In and Around the City.

The season of flowers.
All nature looks pretty.
Gardens will boom now sure.
A perfect stream of people visit Pullen Park these fine afternoons It is a delightful resort.

The oldest son of J T Broughton, Esq. of Garner, is very sick with pneumonia.

Col J D Whitford, of Newbern, was in the city today looking as young as he did ten years ago.

Mr A Dughi has contributed two monkeys to the Capital Hose Company's fair, and they will be on hand tonight.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Beverly & Horton, who announce as a specialty their brand of flour called "Floating Pearl." Call and examine it.

The Governor today commuted the sentence of Jesse Brown from Craven county, who was sentenced to be hung next Friday, to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

Squire Rogers, colored, died last night. He was about one hundred years old; was the yard servant of the late Hon Sion H Rogers; was a faithful servant; he was well known by the older citizens of Raleigh.

April 9th has been fixed upon as the time for the chamber of commerce banquet, at the Yarboro House in this city, and arrangements are now in progress to make it a grand event.

Circulars have been received by some of our people from New York, in which offers are made to sell counterfeited money. We warn our people to beware of all such schemes. There may be trouble in it.

The Goldsboro Daily Argus of yesterday celebrated its fifth anniversary in splendid style. It is a special edition and full of the most interesting matter relative to Goldsboro and the surrounding country.

The J E F F Quartette will render the music at Union Mission Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. This quartette consists of four of our best Raleigh voices. At this service it is hoped to reorganize the Y M C A. The music will be a treat of itself. Let the hall be filled with men.

The Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, is being put in splendid order for the coming season and will be conducted by Foster Bros, in a style heretofore unsurpassed. Now let our people patronize their home resorts. Keep all the money we can in North Carolina. We need it.

The first number of the Reidsville Daily Review appeared on Saturday last, a six column paper, presenting a neat and attractive appearance. It will appear every evening except Sunday. The VISITOR hopes that it may be well cared for and a plenty of subscribers.

Miss Winnie Davis, the daughter of the Confederacy, will soon be married to Mr Alfred Wilkinson of Syracuse, New York. Let the last daughter of the Confederate chieftain join with a son of the North to form a link between the once dis united States. Miss Davis is a lady of very remarkable intelligence and will be an ornament to the most imperial homes. In a union of interests THE VISITOR wishes all the people of the nation could take a part.

Weather Report.

For Raleigh fair weather, stationary temperature.

General Lewis A Grant, of Vermont, has been appointed assistant secretary of war

Chamber of Commerce.

An interesting meeting of the Chamber was held last night in the Mayor's office, at which the subject of a Land and Improvement Company was widely discussed. The meeting was addressed by Messrs Furnell, Peel, Ashe and others, and the matter was finally referred to a joint committee.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mrs J D Royster, took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the First Baptist church, and was largely attended by relatives, friends and citizens generally. The remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pallbearers: Messrs Mike Allen, William Simpson, Dr James McKee, T H Briggs, J T Parham and E J Hardin.

Parasols.

The parasols this season are exquisite beyond description, and we exhibit the most attractive stock of fancy and staple styles for street and carriage use. Our stock consists of as many high-class novelties as we can obtain, including the latest Parisian effects; also plain and fancy coachings. It is impossible for taste to go astray in selecting from such a well assorted stock.

W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

Fine Shad.

Our enterprising friend, D T Johnson, Esq., informs us that he will offer for sale tomorrow, a big lot of fine Virginia shad. For several seasons past, he at times has had bargains to offer in shad, as many of us well remember, but now it seems that he intends to place the chief of all fish within the reach of all and will sell buck shad at 15 to 20 cents each, and roe shad at 30 to 35 cents each. We all can enjoy baked shad for dinner tomorrow or a good fry for supper or breakfast. These fish will be on sale early tomorrow morning at his fish stall in city market, and orders sent to him will have prompt attention.

A Pleasant Occasion.

On Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock, a party of sixteen bright and happy young ladies left the city for the penitentiary woods to enjoy an Easter picnic. The dinner was simply splendid, every good thing to tempt the appetite; all enjoyed it so much. After dinner they had recitations and songs, rendered in the best style. It was a day long to be remembered so bright and happy to us all. May we live to enjoy many such occasions. F. C.

The Locating Committee.

The committee to locate the Baptist Female College, are busy today looking at the different sites that have been recommended to them. At this time, we cannot even conjecture where or which place they will decide upon, but of course it will be somewhere, either in or near the city.

The committee is certainly a good looking set of gentlemen, and from the way they were looking this morning they intend to look well. We hope to be able tomorrow to give our readers the decision of the committee as to the site selected.

MARRIED.

WARD-GALES—At the residence of the brides' mother on Hillsboro road, just beyond St Mary's School this morning at 11 o'clock, Capt Dallas T Ward, who for several years was the accommodating conductor on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, led to the hymenial altar, Miss Jean Gales, daughter of the late Seaton Gales, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev Dr Mashall, rector of Christ Church, and the bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr T T Hay. At the conclusion of the ceremony the contracting parties left on the 11:45 train for a northern trip, followed by the best wishes of a large number of friends, in which the VISITOR most heartily joins.

Heart-Rending Suicide.

A most distressing suicide took place at Horner's school in Oxford yesterday. We give the following particulars so far as we have been able to gather them:

About 11 o'clock in the morning Cadet David W. Cowles, son of Hon. W. H. H. Coles, shot and killed himself with a thirty-two calibre Smith and Wesson pistol. Being officer of the day, he had called the roll as usual, and was at recitation the first hour. About 11 o'clock Capt. Drewry went into his room and found the young man lying across the bed, dead; the pistol was between his legs. There is some diversity of opinion as to whether the sad event was accidental or the result of design. Young Cowles had been in somewhat bad health for some time and subject to attacks of melancholia. He was only eighteen years of age and very popular with his associates. A committee left yesterday afternoon for Wilkesboro, the home of his parents, with the remains.

The VISITOR extends its heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved family in their sad affliction.

LATER.

Dr. Marsh, of Oxford, is in the city to-day. Speaking of the sad affair, he says that it was no doubt a case of suicide, but it could not well be accounted for. Mr. Cowles was a most exemplary young man, and had been chosen debater for the coming commencement. A short time since he made a visit to his parents in Washington City, and on his return seemed in fine spirits.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

A very important meeting of the Executive Committee of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, took place yesterday at the Experiment Station. The following were present: W. S. Primrose, chairman; Col. W. F. Green and N. B. Broughton, Esq.

The election of an agriculturist for the station was postponed until a called meeting on the 1st of May. This meeting will also decide upon plans for the mechanical department of the college. The plans prepared by Prof. Kinealy, will be adopted. The proposition is to erect a building costing $7,500, which will be two stories with dimensions 84x33 feet, and including a wing 37x35 feet. The work will be commenced at the earliest practicable time and will be completed by the coming fall. The contract will be let at the May meeting.

It has been thought best to change the time of commencement of the college from the 25th to the 18th of June, and the proposition will probably be adopted.

It has been decided that all the books belonging to the State Geological department should be turned over to the college, and also a portion of the library of the State chemist.

At noon yesterday, the committee were handsomely entertained at the College by a dinner, gotten up by Mr Hubbard, the Steward, in his best style, and he knows just how to fix up for the inner man. It goes without saying that it was highly enjoyed.

Don't Fail

To see the opening of millinery at Swindell's next Friday. We want you to see what we are really doing in millinery and dress goods. We can undoubtedly sell these two lines of goods much cheaper than anybody else in Raleigh and give nothing but the correct styles; also in clothing it is as much to your interest to see our stock as it is to our interest to have you see them. If you are going to buy a suit for yourself or for your boy; because you can buy them at Swindell's much cheaper than you can anywhere else. The business at Swindell's Racket Store has not grown in popular favor so rapidly without a cause. Why are we doing more business than any other store in Raleigh? Any who comes to our store and takes the trouble to investigate, can readily see that we sell most all lines of goods much cheaper than does anyone else. We say this openly and are not afraid of anyone proving the contrary. Come to Swindell's Racket Store and you will be treated politely and save money.

Hal. Bobbitt's Say About H. W. Grady, especially relates to

Tip-top Cigar, which bears the name of the man who was foremost in the hearts of the American people. The Henry W Grady cigar is made from the finest grade tobacco, nicely made, a free smoker, pleasant aroma, and cannot be surpassed for a nickel anywhere. They are attractively put up in boxes which show his picture, and the scene of the banquet where he made his last but memorable speech.

Reunion Old Soldiers, Atlanta, Georgia.

Highway Robbery.

Correspondence of the VISITOR.

WAKE FOREST, April 8, '90.
Last night, as Mr W Oscar Riddick, a student was returning from the Falls of Neuse, he was suddenly attacked by a body of six or eight masked men who demanded his money and jewelry. The former supply was very limited, and by great presence of mind he loosed his watch and dropped it in the bottom of the buggy, where it escaped the notice of the bold robbers.

Every one is very much stirred up, as this is the first outrage of this kind ever perpetrated in this quiet and peaceful neighborhood.

The robbery was committed about three miles from here, near Major Crenshaw's residence, and the boldness and daring of the deed added much to the sensation.
