LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.

Beyers & Horton—Groceries.
Barbee & Pope—Candy Manufacturers.

In and Around the City.

All Fools Day.

Last week in Lent.

One year ago today we had a big snow storm in Raleigh, and today feels like we might have another.

The Register of Deeds issued sixteen marriage licenses for the month of March. Ten white and six colored.

The death rate for Raleigh in the month of March, was, whites 10; colored 11. Total 21.

The US bonded warehouse near Littleton was burned Sunday night last.

The people of Greenville are much rejoiced at the passage of the first train over the Tar River bridge at that place.

Rev J L White, of Durham, is holding a meeting at Wake Forest College, in which much interest is manifested.

The collections for this the 4th Internal Revenue District of North Carolina during the month of March were $95,769.45.

The committee for locating the Baptist College are looking around for a proper site. They will take proper time and endeavor to make no mistake.

As Mr F H Busbee, who was chosen by the Ladies Memorial Association to deliver an address on the "life and services of Gen Pender," has been compelled to change the subject on account of being unable to give access to certain necessary material. The subject will be "The North Carolina Junior Reserves."

M J C L Harris has resigned his position as clerk in the Internal Revenue office here, and Mr Jeff Denton has been appointed his successor, by promotion. Mr Ceburn L Harris has taken the place formerly filled by Mr Denton. Mr J C L Harris hereafter will devote himself to the practice of law. His office is at his old stand on Davie street in the Fraps building. The promotion of Mr Denton is well deserved in all respects.

W G Allen, Superintendent of the County Work House, reports that he has lost two of the county convicts by death. One Charles Hicks colored died day before yesterday. Henry Williams, colored, died yesterday, both from the effects of the gripp. Both were between the age of sixty and seventy years; neither one has been able to do any work scarcely, since they have been in the Work House, since last court. One convicted of larceny of a steer and the other larceny of a cow. Both died in separate rooms outside the jail.

We invite the special attention of our friends and the public generally to the advertisement of Messrs Barbee and Pope, who have embarked in the manufacture of plain and fancy candies, and in the confectionery business generally. It would be almost impossible to say too much of the business qualifications and personal worth of these gentlemen. They are in all respects reliable and the public generally can rely upon it that in their dealings with them they will get fair and ample justice. Mr Jacob A Pope, the manufacturer, is a young man of experience in the business for fourteen years. We bespeak for the firm a most liberal share of public patronage. They really deserve it.

Capital Hose Company.

We desire to call attention to the fair and festival to be held by the above company, to begin on the 7th of April. The boys are preparing to give our people a "gala" week. Let all attend and help our young firemen.

Manteo Lodge, No 8

Meets tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the degrees, the degree staff officiating. Visiting brethren in the city will receive a cordial welcome.

For the Work House

The following prisoners were sent to the work house today, having been sentenced at the present term of the Superior court: Dock Brodie, six months; Lewis McKoy, twelve months; James Wilkins, six months; Wm Walton, six months; Abe Kelley, three years; Charlie Faucett, 12 months.

New Advertisements

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs Beyers & Horton, whose store is the headquarters for cheap groceries. They have, at all times, a complete stock which they are offering to the public on the most reasonable terms.

Court House Burned.

A dispatch received here yesterday announces the burning of the court house at Wentworth, Rockingham county. No lives were lost, and none of the prisoners escaped. The inmates were taken to Greensboro for safe keeping. At this writing, the origin of the fire is unknown.

What They Say of Us

The RALEIGH EVENING VISITOR comes to us in a bright cheery new suit, which seems to fit as if it had been made to order. The VISITOR is a good local paper, and is well deserving if the liberal support which it receives.—Wilmington Star.

Guilford Collegian.

We are in receipt of the March number of this most excellent monthly published by the Literary Societies of Guilford College. Among the most interesting articles, are: "How Little we Know," by Judge R P Dick, and an "Historical Sketch of New Garden Boarding School," by Nereus Mendenhall. The subscription price of the "Collegian" is only $1 per annum. Single copies 10 cents.

Arrests.

The Chief of Police furnishes us with the following arrests for the month of March:

Affray 10; assault and battery 3; assault with deadly weapon 2; carrying concealed weapon 1; disorderly conduct 13; drunk on street 13; drunk and down 3; drunk and disorderly 5; drunk in market 1; drunk and disturbing religious meeting 1; fast driving 1; larceny 1; trespass 1; violating city ordinance 9; violating sanitary ordinance 7. Total 71.

Festival and Fair.

The entertainment to be given by the Capital Hose Company commencing Monday, April 7th, is deserving of patronage by our citizens. The ladies have added their influence in a practical way to the occasion, which, of course, will render it all the more enjoyable. Many new features will be given such as Tableaux, Pantomines, Instrumental and Vocal Music etc. Our noble firemen deserve all the patronage our people can give them, and everybody should turn out and help them on.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mrs Jos A Haywood, were held at Christ Church this morning, at 11 o'clock, and were conducted by the rector, Rev Dr M M Marshall, assisted by Rev Bennett Smedes. A large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends were in attendance. The funeral offerings were very appropriate and beautiful. The interment took place in the old city cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Dr Jas McKee, Ed B Englehard, J Rowan Rogers, Alf Haywood, Edgar Haywood, John T Pullen, Armistead Jones, C B Root, Judge McRae and Dr Hubert Haywood.

Personal Mention.

The many friends of Rev Dr John S Watkins, will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his recent sickness.

Mrs A J Ellis, is visiting friends and relatives at Apex.

Mr C J Betts, who was slightly injured by an accidental pistol shot a few days since, has so far recovered as to be at the Chronicle office.

We learn that Mr James I McRee, who for some time had editorial charge of the News and Observer, in this city, has accepted a position on the staff of the Richmond, Va, Dispatch and left today to assume his new duties. Mr McRee is a newspaper man of ability, which added to his urbanity in all the transactions of life render him a most valuable acquisition. We wish him unbounded success.

Elijah Shaw, of Wales, Mass, is in the city.

Mrs J H Gill and sister, Miss Joe Mercer, of Leeds, England, have arrived in this city from Hot Springs, Ark, where Mrs Gill has been under medical treatment for the last five months. Mrs Gill's many friends will be glad to hear that she is much improved. Miss Mercer will remain in the city for some time before returning to England.

Dr Richard Noble and wife of Selma are in the city visiting the family of Hon John C Scarborough. Mrs Noble is sister of Mrs Scarborough.

Our Boys and Young Men.

The parental roof is the place for a boy after nightfall and not on the streets listening to vulgar and indecent talk, smoking cigarettes, chewing tobacco, etc. We are unable to understand how it is that the parents of certain boys we see on the streets at night, should allow them such liberty.

Our young men need to have provision made for them, so that they have some place to go to spend their evenings. Many of them are away from home. All day in the office, workshop or store, when night comes they want some recreation. The Young Men's Christian Association in its later organization attempts to meet the wants of the young men at this point, and therefore in every well regulated association you will find the reading room and library, the gymnasium, the social room for various innocent games, the music room, the educational department, etc, etc. The value of such a place to the good of a community in the proper cultivation and training of its citizens cannot be estimated.

That Raleigh needs this work for her young men, is not saying that ours are more vicious than others, but that we have scores and hundreds of them here. They are away from the restraints of home many of them, and without some effort to aid them in following in the right way there is the greatest danger that they may go wrong.

We owe it to the young men, we owe it to ourselves to organize and equip a Young Men's Christian Association in the most approved form. The subject deserves the consideration of our merchants and business men generally as well as parents.

Was it a Swap?

Two young men of our city went out to Garner last Sunday to attend the union meeting—they say. Others think they went to see the girls. They were driving a very fine horse. On their return to the city they became so frightened at their horse that they stopped and took him out and borrowed a mule—not in very fine condition—to get back to the city.—Friends who saw them say they did not look as bright and cheerful as they should. Young gentlemen, have you swapped back that fine horse for the ten dollar mule? We wish you better luck next time.

BROOKSIDE PARK.

A Suggestion to the Street Car Company.

Brookside Park is really a delightful place during spring and summer. It might be made even more so and at the same time profitable to our street car lines. As one of the ways we suggest that the grass be kept closely mowed and the whole park raked clear and smooth, that a few more seats be placed in it, and then special days be designated as social days, say twice each week, and Saturday afternoon from three to seven o'clock be made specially attractive. For three days Brookside Park tickets might be issued for five cents for a round trip. Occasionally a band of music for the Saturday afternoon would help the matter along.

Families will find it to be a good idea occasionally to spend at least a part of the day out there, that all may get a little fresh airing.
