns Hopkins University by a score of 16 to 6.

The nine of the University of North Carolina begins its eastern tour to day.
The team plays Harvard at Chapel Hill, on Monday, University of Pennsylvania on Tuesday and on Thursday at Charlottesville, Va., the University of Virginia. The college boys have strong faith in this year's baseball team. As usual, a great amount of the interest is in the Virginia game. Next Saturday the team plays Harvard at Chapel Hill.

The schedule for the remainder of the baseball season is April 20th Oak Ridge at Chapel Hill; April 23rd University of Virginia at Chapel Hill; April 27th, Trinity at Durham; May 7th, University of Virginia at Danville; June 1st, alumni at Chapel Hill.

YOUNG STUDENTS MARRY.
Miss Cecyve Doo and Mr. Fleming Craig of the University Married Here.

Miss Cecyve Rowena Doo, of this city, and Mr. Fleming Craig, of Bortie county, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. S.
C. Doo, in West Raleigh, Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Miss Doo and Mr. Craig have been students at the University until within the past few days. There they met for the first time, and an acquaintance resulted in a deeper affection. The marriage was celebrated at a home where one of a few invited friends, all unknown to the classmates of the popular young couple.

Rev. M. Sims, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle church, performed the interesting ceremony.
The groom will probably return to the University to complete his course.

Raleigh Loses Two Popular Citizens

Southern Express Company in this city, pany, both of whom have resided in Raleigh for many years, were both taken to their graves last night.

TWO LIVES SAVED.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but a bottle of Dr.
King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.
Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cough and was unable to do anything without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured.
He is now a healthy man and a result of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Presents trial bottles to the drug store. Reg-

OTHER EASTER SERVICES.
Appropriate exercises to commemorate Easter were held in the Rockland and Episcopal Methodist churches, at coltsville, N. C. H. Bain is pastor. A union Easter service was held in the Episcopal chapel in the afternoon, and an address was delivered by Rev. J. W.
A. Norman, rector of the church.

The Presiding Elder, Rev. E. A.
Vance, preached at Episcopal church at night and held the quarterly conference of the Synod. The service was held in the Episcopal church in the Methodist church in the morning.
He is a beloved man and an excellent preacher, and the people of Raleigh are glad to hear him.

An Easter collection for the Methodist church was administered by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Eason. The collection amounted to $100.

Rev. J. L. Foster occupied his pulpit at the Christian church at night. There were no services there in the morning.
At the Protestant church after the service the communion was administered. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Eason, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

And the trust dressed men and boys in line are Berwanger dressed. Trust in style, trust in fit, trust in value, trust in price. They are a regiment by themselves. Look into this modern ready-to-wear clothing. Prejudice can't live in such a strong atmosphere of perfection.
You've no excuse left for the extravagances of custom tailoring. There is the same satisfaction to be had for half, one by one the fallacies have been unmasked—the tape line is a snare; the trying on is a delusion; the peers of any that can be made—are on our counters, ready to put on. Made by the finest makers of clothing.
More than that, they are made to our order, who best know your wants—and of the choicest new foreign and domestic weaves. Brings us nearer to perfection—gives you more exclusiveness. Nobody else goes to the length of possibility. Our lines of Suits begin at $7.50—the best you ever saw for $7.50—and ends at $25, the best that can be made at any price.

ELEGANT TOP COATS AT $8.50, $10, $12.50.

Next in need will be the Straw Hats, Negligee Shirts—both lines complete.
