Phalanx Lodge, No 34, Knights of Pythias meets tonight at 8 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited to attend.

The Governors Guard fair and concert is the next big sensation. It commences on the 29th inst and continues three nights.

They are taking large quantities of pan fish out at Milburnie. Parties from the city have much enjoyment going out catching the fish and eating them upon the grounds.

Owing to a pressure of business incident to the meeting of several important boards, Governor Fowle was unable to attend the celebration at Wilmington.

On Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6:30 o'clock a "Donkey Party" will be open at the residence of Mrs T C Harris on Saunders street. A lively time with nice refreshments may be expected. Object organ fund. No charge for admission.

A Sad Summons.

R H Bradley, Esq, the efficient and worthy Marshal and Librarian of the Supreme Court received a telegram this morning, announcing the death of his father, Elias Bradley, which took place yesterday evening in Edgecombe county. He was eighty years and seven days old at the time of his death. Mr R H Bradley leaves this evening for his old home in Edgecombe county to attend the funeral.

The VISITOR extends sympathies to all sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of the deceased, in Edgecombe county, ten miles from Tarboro.

Prompt Action.

The case of the negro charged with stealing clothing, etc, four miles from Durham, was placed in the hands of Sergeant John D Thompson of the police force in this city, to work up, and upon information received officers Woodall and Bashford arrested Will Wright who claimed to be from Richmond, Va, and confessed to the theft. Sergeant Thompson sent officer Woodall to the house of Wright's wife, out at Col Turk's place. The officer was accompanied by Wright, and the stolen clothing and part of the jewelry were found. Sergeant Thompson then obtained information upon which he found the watch and chain. The watch had been traded to Mr Hartsfield of this city and the watch chain had been traded to Mr Dan Harris. All the goods were secured except one cuff button and black hat. These goods belonged to W A Dawson, Esq, and Frank Gunler, (colored).

We cannot too highly commend the perseverance and energy of Sergeant Thompson, and officers Bashford and Woodall, in this case. They have shown themselves to be most faithful in the line of their duty for which they deserve and will receive the special thanks of our people. "Well done, good and faithful servants."

French bread, cakes and pies every day at E V Denton's.

Supreme Court.

Argument of cases from the 11th district was continued this morning: Marsh vs Richardson, from Union; J J Vann for plaintiff, D A Covington for defendant.

Hodges vs Hodges, from Mecklenburg; C W Tillett for plaintiff, P D Walker for defendant.

Pullen Park.

We have been informed that last Sunday while some ladies were out at Pullen Park seated near the spring, some men near by were engaged in conversation, and their language was so obscene and vulgar that they were compelled to leave the place to avoid hearing it. Would it not be well for the city to furnish an officer at least on the Sabbath to look after the park.

Official Permission.

The Adjutant General of North Carolina has issued general orders to the following effect:

"Permission is hereby granted to all regularly organized troops of other States to enter and pass through, with the privilege of halting at pleasure in the State of North Carolina, armed and equipped, en route to and returning from the ceremonies connected with the dedication of the monument to General Robert E Lee, at Richmond, Va, on the 29th day of May, 1890."

The Bowser Vaudeville Comedy Company which is to appear here on the night of the 21st inst, is spoken of by the Reidsville Review in the following terms: The Bowser Comedy Company played to a full house at Ellington's Opera House last night. It is seldom that the people of Reidsville have such a rare treat. The show was in every respect up to the high standard. Charles Bowser, the comedian, deserves special mention, also the ballet dancing.

We call attention to the large auction sale to take place tomorrow at twelve o'clock by Messrs Yancey & Stronach.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the "Bee Hive" store where a great variety of articles of almost every description used in house-keeping can be found. Read what the "ad" says and then call and examine the stock.

Special License Taxes.

An important meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night, the main object being to consider the resolution recently introduced by Alderman Holding relative to the reduction of certain special license taxes. The matter was fully discussed, and finally the resolution was adopted.

The following are taxes repealed. Upon the proprietors of each hotel with a capacity for fifty or more guests twenty five dollars, and upon the proprietors of other hotels, twelve and one half dollars each.

Upon the proprietors of each restaurant or eating house, twelve dollars and fifty cents.

Upon every auctioneer or crier of goods at public auction, a license tax of twenty five dollars a year.

Upon every stock and bond broker, sewing machine company or agent for such company, dealer in or manufacturer's agent of musical instruments, keeper of sales stables or stock yards, doing business in the city, a license tax of twenty five dollars a year.

Upon every lawyer, physician, dentist, cotton broker, bill poster, street huckster, photographer, merchandise or produce broker, ice dealer, dealer in wood and coal, or either insurance company or insurance agency for every company represented, a license tax of ten dollars a year. The license on junk dealers and pawn brokers was reduced from twenty five to ten dollars.

We sincerely hope that the proposition to reorganize the Young Men's Christian Association will not be allowed to lag for want of proper encouragement. It should be borne in mind that Raleigh is much behind some other towns in the State in this most important matter, and it is nothing to our credit as a moral community that it should be so. On Sunday, the 27th inst, Governor Fowle has consented to deliver an address to the young men of the city on the subject, and we hope that this will prove an incentive to such exertion as will ensure success. The fact is, Raleigh should not only have a well organized Young Men's Christian Association, but we hope the day is not far distant when it can boast of a suitable building for the purpose with a good library and other inducements as a resort for all young men disposed to follow in the paths of morality. Let our people take hold of this matter in earnest, and success is certain.

A Kind Act.

Mr D L Shively, who for several years has been a citizen of our city, and who enjoys the fullest confidence of all our people left yesterday for Philadelphia where he is to undergo treatment in consequence of a nervous trouble from which he has suffered very great inconvenience for the last few months. Most of our readers know that he was severely wounded during the war between the States. At that time he was under the immediate care of Dr S Weir Mitchel who was the Surgeon of the regiment in which Mr Shively served but who now it seems is in charge of a hospital in Philadelphia. A short time ago Dr Mitchel issued a circular of inquiry having special reference to those severely wounded soldiers under his treatment at the time above referred to. Upon receiving information relative to Mr Shively, he immediately invited him to enter his infirmary and be treated till recovery, without money and without price. Such kindness is to be commended and we but voice the sentiment of our citizens when we express our appreciation of this favor shown to one of our fellow citizens. We trust our good friend will soon be well again and returned to us more thoroughly equipped for continued usefulness.

Fairview Farm.

We are in receipt of a most elegantly gotten up descriptive catalogue of highly bred stock owned by Mr R P Williamson, of this city and kept on his splendid Fairview Farm about two miles northwest of the State Capitol. This is the first instance within our knowledge in which such a catalogue has been issued in this vicinity and the list of "thorough breeds" owned by Mr Williamson will be perused with great zeal by all who take an interest in fine stock. The accommodating proprietor is anxious to have the public visit his farm and see for themselves the wonderful improvements in stock that have been added of late years comprising offspring of some of the most celebrated horses in the country. Not only does he solicit the attendance of visitors, but with his usual urbanity, he says he will be glad to meet them, on notification at the depot or the hotels and accompany them for the purpose of giving all information desired.

Mr Williamson can be truly said to be the pioneer in introducing blooded horses in this section of North Carolina, and we are pleased to say that his efforts have been crowned with the greatest success. Indeed it has now become proverbial that Wake county has the lead in this respect over all the counties in the State.

Fairview Farm is one of the great attractions in the vicinity of Raleigh, and no stranger should omit the opportunity of visiting it. It will certainly be a source of pleasure as well as of information.

Personal Mention.

J G Brown, Esq returned from Baltimore yesterday afternoon.

Col R M Douglas, of Greensboro, is in the city in attendance on the Railroad investigating committee.

Miss W llie E Speight, daughter of Rev J A Speight, associate editor of the Biblical Recorder, left this morning to visit friends in Richmond, Va.

W G Riddick, of Wake Forest College is in the city today.

Rev A D Betts and wife, of Nashville, N C, are in the city, the guests of Rev Alvin Betts, on North Person street.

N B Broughton, Esq, and Rev J A Speight, left this evening to attend the Sunday School Convention of the Eastern Association, which meets today at Clinton North Carolina.

Capt W S Harris, who has been confined to his room for more than a week with sickness, we are glad to say is better and indulges the hope that he will be out again in a few days.

Our Street Crossings.

We are not disposed to be captious but we must think that there is great room for an improvement in the condition of our street crossings. The remedy, it would seem, is a simple one, and why it is not applied is a little hard to understand. The crossings are entirely too low, being in a large majority of cases lower than the streets. They should be raised, and on each side of the crossings should be inclined planes for the protection of the wheels of vehicles. This could be easily done with but comparatively little cost and would be of the greatest advantage to pedestrians in such weather as we have had for the past few days. As it is now, the crossings are almost impassible and is anything but a credit to the city.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

It will pay you handsomely to make your shoe purchases while you can buy them at a saving of from $1 to $2 on all fine goods. Dress goods, silks, velvets, wash goods, laces, embroideries, underwear, etc, at a great advantage to purchasers, at
