Woolcott & Son—Something Important.

In and Around the City.

Splendid time now for working the roads.

The outlook now is for some genuine spring weather.

Regular meeting of Manteo Lodge tonight. Initiation and other business. Prompt attendance desired.

The trustees of the Baptist Female College will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Mission Board room of the Baptist State Convention on West Hargett street.

We are glad to hear that but little damage was done to the gardens in this vicinity by the frost of the last two mornings.

The committees on invitation and arrangements for the chamber of commerce banquet, will hold a joint meeting, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Mayor's office. Let every member be present; business of importance.

Mr T R Jernigan announces that the first number of the North Carolina Intelligencer, will make its appearance, in this city, June 21st next. It will be a thirty two column weekly, and will be democratic.

The Governors Guards fair and military entertainment promises to be the most interesting of any entertainment held in Raleigh for some time. The ladies and members of the Guard are enthusiastic in their work. The box sheet for the music and military features to be held in Metropolitan Hall is now open at Alfred Williams' Book Store.

We are indebted to Hon George W Sanderlin, Auditor of the State of North Carolina, for a copy of his most admirable report of the receipts and disbursements of the Treasury for the fiscal year ending November 30th 1889. It is a most valuable document giving an interesting insight into the finances of the State. The book is elegantly gotten up in all particulars.

Wake Superior Court.

April term 1890. Court met at 10 o'clock this morning, Judge James McRae, presiding. The following cases were taken up:

Andrew Syme, trustee, et als vs Ridley House et als. Jury empanelled, testimony being taken at the time our report closed.

Early Closing.

We hope the early closing will take place very soon, that during the week all places of business will close at least by 7 p m, and on Saturday night not later than 10 o'clock, so that all may be able to get sufficient rest and attend Sabbath school and services at the churches Sunday morning. We believe if this movement is adopted, it will be an absolute gain to all concerned.

Recovered

Dempsey Webb, who took the high fall through the sky light of the Andrews Building, into David Bessenthal's store, has entirely recovered from his injuries and was out on the streets yesterday evening, bright and cheerful. He was tenderly cared for at St Johns Hospital. To the tender care and attention he received from physicians and nurses, Dempsey owes his restoration. All honor to St Johns Hospital and the physicians and nurses.

Weather Report

For Raleigh—fair weather, warmer.

Free.

The Richmond and Danville system will pass delegates to the Southern Press Association which meets at Charleston S C, April 30th, free of charge, provided applications are received in time to issue passes. All delegates who intend going should send their names to W A Turk, Esq, Division Passenger Agent, Raleigh, N C.

New Advertisements

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs Woolcott & Son, the "One Price Cash Store." Their announcement is of great importance and we advise the public to read it carefully. It is a matter of much interest.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr A E Jordan, who announces the well known Germetuer and all kinds of fancy groceries, of which he has one of the most superb stocks in the city. Give him a call.

Fine Polish.

We have received a sample bottle of Excelsior furniture polish, manufactured by the Excelsior Polishing Company. It is superior to anything in that line we have ever seen. For cleaning and polishing furniture, painted wood, iron, etc it has no equal. It gives a fresh, beautiful and elegant lustre, making old furniture look as well as new. It can be purchased at Mr Robert Simpsons' drug store, corner of Hillsboro and Salisbury streets. Price 25 and 50 cts per bottle.

Supreme Court.

Appeals from 12th District were disposed of as follows today:

State vs Rinehart, argued by Attorney General and H A Gudger for State; no counsel contra.

State vs Bruce, argued by Attorney General for State; H A Gudger and V S Lusk for defendant.

State vs Hunter argued by Attorney General for State; Jones & Shuford for defendant.

Personal Mention.

Senator Pou, of Johnston county, is in the city.

Mrs F R Rose, of Fayetteville, is in the city, visiting her sister, Mrs R T Gray.

Mrs W N Snelling is quite sick at her home corner Person and Morgan Streets. W N Snelling is also unwell, although he is at his place of business.

Mr Frank T Glasgow and wife, nee Miss Grace McPheeters oldest daughter of the late Rev Dr S B McPheeters are in the city, guests of A M McPheeters. Mr Glasgow is one of the leading lawyers of Lexington, Va.

The Medal Contest.

The contest for the Demorest Medal last night at Edenton Street M E Church was one of the most interesting occasions that has taken place in Raleigh for a long time. There was a very large crowd in attendance, all of whom seemed to be exceedingly interested in the programme, which, was in all respects appropriate, and was as follows:

Prayer by Rev F L Reid.

Song service by the choir.

Master of the affair Horton next came on the rostrum and recited nicely an address on Temperance.

Song service by the choir.

The Sunday School Deacon's High License Ideas, by Miss Daisy Young, who did her part well and with pleasure to the audience.

Vocal solo, Save the Boys, by Miss Laura Gordon.

Our National Curse, by Miss Della Blair in a very tender and touching manner.

Solo, by Mr A B Yearby, with full chorus, which was rendered in a most delightful manner.

Liquor traffic, by Miss Laura Newsom.

Song by the J E F Club, Oh! Glorious Morning.

Personal Responsibility, by Miss Winnie Brown.

Duet, Now the Silver Moon, by Miss Nellie Young and Mr Hunter Harris.

Black Eye for Lager Beer, and a Bier for Lager, by Henry Young, in fantastic costume.

Solo, Vote as you Pray by Miss Mamie Woodell.

Vote Against the Saloon, by Miss Sallie Whitaker.

Save the Boys, by Mr Hunter Harris.

Saloon, the great problem of the hour, Miss Eliza Moore

The judges of the occasion were Messrs W N Jones, J L Foster, Mr Seymour Whiting. After a few minutes session the judges reported Miss Eliza Moore as being the winner. The audience had already voted it to her.

Miss Moore certainly showed skill as an elocutionist and she surely deserved the honors which were bestowed upon her in the Demorest silver medal.

Miss Sallie Whitaker won the second honor, which was richly deserved.

The Rev Dr J W Carter presented in some very striking remarks the medal to Miss Moore.

Mr Young then arose and stated that it was not intended to let the other contestants go without prizes and that suitable little souvenirs had been provided for each one of them. These were presented in happy style by Mr W J Peele.

The spacious Sunday School room was crowded almost to its utmost and the audience was highly delighted with the exercises.

Miss Whitaker was especially applauded for the charming manner in which she acquitted herself.

Miss Daisy Young won rounds of applause on her rendition of the Deacon's Sunday School Sermon.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Rogers & Carroll, headquarters for Brestch's bread, received daily, every morning and in the afternoon.

There was a big stir with buyers at Messrs Norris & Carter's this morning. No such bargains were ever offered in fine dress goods, silks, white goods, corsets, hosiery, gloves, underwear, shoes, carpets, trunks, &c, as can be had there. Fine laces at half price. Dress shirts at 90c, reduced from $1.25, 20c cuffs at 12c, 85c cuffs at 22c, 50c scarfs etc. Straw hats at half price, at ^{at Main} NORRIS & CARTER'S.

Millinery Goods.

Our millinery department has grown so rapidly in the last two months, that we can not help feeling elated, and we feel sure that we have adopted the right way of not only holding the patronage that we already had, but of doubling it in the future. We do not allow anything, whatever, to be used or sold in this department that is not absolutely correct in style, and of good quality. We have beyond all doubt got one of the best and most popular trimmers that has ever been in Raleigh. Having these advantages, is it any wonder that we have the best patronage of the city? We furnish none but first class goods and work, and at the same time guarantee our prices to be lower than you will find elsewhere. While you are selecting a hat or bonnet we would be glad to show you one of the nicest lines of dress goods you have seen in the city. We have just received a big lot of buckles and slides for dress ornaments, at

SWINDELL'S.

Queen Victoria's yearly doctor's bill is $4,000.

The Enthusiasm is Greater.

If our new department of Bargains and Undervalues was popular on yesterday, it is even more so today, as the increased throng of visitors will attest. Tomorrow the enthusiasm will be greater, as new bargains will be added, and the department assumes the proportions of an ordinary store, filled with choice and seasonable goods, at undervalued prices.

Two Men Shot—One Stabbed.

Richmond Dispatch.

Another tragedy is reported in Mitchell county, N C, at a bar room just on the Tennessee line. A gentleman who lived near learned that there had been a quarrel and a shooting affair and went to the place. He arrived Saturday and describes the scene as terrible. There was a dim light in the miserable cabin and the cries and groans of men apparently dying. Behind the bar, on a rude frame work, lay Hamilton Oaks, a young man, in the death agony, having two pistol wounds through the body. On a bench in another part of the room was David Oaks, the young man's uncle, with a bullet wound in the groin. Around them stood a half dozen other men, all of whom had been drinking. The wounded men named owned the place, and they had quarrelled in regard to a settlement of their business. One accused the other of cheating. Pistols were drawn and firing began in the little room, only eight by ten feet in size. Ham Oaks lived two days. A man named William Bass was stabbed with a dirk and will die, it is believed. Bass shot both the Oakses with a 44 calibre revolver. David Oaks injury is serious. This drunken quarrel and this terrible shooting affair occurred in a prohibition county.

The tribe of Delaware Indians in the Indian Territory, have requested the Secretary of the Interior to recommend to Congress that the funds now held in trust for them by the government be placed in their own custody. The Indians maintain that they are fully competent to take care of the money, as is shown by the accumulation of property which they have made. They say further that if they had the money they could get from it a better return than the 5 per cent interest which the government now pays. The Delawares number about 816, and the fund, including the State bonds, the interest on which the Government guarantees, amounts to nearly $900,000. A recommendation to Congress that the fund be turned over to the Indians was made by President Cleveland.

Prof Zweibeer, of the University of Bonn, is a very absent minded man. He was busily engaged in solving some scientific problem. The servant hastily opened the door of his study and announced a great family event. "A little stranger has arrived." "Eh?" "It is a little boy." "Little boy. Well, ask him what he wants."—Humoristische Blatter.

A NEW FEATURE

—OF—

SPECIAL INTEREST TO ALL

THE PEOPLE.

ON MONDAY, APRIL 21st

we will inaugurate a new department in our business to be known as the Department of Bargains and Undervalues.

It will be supplied with desirable and seasonable goods from all sections of the house, which will be marked in plain figures at undervalued prices,
and at all times will be filled with positive, telling BARGAINS in the greatest profusion.

WONDERFUL VALUES,

WONDERFUL ASSORTMENT.

A large, well lighted space will be devoted to this department, and whenever anything worth having
and worth selling is offered us for cash,
under the real value, our customers
shall have the benefit of it.

The very people having the least money to spend are the ones
this department means most to.
