RALEIGH, W.

The Daily Evening Visitor

AROUND THE CITY.

Good evening.
Change of gauge.
How do you like us?
We strive to please.
Send in your subscription and advertisements.
For special notices there is no more popular medium than the VISITOR.
Rev J L Foster, will preach at the Union Mission tonight at 8 o'clock.
The receipts of cotton, in this city, are now quite small.
And now there is talk of a shooting club in Raleigh.
Our special notice column presents unusual advantages. Only five cents a line.
There are but few localities in the city that the VISITOR does not find its way.
No better channel through which to advertise your business than the VISITOR. Try it and be convinced.
Willie Forest, of House Creek Township, son of W E Forest, Esq., died this morning of typhoid fever.
James Elder, deputy sheriff of New Hanover county, brought two convicts to the penitentiary today.
Where will be the site of the Baptist Female College? This is now the all absorbing question.
As a family fireside paper we propose to make the VISITOR welcome to all.
Have you lost anything? If so advertise it in our local columns, and you will stand a good chance to recover it.
Rev Dr J M Curry, former Minister to Spain, expects to be in attendance at the session of the Teachers' Assembly, in Morehead this summer.
We regret to hear that Rev J C Wilson, a prominent Baptist minister, of Merry Oaks, Chatham county, was recently severely injured by being thrown from his horse.
The subscription list of the VISITOR is daily increasing and there is no better advertising medium in the city. Now is the time to subscribe and to make known your wants and wishes.
The advertisement of Mr. A. E. Jordan will be found of a highly interesting character. He specially calls attention to the Royal Germantuer, which is causing the best results to all who try it. Give it a trial.
In the case against Dr. Eugene Grissom, for assault with a deadly weapon, judgment was suspended on payment of costs. The Solicitor stated in open court that he would not have sent the bill to the grand jury if he had known the facts in the case.
A telegram was received this morning announcing the death of Mr. William Hall, of Columbus county. He was a brother of Mrs. James A. Briggs, of this city, and Mrs. W. B. Royall, of Wake Forest.
The Register of Deeds reports today that about the usual number of mortgages are registered this season; that he has not issued a single marriage license this week. This speaks rather badly for the energy of our young men in the matter of popping the question.
The commencement exercises of Leonard Medical College of Shaw University, in this city, will be held on Thursday evening, the 27th inst. Rev J W Carter will deliver the address and Gov Fowle will present the prizes.
Eleven years of existence has made the VISITOR what may be termed a standard institution in Raleigh. It finds its way to hundreds of firesides, and our books show that the list of subscribers is rapidly increasing daily. Send in your names, and make known your wants through the advertising columns. No better medium in the city.

Business men—If you desire solid prosperity let the public know what you have to sell. The VISITOR is an admirable channel for the purpose.
The Governors Guard will have their monthly dress parade and prize drill tomorrow evening at their armory after which they will give a grand military ball. The public is cordially invited to attend both features. The armory is being beautifully decorated and all who come will be insured a pleasant evening.
Greensboro Workman: It is only a few years ago that a house and lot here now held at $5,000 could have been bought for $300, and other vacant lots now held at $400 to $600 could not have been sold any at price. There are some of the marks of a boom about which there can be no mistake.
An advertisement for a wife in a Colorado paper brought such a heavy mail to the advertiser, Mr Paul White, a prosperous ranchman at Rocky Ford Col., that he had to convey it from the postoffice to his ranch in barrels in his farm wagon. For a month he has spent his evenings perusing his correspondence, and he has not yet made a choice.
Supreme Court.
The following cases were argued today:
Waller vs Douglas, from Iredell; C H Amfield for plaintiff, Wm M Robbins for defendant.
Mischeimer vs Bost, from Cabarrus; H W Harris, Burwell & Walker for plaintiff, W J Montgomery for defendant.
Memorial Day.
The Ladies Memorial Association is making preparations to celebrate Memorial Day in appropriate style, and have chosen Mr Fab H Busbee, orator of the day. The subject selected is the life and services of General W D Fender. Mr Busbee is one of our foremost orators and the selection is in all respects a most admirable one. The Association will hold a special meeting in a few days to make further arrangements for the exercises.
Building and Loan Association.
A Building and Loan Association's Advisory Board, which is a branch of the United Banking and Building Company of Richmond, Va, has been organized in Durham. The following are the officers:
President—R D Blacknall.
Vice President—C C Taylor.
Secretary and Treasurer—W M Morgan.
Attorney—W W Fuller.
The Board is composed of the following business men of Durham: Messrs V Morgan, R D Blacknall, W H McGee, C C Taylor, W J Griswold, A Lloyd, F L Fuller, W H Proctor and W M Yearby.
Special Edition.
We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the special Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad edition of the Wilmington Messenger. It is one of the most complete issues of the kind ever gotten up in North Carolina and reflects the greatest credit upon the energy of the proprietors. The edition is most beautifully illustrated with cuts of many of the important points along the line of Railway, and pays special attention to the places of interest and around Wilmington. The edition is gotten up in the best style.
Burned.
The parage and office at Blenheim, S. C., destroyed by fire yesterday, including most of the furniture. The sonage was occupied by Rev. Ruford, a most excellent pastor and highly esteemed gentleman. He was native of North Carolina and died in Wake county.
Weather Report.
For Raleigh fair weather, stationary temperature.

line and now it is our
the columns under it, with such ing as will make our paper one and iously looked for at the setting sun of each of the six days allotted to us in which to labor.
Today's issue could not be prepared quite as well as we had hoped for, but it is an improvement, and along that line we propose to press. Our field is not a broad one at present, but we recognize that it is important.
THE EVENING VISITOR has had success in the past and found its way into many a home that knew nothing of a daily paper before it came and many of them today have never seen none other.
The New York Herald would not be any compensation to them for the loss of the VISITOR. The London Times, they have never heard of. As the advertisement of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup has it. "The old folks like it, and the children cry for it."
Going into the home six times a week we hope to be a blessing and shall strive to keep our columns so clean and pure that they shall educate and elevate all who peruse them.
It is, of course, human to err, but it is also God-Like to be charitable, and if in our course we deal otherwise than what appears a strict sense of Justice may dictate, it will be our pleasure as it is our duty, to make amends. On the other hand, we will claim the privilege to assert our honest convictions on all occasions.
The increase of our patronage during the past week has been exceedingly gratifying. Old friends have renewed their allegiance, and scores of new ones have joined them. Words of cheer are extended to us on every hand and we appreciate them, and hope to meet public expectations.
THE DAILY EVENING VISITOR has no equal as a local advertiser and we trust our merchants and business men generally will freely take advantage of it. If instead of biting at every catch penny scheme that comes along, our business men would learn that the first and best of all mediums for reaching the people is the news paper, it would be much better for them and greatly aid those of us who are here to stay.
We ask again that our friends give us their aid in extending our usefulness as a publisher of news and as the special medium for the present and future development of our beautiful city.
It is Wonderful
How so many goods can be put in one store. We have been receiving goods for the past two weeks, and not in small lots either, but in car lots. Our stock is not quite all in yet, and we have paid more than $200 for freight. Now, when you think of it, $200 will pay the freight on a pile of goods; we have got a pile of them, and our stock this spring is the prettiest, largest and cheapest we have ever had. We are offering special inducements to merchants and wholesale buyers, and we can make it to your interest to trade with us. We have just opened our spring clothing and we want you to see it. We have just 397 new spring suits for you to look at, and if you can be pleased in style, quality or price in the United States we can do it. We say positively, we have got the nicest selection of spring styles of clothing there is in Raleigh, and our prices are less than any other house can give you.
BIG RACKET STORE.
When you want to buy anything in the country produce line, give our old friend Lynn Adams a call. You will find him at Yancey & Stronach's Wilmington street, where he keeps on hand at all times a full and fresh supply of chickens, eggs, butter, sweet and Irish potatoes, North Carolina bacon, hams and shoulders, black, yellow and white peas. You can save money by buying from him anything in his line you need. All goods bought from him will be delivered promptly. Read his advertisement.

The wooden posts, with names on them, are rapidly dec and is necessary to replace the soon as possible. Having no mea at our disposal for this purpose, we are compelled to ask for aid, feeling sure that our appeal will not be in vain.
Many of these graves, which we have lovingly cared for so many years, contain the dear ones of South ern homes, where their memories are still cherished; and a throb of sym pathy will go out to us in our efforts to rescue their names from oblivion.
Mothers, widows, orphans, sisters and comrades, help us in our sacred work, and we believe that before another year we will have money enough to begin our work. If some responsible person in each city, town and village will offer to receive contributions for this cause, and will forward them to Chas Wallace, Esq. President 1st National Bank, Fredericksburg, Va, we will be very grateful.
MRS CAPT J N BARNEY,
Sec'y Ladies' Memorial Association.
We can state as a matter of fact that, of all the States mentioned, Georgia, alone has responded and sent suitable head stones to mark the graves of those who fell in her defence. Shall the "Old North State" be behind in a matter so just? The VISITOR sincerely hopes not.
An Attractive Place.
In our rounds this morning we dropped into the Drug Store of Mr J Hal Bobbitt and found that it has been entirely renovated, and presents a most pleasing appearance. It is decorated with very bright and beau tiful wall paper, the ceiling being divided into two large panels with handsome borders and corner figures.
The prescription department is sepa rated from main room, by an elegant Turkman curtain, suspended at either side and directly over the pre scription desk. A poison case is pro vided, which serves the purpose of keeping distinct that class of medi cines. This latter feature is being universally adopted in all modern appointed pharmacies.
Enterprise of this kind always im presses itself upon the minds of the public who are not slow to their ap preciation in a substantial way. Hal is a good fellow, and the VISITOR wishes him unbounded success.
Guilford College.
We briefly acknowledged in our issue of yesterday, the receipt of an invitation to be present at the second annual entertainment of the Henry Clay Society, of Guilford College, on April 8th. The invita tion was received from Mr R D Rob inson, formerly of this city, and one of our special friends, who is President of the Society and who is also pub lisher of the Guilford Collegian, issued at the college. This is a high,
but deserved honor, as Mr Robinson is a writer of much merit, and a most deserving gentleman in all the walks of life. We bespeak for him a bril liant future and hope he may realize his fondest hopes in all respects.
