LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.
Robert E Gattis—Wood for Sale.

In and Around the City.

The new depot will be a "daisy." Strawberries and green peas in market.

The health of Raleigh was never better at this season of the year.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of wood for sale, by Mr Robt E Gattis.

Ransom Jenks died from pneumonia at his home in Apex yesterday morning and was buried at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet this afternoon at the residence of Rev R H Whitaker No 509 N Person Street.

During the year 1889, the North Carolina Experiment Station completed analyses and tests of about 1,500 samples of seed.

A meeting of the Brown's Boys will take place tonight at 8 o'clock. Every Brownie is requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted. Call by G Rosenthal's office this evening for instructions.

The Mayor had before him this morning, Alexander Barnett, colored for disorderly conduct on the street. He was given twelve hours in the station house and fined three dollars and cost.

The remains of Miss Annie Beacham who died in Salisbury yesterday, arrived in the city this morning and will be interred in City Cemetery this evening at 5 o'clock.

Archie Spence, Esq, has bought the old Jenkins property on South Person street. By repairing and repainting same it will add much to the beauty of that portion of the town.

Pullen Park presented an animated appearance yesterday afternoon. If the street car line was extended, it would indeed be a grand pleasure resort.

The sidewalk in front of the drug store of Messrs King & McGee on the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets is in a very bad condition, and should be at once attended to.

The Treasurer of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company paid $15,000 into the office of the clerk of the Superior Court, Saturday, in settlement of taxes agreed upon with the Investigating Committee.

A gentleman prominently connected with the street car system, told us last Saturday afternoon, that the Hillsboro street line was paying better than ever before. He spoke favorably of the prospect for an extension. We hope it will soon be done.

Cotton is on a regular boom. Some sold today for 1 1/2 cents per pound. Only a few bales on the market. How happy our farmers would have been if they could have obtained the same price for their cotton last fall.

The usual annual exhibit of cattle and horses by the Wake County Cattle Club will be held May 15th. Arrangements will be made with the Railroads for reduced rates which will be announced hereafter. The books for entries are now open at office of the Secretary—Mr T H Briggs

Still in Jail.

The report upon the street this morning that Nelson Hines and Cannon Lewis, the parties who robbed the store of Messrs Norris & Carter, had given their bonds and were out of jail, was a mistake. They are both in jail today and undoubtedly will remain there until court unless they break out which is not at all likely, with Sheriff Rogers' watchful eye upon them.

Bright and Newsy.

The bright and newsy RALEIGH EVENING VISITOR is eleven years old. It has been improved a great deal under its present management.—Goldsboro Dispatch.

Festival and Concert.

The Governors Guard will commence their grand festival and concert at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night, and it bids fair to be an occasion of much interest and enjoyment. The prize drill will be one of the main features and will be participated in by teams from ten military companies of the State. The admission will only be 25 cents, which admits to the concert and drill and entitles the holder to a chance for a handsomely framed picture to be awarded on the last night of the fair.

Our Churches Yesterday.

EDENTON STREET M E CHURCH.

At the 11 o'clock services three persons were received into the church by certificate. The text of the morning was 1st Timothy, 4th chapter, 8th and 9th verses. "For bodily exercise profiteth little: but Godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance."

The reverend gentleman handled his subject well. It was an earnest appeal to his very large congregation and we think was received in deep sincerity by those that heard him. After the regular services were over, the church was called together in its regular monthly conference meeting. Nothing of special interest was transacted with the exception of the treasurer making his monthly statement, after which the conference adjourned.

At the 8 p m services one person joined the church by certificate.

Rev J H Cordon, by special request, preached a sermon on Odd Fellowship. This being the seventy first anniversary of the Order, it was a fitting occasion, and Rev Mr Cordon having served one year as Grand Master of the State, and is now serving a term of two years as Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, was eminently qualified for the task.

The church was filled, every seat being taken. Many of the Fraternity with their families were present. The sermon was in all respects worthy of the occasion. It abounded in rich lessons of practical wisdom as drawn from the Bible by the teachings and practices of the order of Odd Fellows. It illustrated these truths, by pictures, drawn with brilliant eloquence, of the friendship of Jonathan for David as expressed in their lives. Of the true brotherly love, as exemplified by the Samaritan, to one who was really not his friend, after he had been left to perish by those who should have shown pity, and made the foundation stone, truth, the only rock upon which the superstructure could hope to stand.

BAPTIST TABERNACLE

There were 390 present in the Sunday school eight of whom were new scholars. A committee was appointed to arrange for the annual picnic and excursion. Large congregations attended upon the morning and evening sermon. Two persons joined the church by letter and one was baptized.

CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH.

There were good congregations at this church, morning and night. The communion service was largely attended and very spiritual. Rev L L Nash preached with his usual power. There were three accessions to the Sunday school. This congregation expect to commence work on their church at an early day. The pastor will leave again next Monday for the Northern cities to secure funds to complete the building.

Regular meeting of Ruth Lodge this evening at 8 o'clock.

Sad Accident.

We deeply regret to state that our venerable and highly respected fellow citizen, Mr John J Christophers, who is now eighty seven years old, but quite active met with an accident this morning while on his way from the market house. While stepping from the street at Walker's corner, to the pavement, he fell and received a painful blow above the left eye, and had his left hand hurt quite badly. He also complained of being injured inwardly. He was taken to his home and promptly cared for. We sincerely hope he may soon recover.

Gov Fowle and Judge Clark.

A large audience assembled at Metropolitan Hall at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon to hear His Excellency, Gov D G Fowle, and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Walter Clark, who delivered short addresses in the interest of the Young Men's Christian Association. As was expected, both of the distinguished gentlemen delighted the audience. Gov Fowle with great pathos made an appeal for the young men that moved the whole audience to tears.

The J E F F Quartette of male singers rendered excellent music Rev J L Foster opened the services with a fervent and earnest prayer.

Mr N B Broughton presided and presented the speakers.

It was announced that meetings of a similar character would follow from time to time.

Supreme Court.

The call of cases at the end of the docket was commenced this morning and disposed of as follows.

Pritchard vs. Baxter, from Pasquotank; continued.

Whitehurst vs Pettipher, from Pamlico county; argued by W W Clark for plaintiff, no Counsel for defendant.

Grant vs Gooch, from Halifax; J M Mullen for plaintiff, B B Peebles by brief for defendant.

Bryan vs Spivey, from Craven; argued by W W Clark for plaintiff, C Manly for defendant.

Young vs Telegraph Co, from Craven; C Manly for plaintiff, W W Clark for defendant.

A Fine Establishment.

The drug store of Messrs King & McGee, on the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets, is one of the most complete establishments of the kind in this city and there are but few, if any in the State, that can surpass it in the way of a splendid stock, and all the internal arrangements of the store. Their stock of drugs, toilet articles, etc, is complete, and the prescription department is arranged separate and apart from the main store, so that the utmost precaution can be used. This department is in charge of a most skillful pharmacist. Dr J W McGee, Jr, has his office in the rear of the prescription department, where he can be found during business hours. Taken altogether there is no more reliable firm of the kind, and they richly deserve a full share of public patronage.

Personal Mention.

Mr J M Mullen, formerly of Halifax county, now of Petersburg, Va, is in attendance on the Supreme court.

Hon T N Hill and R O Burton, Jr, of Halifax, and W W Kitchen, of Roxboro, are in the city, in attendance on the Supreme court.

Mrs A L Ferrel, who has been very sick at her residence, 506 East Hargett street, we are glad to say, is improving and hopes are entertained that she will be able to be out again soon.

Mrs Solomon King is quite sick at the residence of R H Bradley, Esq.

We regret to state that Mr Jordan Womble, Sr, is still very sick, there being no improvement in his condition.

Our clever townsman Joseph E Pogue, Tobacco Manufacturer has opened up operations for the season. He manufactures several brands of most excellent chewing tobacco. Pogue's Premium we do not think can be excelled—we speak from experience. We are glad to know Mr Pogue has met with success as a manufacturer and hope kind fortune will smile upon him more abundantly in the future. He is in every way deserving.

About Cold and Hot Air.

A good many people are afraid of cold air, especially at night, shutting themselves in close bed rooms, where their systems are poisoned and their constitutions gradually undermined by breathing the bad air. And even hot or warm air that is pure, air in a room that has ventilation as well as heat, is debilitating where breathed all night. Pulmonary complaints are inevitably and exclusively caused by foul indoor air, and cured by pure, especially by cold pure, out door air. The remedial influence of fresh air is so much increased by a low temperature that "colds" are, in fact, far more curable in midwinter than in midsummer.—Herald of Health.

The War Department is encouraged because there were only 1,578 desertions from the regular army for nine months of 1889, beginning July 1st, as compared with 1,893 for the corresponding months of 1888. But life in the army must be a rough one when there are so many desertions.

The condition of affairs on the lower Mississippi river is getting worse instead of better. There are bad breaks in the levees every day and the last submerged seven hundred square miles which had previously escaped. The condition has become a very serious one to the planters there for even if the flood were to subside now it would be weeks before they would plant their crops.
