The Daily Evening Visitor

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.

Rebecca Rogers—Notice.
T W Blake—Silversmith.
T R Purnell—Mortgage Sale.

In and Around the City.

Rev T S Clyde, of Columbia, S C, will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning.

The rolling stock on the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad is being repaired, and put in proper order for the anticipated heavy travel the coming summer.

A latch key has been found near the capitol and left at this office for identification. The owner can get it by calling and paying for this notice.

The 12th of May has been fixed upon for another trial of the horse race contest, which was held here last August, and the result of which has never been decided.

Mrs J K Barney, the distinguished lady at the head of the Prison Reform Department of W C T U will deliver an address at the Union Mission on tomorrow, Saturday, night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The scheme of a Land and Improvement Company to develop the tobacco interest of this county seems to have met with very general approval, and at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce steps looking to the organization of such a company will be expected. We do trust such action may be taken as will benefit our people in this regard. The Visitor cordially endorses the scheme and believes that prompt and decided action will be had at once.

Let The Ball Roll On.

The proposition to organize a Land and Improvement Company is the best thing in the way of promoting our rapidly growing industries. The members of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry should turn out in a body at their next meeting and take the matter at once in hand. A company can be easily organized with sufficient capital, and the suggestion to put the stock at $1 per share is a good one. This will enable many more of our citizens to take stock. Let the ball roll on.

The phonograph which will be exhibited at the fair given by the ladies to the Capital Hose Company has arrived in the city and will be on exhibition every evening during the fair. All those who have never seen or heard this wonderful machine would do well to call and examine same. There has also been received a full supply of musical phonograms. Mr Guy L Bunch, resident manager of the Old Dominion Phonograph Company has kindly offered the use of the phonograph also his services to exhibit same. Let everybody come and have a good time and at the same time help the boys.

Renovating.

Mr W W Parish is engaged in painting the outside of Messrs Williams & Haywood's drug store corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, and is, as usual making a first class job of it. The front on Fayetteville street is to be imitation brown stone, and the Hargett street side will be painted red and striped off. Mr Parish is one of the best painters in the State. Mr Williams informs us that he will soon have the interior of his store painted, white washed and otherwise renovated.

Emin Pasha has finally accepted the proposals made to him by Major Wissmann and has entered the German service. He will receive a salary of £1,000 a year. His decision meets with a strong disfavor in Zanzibar.

Weather Report.

For Raleigh—fair weather, followed by rain, higher temperature.

DIED.

In Granville county, March 26th, at the residence of his parents, Ray Pearson, son of C Y and Sallie Mangum, aged one year and twenty days. The interment took place at the family burial ground on the 28th, ult.

Accident.

Yesterday, while out driving in a carriage, Mr L D Womble was thrown to the ground and painfully though not seriously hurt. The accident occurred at the corner of Cabarrus and Bloodworth streets. Mr Womble received proper medical attention and was doing well at last accounts.

Personal Mention.

Miss Julia Dewey has gone to Philadelphia to visit friends.

J B Atwater, Esq., of the J M Odell Manufacturing Company, Bynum's, Chatham county, is in the city. Mr Atwater says his company is doing a good business, running on full time, and have not lost a day in twelve months.

Tea Party.

The tea party and sociable, given by the young ladies of the Tabernacle church in their Sunday school room last night, was a most enjoyable occasion in all respects, and the receipts were very satisfactory, the sum of thirty five or forty dollars being realized as the net proceeds. All present seemed to enter heartily into the enjoyment afforded and a more pleasant social reunion is rarely seen in our city.

New Advertisements

Attention is directed to the notice of Rebecca Rogers, administratrix.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr T W Blake, who is engaged in the jeweler and silversmith business at 117 Fayetteville street. Mr Blake is an accomplished workman in all that pertains to his line of business, and all who give him their patronage can rely upon promptness and fairness in all his dealings. We know Mr Blake to be a clever gentleman, and we know that his prices will, in all respects, be acceptable to the public.

See notice of mortgage sale by T R Purnell, trustee.

Don't forget to call at the Raleigh shoe store for bargains. Remember the place—No 7 East Hargett street. See advertisement.

Removal.

The cause of the town of Durham vs the N C Railroad, and the R and D Railroad companies was held in Durham last Wednesday before Judge Armfield, who had it removed to Chatham county for trial. The following is the order of court: "This cause coming on to be heard upon motion of the defendant, the R & D, for leave to file answer. It was ordered that defendant, the R & D, is allowed to file answer upon payment of costs of this action for this term, and the clerk's office will recover of the plaintiffs and defendants the cost incurred by each party in his own behalf, prior to this term to be taxed in bill of cost and file judgment."

Trinity College.

The Durham Sun is authority for the announcement that the building committee of Trinity College has elected Mr W Duke, chairman, R E Lyon, secretary, and B N Duke, treasurer. It was determined to erect a $50,000 building, including water and lighting apparatus. President Crowell was sent North to get plans, examine buildings etc. A committee consisting of Messrs J S Carr, J M Odell and E J Parrish was appointed to ascertain what they could get brown stone, granite, brick and other building material delivered on the college grounds for. The committee meets again on the 18th inst.

Expressions of Sympathy.

We have been requested by Wesley Whitaker, Esq., to tender, on behalf of himself and family, their heartfelt thanks for the numerous letters of sympathy that have reached them from various sections of the State and for expressions of condolence on the part of several of the newspapers, copies of which have been forwarded to him. Among the letters are many from prominent gentlemen, some of whom occupy high official station. The feeling thus exhibited evidently shows the tendency of public sentiment and must be a source of much consolation to Mr Whitaker and his loved ones. It can be added, that several of the letters received, are expressive of indignation at the result of the recent trial.

Report of Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

We called at the office of the commissioner of labor statistics this morning and on enquiry found that the report of the commissioner is now in the hands of the printer.

The report will contain some interesting statistics on the condition of agriculture and agricultural laborers, reports from supervisors of public roads throughout the State, on condition of the roads and methods for working the same, reports on the same subject by many of the practicing physicians in the State and their views as to the methods of working the roads, reports of these physicians as to the condition educationally, morally, financially, and socially of the laboring men and women and their families, in which they practice. Also the reports and views of mechanics and other laborers in the State as to their prosperity, their educational and moral condition, the ills which beset them, and the remedies to be applied. Altogether the report is a very important one, is filled with valuable information, which will be read with great interest by all classes of people of our State. It is a well known fact that whatever Commissioner Scarborough undertakes is always done faithfully and well. This report fully sustains the reputation already made—that, he is one of the most efficient and faithful of officers.

Fashion Notes.

Ball gown sleeves are as varied as ever, but the sleeveless ball gown is a thing of the past.

Among the new tartans come also stripes in tartan colorings, and these are called Scotch stripes.

The favorite colors for little girls' "coats," when they are not of tartans are green, drab and fawn.

Broche silks, woolens, zephyrs, and gingham come in novel shades of color and bold combinations.

The visiting head gear for married women is the small capote and the toque, with strings or without.

Bishop sleeves of velet are seen on cloth wraps. Leg of mutton sleeves in velvet are the style for gowns.

Shepherds' checks of one color, with lines of black, white or red, come in soft twilled woolen for childrens dresses.

Pompadour ribbons of various widths are stitched on evening dresses in rows from the neck to the hem of the toilet.

A statement prepared at the Treasury Department shows that during the month of March there was a net increase of $11,389,681 in the total circulation and a net increase of $2,635,237 in the money and bullion in the Treasury.

The Supreme Court of Illinois decided that the Young Men's Christian Association is not wholly a religious body, but is largely a charitable and benevolent organization, and that therefore the law restricting the amount of property to be held by religious corporations did not apply to it.

Did They Go? Were They Appreciated?

Did untrimmed hats and other millinery goods go yesterday? We would modestly say they did to our heart's content. We were convinced yesterday that Raleigh people did really appreciate a good thing; that they grasped an opportunity. If we knew nothing of Annanias and Saphira we would say that we sold more untrimmed hats, more flowers and wreaths, more plumes, more ribbons, more millinery goods of all kinds than most of the milliners in Raleigh keep in stock. We will venture to say this regardless of the fate of Annanias and Saphira, that if all the ladies in Raleigh really knew the true condition of our millinery department, how the goods are bought, and the quantities of goods we keep, the style, quality and quantity, and price of ribbons we keep, that all other milliners in Raleigh would be closed up before the 4th day of July, and will admit that Mrs Sarah King is the finest and most tasty trimmer in Raleigh. All must admit we would not get such a trimmer unless we kept the stock for her to work on. Now we say we can produce as fine a hat, as stylish a hat as can be had in the United States and for much less money than you would expect. Besides all this, we can also furnish a dress to match any hat you may want; that we have secured the services of Mr Hinton, who was dress goods man at Norris & Carter's; that we defy any to show a nicer selection of dress goods than the Big Racket Store, and on all these things which you need you can save money by getting them at the

BIG RACKET STORE.

A Hen.

Mrs J Riley Davidson has a hen, just a plain ordinary hen, who has anticipated Easter by laying colored eggs. Yesterday, six of eight eggs were taken from the nest, of a light brownish tint, with large dark brown blotches and spots on them.—Charlotte Chronicle

A Daisy.

Carthage Blade. The Raleigh DAILY EVENING VISITOR came out in a new dress last Wednesday. It is not only prettier to look at, but the improvement in its general make up and news service is marked. It is a little daisy.

The Stock Exchange, London, will be closed Friday, Saturday and Monday.
