The Daily Evening Visitor.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.

David Rosenthal—Clothing Sale.
WH & R S Tucker & Co.—Dress Goods.

In and Around the City.

Beautiful weather.

Splendid time for picnics.

Excursions will soon be in fashion again.

Hurry up with the new depot. We want it by next fall.

Meat and all bread stuffs have very materially advanced in prices.

Read the advertisement of David Rosenthal who is offering some of the best bargains ever seen in this city.

A large crowd of Durhamites were in the city yesterday. They all looked smiling and happy.

The new Yale lock boxes now being put in the postoffice are handsome and a decided improvement.

Rev O L Stringfield will preach at the Third Baptist Church tomorrow night.

It is again whispered that the street car line is to be extended to Pullen Park. What a delightful consummation that would be to pleasure seekers the coming summer. It would pay, too, and no mistake.

The Central Baptist Sunday School Association is now in session at Perry's Chapel Church, Franklin county. It commenced yesterday embracing three days—Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Twenty five years ago, tomorrow, (April 13th, 1865), Gen Sherman's army entered Raleigh. What a contrast between then and now. Then all turmoil and trouble—now peace and happiness. We should be thankful.

Personal Mention.

Capt Henry Smith, of Greensboro, the well known railroad engineer, was in the city yesterday.

We are glad to announce that Rev John S Watkins has recovered from his sickness, and will preach morning and night at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

Mr J H Mills, Superintendent of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Alma Wynne has just returned from Warrenton where she spent a most agreeable time with friends.

Professors J B Carlisle and G W Manly, of Wake Forest College, were in the city today.

Rev W S Royal, passed through the city today, and will preach at Pitsboro tomorrow.

R B Richardson, Esq, of Marke Creek township, where he has large interests was in the city today. He reports that farmers are well advanced, many are ready to commence planting cotton—corn coming up; present prospects are bright for the crop of 1890.

Southern Baptist Convention.

There will be an unusually large crowd of delegates and visitors from North Carolina in attendance on the Southern Baptist Convention which meets at Fort Worth, Texas, May 9th to 13th. The rates over the railroads will be the cheapest ever offered.

Round trip tickets from Raleigh, good for thirty days with stop over privileges only $36 30. Rev C Durham has charge of arrangements and any information for visitors will be given by him. He already has the names of more than fifty. There will be a special Baptist train, by the way of Atlanta, Birmingham, Shreveport and Dallas to Fort Worth, leaving Raleigh Monday, May 5th at 4:45 p. m.

Weather Report.

For Raleigh—fair weather, warmer.

For Sunday.

As usual WH & R S Tucker & Co, will make this evening a special display of gentlemen's neckwear and furnishing goods, which, in a word, is the most complete assortment of new and beautiful things in the city. Attention is directed also to their extensive exhibit of new and fashionable shapes in gentlemen's hats, all of which are new and latest styles.

The City Postoffice.

Postmaster Shaffer is engaged today in putting in three divisions of the latest style of new Yale Lock Boxes—231 in all. They are 5x6x12 inches with open, bronze bottoms, and bronze and plate glass fronts. They are the finest boxes made and are very beautiful.

There is also a new General Delivery window of the latest pattern, and new Drop Letter and Paper openings with bronze fronts. The General Delivery window will be moved one division nearer the main entrance doors, and the Drop Letters and Paper openings are to be removed from the South end of the screen to the division next adjoining the new General Delivery window—by which the mail is concentrated for convenience of both the officials and patrons of the office.

The entire walls and ceilings of the first, or Postoffice story, have been recently painted in four colors, some new furniture added, and the office throughout is conducted with a system and method which promises everything that could be desired. Upon the whole, we think our postoffice is in good hands, and we congratulate ourselves accordingly.

A Grand Occasion.

We have received from P W Mc Kenney, President of the Lee Monument Association, an invitation to attend the exercises of unveiling the statue of Gen R E Lee at Richmond, Va, May 29th, 1890. All Confederate veterans, whether individually or organized are cordially invited to attend, and any information will be given by addressing Capt Thomas Ellett, Secretary, No 28, North 9th Street, Richmond, Va.

Every arrangement has been made to make this one of the grandest successes that has ever taken place in the South on a similar occasion. The different railroad lines to Richmond will probably agree on rates of about one cent for each mile, to all visiting organizations and individuals. Definite information will be given as soon as possible. As heretofore stated, shelter and meals will be furnished all visiting organizations at the most reasonable rates. It is requested that camps or organizations owning tents and camp equipage, desiring to form an encampment, will give notice, that the necessary space may be provided and arrangements made. Such organizations as desire to attend, should give notice as early as possible and not later than May 15th. Give date and hour of arrival in Richmond and number of men and officers for whom quarters will be required.

Wilmington Star: Clarendon and Stonewall Lodges, Knights of Pythias, have tendered the use of their hall for the meeting of the Grand Lodge I O O F, of the State, to be held here in May next. This courtesy will no doubt be accepted, as the hall is large and well adapted to the purpose.

Rockingham Rocket: J S Goldston has made arrangements to run the railroad eating house and hotel at Hamlet, and will move his family there and take charge in a few days. He will continue his mercantile business here under the management of his son Eli.

Specimens Desired.

The Southern Bell Telephone Company, is represented in this city by G H Glass, Esq. They have requested Mr Glass to procure and forward to headquarters specimens of all our different kinds of wood in this section of the State. This he will do at once and we hope our people will aid him all in their power, believing it will be of benefit to us all in the near future.

DIED.

Mrs Ida Rosenthal, yesterday at 4 p. m, died of the effects of la grippe, in her 55th year. She was the faithful and devoted wife of Jacob Rosenthal, from an early marriage up to the time of his death, about ten years ago. They were formerly citizens of Washington, N C, but natives of Germany. She leaves six children living a few relatives in this country, and a very large circle of friends who painfully feel the loss of a mother, a relative and a large hearted friend. Mrs Lena Heller and Mrs Bella Loeb, of Harrisonburg, Va, arrived in the city this morning. They had been notified of the sickness of their mother, and had started, and while on their way received the sad news of her death. Mrs Bertha Ottinger, of Kinston, N C, will not be able to attend the remains of the deceased, as she is quite sick. "Willie" her only son, and the pride of the mother's heart reached her side about two hours before her death. She had spoken of him often in her sinking hours, and when he came, she recognized him, and offered a dying mother's kiss, with a mother's blessing. Misses Annie and Ella were with their mother during her sickness and attended to her wants as only loving daughters can do. Their experience has been a trying one and they have borne it well. Now the hearts of her children are overcome with grief. They are now orphans, and may He whose hand upheld the widowed mother in her afflictions and loss, now fill the vacancy in the hearts of the bereft children and sustain them in this dark hour, and the greatest trial of their lives.

A gentleman of this city whose acquaintance with her began many years ago, while both were citizens of Washington, N C, said among other things to this writer, "I have known Mrs Rosenthal long and well; I knew her in palmy days of prosperity, when she stood by the side of a loved and loving husband. She was all the world to him, and he to her was nothing less. Her home was the centre of a moral influence which was at once felt and never forgotten by any who came within the area of its power. In a word, she was a loving wife, a tender mother, and a faithful friend. She has always been my friend and I join her children in their sorrow, and feel that I am a sharer in their loss." Her remains will be taken to Goldsboro on the 1 p m train tomorrow where they will be interred by the side of her deceased husband.

We extend our deepest sympathy in this sad affliction, to the family.

If You Buy Dress Goods

To any extent you cannot ignore the importance of prices. You cannot afford to buy these things without first looking at the stock at Swindell's. Neither would you think of buying before looking at their stock if you knew or had the faintest idea of the kind of stock kept at Swindell's, and the prices as compared with other stores in same line. We don't hesitate to tell you that you can save money by buying these goods at Swindell's, and in men's and boy's clothing it is still more important that you first see Swindell's stock. Kid Gloves, Vandike Kniving, Vandike Laces, Hosiery, Shoes, Handkerchiefs, White Goods, Carpets, Straw Matting; on all these things you can save money at SWINDELL'S.

Rice planters in the South are accustomed to burn their rice straw to get it out of the way. It is understood that recent practical tests have demonstrated that this straw makes excellent paper material. One paper company has gone so far as to order 3,000 or 4,000 tons of the straw to further the experiment. Rice straw may yet prove to be a cotton seed in miniature. At any rate, the results of these experiments will be watched with interest.

Messrs Sumner & Watts, the enterprising barbers, earnestly solicit the patronage of the public. Their new shop, 230 Fayetteville street, opposite the city market, is fixed up in a style unsurpassed by any establishment of the kind in the State. Those wishing a good shave, or hair dressing can be served with the utmost satisfaction. They have the latest invention in the way of patent adjusting chairs, rendering it a most enjoyable comfort in the way of the tonsorial art. We speak from experience in the matter having been beneficiaries of the comforts dispensed at their establishment. These chairs are unsurpassed for convenience and cannot be equaled in this city. Give Messrs Sumner & Watts a call and take our word for it they will please you. You will leave their shop contented with yourself and the "rest of mankind."
