The season of flowers:
Farmers busy as bees.
Listen to the mocking bird.
Delightful afternoons for drives in the suburbs.

Regular meeting of Manteo Lodge tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the degrees by the degree team.

We are glad to state that our venerable fellow citizen, Mr John J Christophers, who met with an accident, from a fall yesterday, is able to be out.

Mr M B Royster, who resides three miles from Holly Springs, Wake county, and who has been quite ill for some time is reported as improving.

C D Upchurch, Esq, C S C, turned over to Treasurer Bain this morning $15,012.50, the amount of State tax from the R & G R R Co, as the compromise between the said railroad and the investigating committee.

Governor Fowle has received and accepted an invitation to attend the unveiling ceremonies of the Gen R E Lee statue, at Richmond, Va, on the 29th of May next, and will on the 30th deliver a ten minutes talk before the Hollywood Memorial Association. Our Virginia friends have a treat of a rare character in store for them, on which they can be congratulated.

Don't forget when you want to buy anything in the country produce line to call on our old friend Lynn Adams, at Yancey & Stronach's. He keeps a fresh supply of chickens, eggs, butter, sweet potatoes and North Carolina hams on hand all the time. You can buy from him cheaper than any other dealer in the market. He is selling choice hams at 12 1/2 cents per pound. Give him a call at Yancey & Stronach's, Wilmington Street. Read their advertisement.

The news comes from every quarter of the State, that the people are hard at work, nothing daunted by the failure of crops that prevailed during the past season. This is as it should be. There is no use "crying over spilled milk" is a proverb that comes in very well just now, and we are pleased to know that the good people of our section are adopting it. Let all be up and doing; this is the way to get out of the ditch of despondency.

Supreme Court.

The call of cases at the end of the docket was continued this morning and the following cases disposed of:
Pittman vs Pittman from Halifax; argued by T N Hill for plaintiff, R O Burton for defendant.

Sad Cases.

Sheriff Chesson, of Washington county, brought four convicts to the penitentiary today. A sad picture of this case is, that two of the prisoners who are sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for life, are respectively eleven and fourteen years; brothers, (colored). These two brothers, with the help of a third brother, whose age is only nine, killed their little sister who was only four years old, and after killing her hid her away, but was found the night after the killing. The court discharged the 9 year old boy on account of his age. The two other brothers having confessed the crime were sentenced as above stated.

Mayor's Court.

This morning Jane Vass and Cozet Jones, colored, were fined $10 each and costs for keeping a disorderly house on West Edenton street.

Lively and Interesting.

The Raleigh EVENING VISITOR was eleven years old Tuesday. Under Messrs Brown & Ferrell, the present proprietors, it has been much improved, and is a lively and interesting newspaper. We trust its birthdays will be many and its days long in the land—Oxford Day.

MARRIED.

On Sunday last in NewLight Township, Wake county, Mr George Richards to Miss Louisa Wilson. The ceremony took place at the residence of the brides' father and was performed by W H Lassiter, J P.

New Advertisements.

Read the advertisement of buggy robe, cushion, etc, lost.
Attention is directed to the advertisement of C Locklear, barber and hair dresser, 224 Fayetteville street. He is prepared at all times to execute work in the best style. Give him a call.

Read the advertisement of Messrs Bevers & Horton, who carry one of the best and most varied stocks of groceries to be found in the city. Give them a call.

Our Next Fair.

We hope that our people will address themselves to the task of aiding to all the extent in their power, in the effort to make the next State fair, one, in all respects a credit to the State. We should not expect the officers connected with the exhibition to bear all the burden, because, without the aid of the people, very little can be done. If the hearts of the people are in it, then there is no good reason why the coming fair should not be at least the equal of any that has heretofore taken place. Besides by having a successful exhibition this year, will be an impetus towards the proposed exposition in 1891.

Wake Superior Court.

April Term: Court met this morning, Judge MacRae, presiding. The following cases were disposed of:

Ellington, Royster & Co vs Evans & Martin; judgment; appeal to Supreme court.

W E Anderson, trustee, etc vs H E Norris, adm'r; order to apply crops to judgment and to pay into court.

C Dowd, receiver, vs L D Stephenson; judgment against defendant for $273.42.

Syme, trustee, vs House et als; judgment for possession of land against defendants; appeal.

D F Fort et als vs W G I Allen and wife; order and appointing next friend.

J T Russ vs J A Saunders, J M Gilbert vs J A Saunders, Jas Saintsing vs J A Saunders. In these three cases judgment is entered for the defendant; appeal.

M T Norris & Bro vs J Harrington; judgment vs defendant.

Dr F T Fuller vs S B Howell; judgment against defendant.

Gaston Rollins vs W H Mims; judgment for plaintiff; $1,000.

A B Marshburn vs O T Robertson and Carrie Robertson; judgment fore closure and for sale of land.

Jno W Cox vs Emily Cox; verdict and judgment granting divorce.

R D Fleming vs M T Ray, judgment confirming sale of land.

Motion docket called and several cases continued and orders of reference made. Jury discharged and court adjourned sine die.

Rev Stephen W Collins fell dead at his home in Bakersville on the morning of the 16th. In honor of him Judge Bynum adjourned court that day. He was, at the time of his death 78 years old. He was buried with Masonic honors.—Marion Free Lance.

A Handsome Residence.

Rev Thos E Skinner has just had erected one of the handsomest residences in Raleigh, on the corner of Wilmington and Edenton streets. The building is of most beautiful design and finish and the work was done by Raleigh workmen reflecting great credit upon their well known skill. The internal decorations of the residence are beautiful. The sitting room is finished in oak and the parlor in walnut. The study is a perfect gem and is fitted up in splendid style. The walks in the yard are neatly paved as is also the street in front. Altogether it is a beautiful domicile on which we congratulate Dr Skinner. The builders are entitled to the highest credit.

Union Mission.

Our Union Mission holds regular services daily; at noon fifteen minutes prayers service and at night from 8 to 9 o'clock. The meetings are well attended and deep interest is manifested every night. Several have professed faith and joined the different churches. The Mission has been presented with a nice bell by its friends which is placed on top of the rear of the building which will be tapped just before each service. Let every business man avail himself of this noon meeting. It will be the best fifteen minutes of the day. The great good accomplished by the quiet work of this Mission will only be revealed in eternity. Men who attend say they haven't attended a church for years. The music attracts them in and some are saved. Numbers ask for prayers, and various requests are handed in regularly.

Proposed Lectures.

Miss M F Cusack, known as "The Nun of Kenmare," is in the city, stopping at the residence of Mrs Beckwith on North Wilmington street. This lady comes highly recommended both by private individuals and the press, especially the journals of Great Britain, being a regular correspondent of the London Observer. She is highly cultured and well versed in all that pertains to ecclesiastical history. During her stay here, Miss Cusack desires to deliver three lectures if proper arrangements can be made, the subjects to be chosen from the following: "Public school question and the Roman Catholic Church," "Life Inside the Church of Rome—what Rome Teaches and What She Does," "Public Schools vs Parochial Schools," "Pope on Politics; how he has Failed to Govern Rome and Wants to Govern America."
Miss Cusack, was, for many years, one of the most famous nuns in the Roman Catholic Church. She gave to it her fortune, founded convents for it and wrote twenty books for its interest.

A Suggestion to the Street Railway Company.

We believe that if the officers of the Raleigh Street Railway would arrange for reduced rates for at least two evenings during the week—say on the Brookside Park line—give round trip tickets for one fare to parties or families on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons' or any two afternoons during the week, that it would pay the company well and be a great pleasure and comfort to the mothers and children of the city. For the reason that a mother with five or six children could not afford to pay seventy cents for an hour or two recreation at the park, but could, and we believe would pay thirty five cents. The VISITOR is very anxious that such an arrangement could be made; it would be a blessing to so many who are not able to go to the different summer resorts, who are compelled to remain at home during the heated term. If they could have this opportunity of a visit to one of our beautiful parks at a low rate, we are satisfied that so many families would take advantage of it, that the Street Railway Company would be well paid for the undertaking. Gentlemen suppose you give the matter a trial.

Delegates.

At a Quarterly Conference held for Central M E Church last evening the following delegates to the District Conference, which meets at Henderson, N C, in July were elected: T C Williams, Sr, R C Redford, C W Young and W N Snelling. Alternates S M Richardson, S M Parish, S W Walker and E B Thomas.

The following delegates to the Sunday School Conference which meets at Cary, N C, were elected: R C Redford, S M Parish. Mrs J D Riggan and Mrs Margaret Griffin. Alternates, Miss Minnie Redford, Miss Myrtle Branson, L H Woodall and T C Williams, Sr.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Spring is here and everybody ought to use a bottle of Royal Germetuer. It cleanses the blood, builds up and strengthens the system, protects you against disease. Thousands have tried Germetuer. All recommend it. For sale by A E JORDAN, Next Citizens Bank.

Our Bargain Department.

You can save from 25 to 50 per cent on your spring purchases by availing yourselves of the popular prices at which we mark our goods in this department. We are the originators of, and for seventy three years, the leaders in popular prices. Don't fail to see this department tomorrow.

W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

Important to Buyers.

It is positively necessary that we close out the entire stock of Norris & Carter at once. The cost of the goods will not be considered. They must be sold and prices are made today throughout the entire stock that will make them go. If you want goods now is your time to supply yourselves. The goods are clean and fresh and will be sold without any reserve. UPCHURCH & NORRIS.

This is True.

At the beginning of the season we were much gratified at the start our millinery business took, but our most sanguine expectations and hopes have been more than fully realized. We have met with a success that we could not reasonably have expected; in fact our business in this one department has grown so rapidly that we find that we have hardly half as much room as we actually need. We shall be compelled to make some other arrangements for this department and we promise our patrons to do so at as early a day as possible so that their wants can be attended to in a shorter time and more satisfactorily. We receive new goods in this department every day and always have the very latest shapes in all the fine straws as they come out. We carry the largest line of ribbons of any house in the city. In fact we have a full and complete line of millinery goods of every kind. Those shoppers have arrived, at SWINDELL'S.

Taught the Yankee How to Saddle a Horse.

Fredericksburg Free Lance. Several gentlemen from the North have been in Fredericksburg recently with the view of purchasing saddle horses. One day last week one of them took a notion to try one of several horses in the stables of the gentlemen who had them for sale; but as he was not familiar with either the horse or mode of saddling and bridling him, was about to forego the pleasure of a horseback ride when one of our local beauties came to the rescue and in a moment showed the northerner what a true southern girl was capable of doing. Entering the stall, she removed the halter, adjusted the bridle, led the animal out of the stable and throwing the saddle on his back, buckled the girth and ordered the blushing northerner to mount while she held the stirrup for him. He was stunned, but enjoyed the ride immensely, doubtless surprised that a woman so fair could be so handy.
