In and Around the City.

New moon this morning at 3:06. The weather prophets predict no more cold weather.

Commencement exercises soon be in order.

Politics beginning to loom up already.

Clean up your premises and thus avoid sickness when the heated term sets in.

One shad was caught at Milburnie yesterday. They think they will have a fine run soon.

Napoleon Gibbs, of St Mary's Township, was sent to jail yesterday evening, committed by H E Strudwick, J P, charged with trespass and assault.

If Isham Haywood, Susan Barlow, Nancy Rabon, John L Jones, Wiley Carroll and W John Wilkins will apply at the office of the clerk of the Superior Court they will find something to their advantage.

"A Colonial Officer and His Times," is the title of a book just issued by Messrs Edwards & Broughton. It was written by Col A M Waddell, of Wilmington and embraces a period between 1744 and 1773. We have no doubt it will find an extensive sale.

The Hillsboro road is in a most deplorable condition, so far as mud is concerned. In fact, from the city to the township line it is almost impassible for vehicles. We hope the superintendent of county roads will get at the work of macadamizing it as soon as possible. It is one of the most important thoroughfares leading into the city and should by all means be kept in good order.

Not Muddy.

In an item inserted a short time since, we stated, upon what we considered at the time, correct information, that the water furnished from the city water works was muddy. This, we find from the best authority is not the case. The water, in some instances, has the appearance of being muddy, but this is caused from standing in the pipes. There is no better nor purer water than that furnished by the Water Works Company, and the utmost care is taken to preserve it in all its purity. Mr E B Englehard devotes his whole time and energy to the business, and is careful to see to it, that the least imperfection is corrected. We take pleasure in correcting the wrong impression that for awhile, gained currency.

In relation to flushing the sewerage we are enabled to state on official authority, that the matter has been submitted to arbitration, to the result of which the Water Works Company will most cheerfully submit.

At Half Price.

We have just purchased a lot of manufacturer's samples of beaded wraps at 50c on the dollar, all in perfect order and the newest styles. We therefore offer them to our customers at about half price. A $12.50 wrap for $6 and so on throughout the line. Next week they will be found in our new department of "Bargains and Undervalues."

W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

The Hillsboro Workman learns that the subscriptions for stock in the steel company have footed up to about $300,000 and that when $500,000 have been subscribed the books of subscription will probably be closed until a sale of land is made.

Very Interesting.

Service of song, Bible reading and prayer will be held at the Union Mission tomorrow at 5 o'clock. Come and spend a delightful hour.

Revenue Raid.

Deputy collector, P T Massey, Grinsley, Hall and Jones have just made a raid through Johnston, Harnett and Cumberland counties, the result of which was the capture of two stills and fixtures and the destruction of six or eight hundred gallons of beer. One prisoner was captured for running an illicit distillery—Troy Carroll, of Harnett county.

Roasted "Earth Peas"

This is the proper name for what are usually called ground peas, peanuts, gubers and penders. So says Mr J Fauntleroy Taylor, who is the most competent authority on such matters. He says that any man who calls them anything but "Earth Peas" is wanting in the proper knowledge of all that pertains to the products of the earth. A full supply on hand. Call and get a supply; for sale at 5 cents per quart, at C O Ball's.

Farmers' Alliances.

Yesterday evening we called at the office of Mr E G Beddingfield, Secretary of the North Carolina Farmer's Alliance and found him very busy. He greeted us very kindly, informing us that his office was pressed with work and had been since he had been elected. That, on yesterday he had received eight applications for charters for new sub Alliances. That Alleghany county is now organized, which makes the 94th county, only two remaining—Dare and New Hanover, with two sub Alliances in each of these.

Our Pavements.

In some portions of the city the sidewalks are in such a condition that it is almost impossible to pass without much difficulty. In this connection we are led to make the enquiry as to whether the property owners on the streets outside of the business centre of the city cannot be required to have the sidewalks in front of their residences repaired in a simple and cheap manner to render them passible. Even if a walk of a foot or two in width could be arranged so that ladies and children can walk without inconvenience, it would be a great help. The owners of property on the principal business streets are required to keep up the side walks in front of the buildings owned by them, and there would seem to be no good reason why a similar, course in a less expensive style could not be pursued in streets on which there are mainly private residences. We make the enquiry so that the remedy may be applied, if found consistent and in keeping with propriety.

Personal Mention.

Mr P M Wilson has returned from a business trip to the North.

Col A M McPheeters has returned from Baltimore where he has been for two weeks past in attendance on his wife, who has been ill but is now better.

Dr O H Sexton has returned to the city from Baltimore where he has been in attendance at the Medical College of Maryland. He graduated few days since.

Maj R S Tucker returned yesterday afternoon from Baltimore and New York.

The Rev W M Clark has returned to the city and will officiate at the Church of the Good Shepherd tomorrow morning and night. He will resume his confirmation addresses at night.

Rev J B Bobbitt, D D, will preach at Central Methodist Church tomorrow morning and Rev R H Whitaker in the evening at 8 p m.

Dr G W Manly, Professor of Latin at Wake Forest College, is in the city today.

The Investigating Committee.

The examination of Maj W W Vass, treasurer of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, was resumed at the session of the railroad investigating committee yesterday, and much valuable information relative to that road was elicited, of which the following is a synopsis:

Nothing was expended by the road for the completion of the Gibson branch. Whatever was paid came from the common stock of the company. Amount invested in the Carolina Central was $451,791.03. The premium arising from sale of first mortgage bonds was $35,000. The premium was returned to the road. The bonds sold for current market value. Gross receipts for 1889 were $493,347.83; profits $101,066.53. In 1889 the road paid 6 per cent. Among current expenses is embraced $80,000 interest on mortgage debt. In estimating the $1,106.53 profits, the dividends are deducted. The R & G owns of its own stock 1828 shares, which have not been listed for taxation. Gross receipts of company from October 1888 to October 1889 were $559,492.19; operating expenses for same year $339,010.96

The only witness before the railroad investigating committee this morning, was Col Julius A Gray, Vice President of the North State Improvement Company, as to the liabilities of that corporation for taxation, after which the committee adjourned to 4 o'clock this p m.

Swindell's Prices on Seasonable Goods.

The above lines have more in it than you imagine. Swindell's prices means a good deal. It means that you shall find goods here cheaper (for less money) than you can find them elsewhere. It means that you shall find seasonable goods. We advertise and we have for sale nothing but the newest, freshest goods—the kind you want and the kind you must have. We say that our prices are the lowest—not because it is easy to say, but because it is true. We won't sacrifice the truth in our business for any policy sake. Our prices are honest, our word is truth. We mean what we say and we mean all we say. Take this advertisement as a plain square business announcement. Look at our goods, compare our prices and you must acknowledge that they show values—values such as cannot be found elsewhere—such as no other house dare attempt to offer. We challenge the State to make prices to compare with ours on dress goods, fine clothing, good shoes, men's hats, notions, gents furnishing goods and especially millinery goods, at SWINDELL'S.

A Successful Establishment.

Mr L C Bagwell, undertaker and funeral director, corner of Blount and Martin streets, carries one of the most complete stocks of everything in his line to be found in North Carolina. At his establishment can be found everything to make up a complete burial outfit, such as caskets, robes and other articles. In the matter of arranging bodies for interment, Mr Bagwell gives special attention, and his experience, in this line, has been such as to render the most complete satisfaction. His hearses are most conveniently arranged and of the best finish. There is no better evidence of competency than success, and that has been achieved by Mr Bagwell in a most complete manner.

Those losing relatives and friends cannot do better than to call at this establishment and arrange for their burial, and they will have no cause for reproaching themselves. The prices of Mr Bagwell are most moderate enabling all to have their friends decently interred at a moderate rate. All calls are responded to in the most prompt manner, day or night. The public are respectfully solicited to call and look over the stock in all its variety. They will be shown through the establishment and explanation of terms and prices given.
