The Daily Evening Visitor.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.
W H & R S Tucker & Co—Hats.

In and Around the City.

Holy week.
Another little touch of winter.
Not much doing in the way of gardening.
Pullen Park is now getting to be the great resort on pleasant afternoons. It is a delightful retreat.
All the roads leading into the city will be put in good order by the coming fall.
If trade is dull, make it brisk. An advertisement in the VISITOR will help considerably.

A ladies dark brown veil has been found on Fayetteville street and left at this office for identification.

There will be a meeting of the Relief Society of Christ Church in the chapel, immediately after morning service to tomorrow.

The Greensboro Patriot will be issued as a daily soon. It is not, yet, determined however, whether it will be an evening or a morning paper.

Let your wants be made known through the columns of the VISITOR; you will never regret it. It is the best paying investment you can make.

Picnic parties for Easter Monday are rapidly forming. We want all to remember the mother's advice, who said: "Hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

There never was a better time to advertise than now. The VISITOR reaches every section of the city, and it is the ladies special favorite. Let our merchants remember this.

Deputy Sheriff P H Johns believes he has discovered a mineral spring (of value) on his farm near Auburn. He has brought some of the water to this city to have it analyzed.

Our subscription list is booming, thanks to kind friends and the public generally. Send in your names; we want, at least twenty five hundred subscribers by the first of May, and we hope to get them.

We have received a copy of the Spalding Base Ball Guide for 1890. Besides being the official book of the Leagues annual statistics of the championship of 1890, it is replete with chapters of special interest. It is published in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and London.

Col A M Waddell, has been selected as one of the speakers at the Sub-tropical Exposition in Jacksonville, on Carolina day. This is a high compliment to Col Waddell and no less so to North Carolina. As John Randolph once said of Patrick Henry, so we say of Col Waddell. "He is an orator indeed."

Pink Tea Party.

The young ladies of the Baptist Tabernacle will hold a Pink Tea Party in the Sunday school room on Thursday night next. The occasion will be a great social gathering of young people, and all go may rest assured of a pleasant evening. The admission will be only 10 cents.

Supreme Court.

The following cases were argued today:
Jarrett vs Lynch, from Yadkin; submitted on brief; E L Gaither and D M Furches for plaintiff; A E Halton, Glenn & Glenn, for defendants.
Stokes vs Department of Agriculture, from Rockingham, Reid and Reid, Dillard and King for Plaintiff; O B Watson for defendants.

The case of Stokes vs the Agricultural Department is of great importance—the constitutionality of the fertilizer tax is involved.

Weather Report.

For Raleigh—fair weather, stationary temperature.

The Meeting at Apex.

The session of representatives from the churches of the Western section of the Raleigh Baptist Association, held at Apex commencing on Friday last and closing yesterday was well attended and highly enjoyable.

Topics on church work, christian giving, missions, etc, were discussed, and on Saturday afternoon a Sunday School Institute was held under the direction of Mr N B Broughton.

H C Olive, Esq. was the presiding officer and Mr Edwards the clerk. On Friday night Rev C W Blanchard preached. On Sunday morning a mass meeting on Sabbath schools was held under the leadership of Mr R E L Yates. At 11 o'clock Rev N B Cobb preached to a large gathering.

The Boyle Verdict.

After a trial that has excited the utmost interest in our midst for several days the jury in the case of the State vs J J Boyle, on Saturday night last rendered a verdict of "not guilty." Without dwelling upon the justice or injustice of the verdict, there was a feature attending the closing of the case which merits and should receive the severest condemnation of all our people who are advocates of law and order. We allude to what may be termed the riotous demonstrations which Saturday night attended the finding of the jury. Such scenes, in a court of justice, no matter what may have been the result, should be promptly denounced, and the whole power of the court should, if necessary, be used to repress them. It is indeed a sad commentary on our court proceedings, when they can be enacted in a civilized community with impunity. We hope for the credit of Wake county they will not be repeated, and if they should be, then, offenders, whether of high or low degree, should be required to pay the penalty of outraged decency. We feel that the demonstration was a premium upon crime and a disgrace to our civilization.

Personal Mention.

Mr T W Dobbin, of the firm of W H & R S Tucker & Co, has returned from New York. The fruits of his labor there for weeks past can be seen in the superb stocks of new goods that come daily to the counters of their store. Pile upon pile of the choicest fabrics produced in this and foreign countries, selected with the greatest care, and showing the good taste of the buyer, can be seen at every turn. We are assured by some of the oldest men in the business that they have never seen a stock open more satisfactory, and that the prices throughout are undoubtedly the lowest ever known.

Mrs G M Spence, corner of Hargett and Bloodworth streets, who has been very ill for some time is no better. Her father and mother have been telegraphed for and arrived to attend her bedside.

Gen Phil B Hawkins, of Louisburg is in the city today, looking bright and cheerful.

We are pleased to see our friend Mr Theo N Ramsey, of Norfolk, Va, in the city. He is here as agent of the Virginia Classified Life Insurance Company, to adjust the claim of Rev Edward Howland, who died recently at the residence of U D Upchurch, Esq.

Mr H H Crocker, who has been sick for some time past, has so far recovered as to be at his store today.

Dr Thos L Banks, was in the city today.

The following persons were registered at the Yarboro today:
S A Brans, of Chicago; Wilmer Reed, Burlington, N J; S P Arrington, Warrenton, N C; Eugene P Alben, N C.

Col A M McPheeters left for Baltimore this morning on a business trip.

Superior Court.

Court met this morning at usual hour, Judge MacRae presiding.

The jury for the 2d week was called and sworn.

Before proceeding to business Judge MacRae said:

That he did not want any one to think that he would let such a demonstration as there occurred Saturday night when Boyle was acquitted, pass unnoticed; said he had inquired of the officers of the law this morning, but they seemed to have been noticing the cracks in the floor or other objects and could give him no information as to who the ring leaders were; said the demonstration started out near the door; he wanted to do the colored people, the justice to say, they took no part in it; as soon as the demonstration commenced, they left; and he (the Judge) was satisfied they were ashamed of it; and he was satisfied furthermore, that those who did engage in it, were a set of "roughs" and that no respectable person took part in it; he also said if the officers of the law had seen the ring leaders of this disgraceful affair, and had them before him to be dealt with, that he could not make fifteen cents out of the whole crowd by fine; said he had nothing to say as to the justice or injustice of the verdict of the jury, that it might be right or it might be wrong; he had nothing to say about it. One thing is certain—a fair girl has been ruined and a lecherous scamp has been turned loose; that he was satisfied that the good people of Raleigh were ashamed of the demonstration, and took no part in it; he felt it his duty to notice this affair and to say this much in behalf of the good people of Raleigh.

The following cases were then disposed of:

State vs J W Watkins; embezzlement; guilty; 4 months on county road.

State vs Sampson Anderson; indictment, disposing of mortgage property; jury; not guilty; motion to tax M A Blesoe, prosecutor with cost; motion denied.

State vs Ed Rogers; larceny; not guilty; defendant discharged.

State vs Anthony Norwood; false pretense; judgment suspended, on account of flight and absence of defendant.

State vs Wm Honeycutt, D H Andrews, Wm Plummer; affray; jury took the case.

Court will adjourn tomorrow.

Musical Concert at Raleigh.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad Company will sell parties of ten or more attending the musical concert in this city round trip tickets to and return, at the following rates:—From Oxford, $2 90; Durham, $1 50; Hillsboro, $2 25; Cary, 50c; Chapel Hill, $2 25. Tickets will be sold only one day—April 11th—good returning on any train leaving Raleigh April 12th. These rates only apply for parties of ten or more people.

Easter.

Do you intend to buy a new hat this week for Easter Sunday? If so, you cannot do better than to go to the Big Racket Store and buy it. We have the handsomest line of millinery goods to be found in the city and Mrs King is without doubt the best trimmer in Raleigh. We are better prepared to please you in this department than we have ever been. Now, if we can give you the handsomest hat for less money than you can get it elsewhere, isn't it to your interest to buy from us. We say that we will please you better for less money than you can be anywhere else in the city. You can never know whether this is true or not until you try.

BIG RACKET STORE.

Treasurer Heminsway, of Mississippi, got away with $334,512.19. The authorities would like to get up with him.

WANTED—To rent a five or six room dwelling. Must be a good location. Address, Box 786.

Fire Alarm Boxes—Important Notice.

Below will be found a correct list of the fire alarm boxes, giving location of each, and the method of turning in an alarm.

This is given to the public with the hope that our people will acquaint themselves with the location of the nearest box to their homes, and will, in case of fire, turn in an alarm from the box. Many people imagine they will get the assistance of the fire department quicker by sending or telephoning to the police station or Mayor's office than by turning in a fire alarm box. Such is not the case. Once a box is pulled every fire company, the water works, the police and everybody else knows it; and more, they know exactly where to go. It is better to lose the time necessary to turning in an alarm from a box than to have the fire department lose ten times as much trying to find it.

Keys are located at residences near the boxes—the exact location being on the box pole.

KEY HOLDERS.

Will be particular to observe the following directions:

1. To give an alarm, open the door, pull the hook to the bottom of the slot once only and let go. If the small bell in the box is ringing, do not pull the hook, as this indicates that an alarm has already been sent in from another box.

2. Be particular to remain at the box until some officer of the Fire Department or some piece of apparatus arrives.

3. Never give your key to an irresponsible person.

4. Never open the door except to give an alarm of fire.

5. Always send in the alarm from the box nearest the fire.
