WM R COX.

Handsome Wagon.

E B Englehard, Chief of Fire Department, will be out this afternoon on his new wagon. It is a beauty, and all its arrangements are very convenient and handsome. Indeed, we do not remember having seen a more beautiful or substantial piece of workmanship. It was made by that enterprising firm of our city, Messrs Evans & Martin, who are placing on our streets many jobs of fine workmanship.

Sheriff A H Ricks, reinforced the penitentiary today with five convicts from Nash county. The Sheriff says, he believes there will be built one thousand new tobacco barns this year to accommodate the large increase of the tobacco crop of that county, that some of the farmers in said county will plant at least, one hundred acres in the weed, that the lands are well suited to its growth, that the past season satisfactory yield and prices were realized.

He was taken sick last night about 8 o'clock, and only lived about an hour, it is thought heart disease was the cause of his death. Mr McCullers was about 80 years of age, and was one of the most highly respected citizens of Johnston county. The VISITOR joins our people generally in extending sympathy, and would point them to Him, the giver of all good, for comfort and consolation.

Memorial Day.

At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association, and president's council held yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs J B Batchelor, it was decided to defer the annual Memorial exercises from Saturday, the 10th inst, to Monday, the 12th.

Big 4 Heard From Again

The fishing party on board the Big 4 arrived at Goldsboro yesterday at 12 o'clock. They have caught all the fish they could eat, among them several fine shad. Had a splendid time on the trip to Goldsboro and one accident—ran on a stump which delayed them several hours, all hands getting wet (not by falling overboard, but by the rain). They spent one night at Tar landing, between Smithfield and Goldsboro. They left Goldsboro this morning for Seven Springs, their next stopping point, and are expecting fine sport today and tomorrow. They expect to reach Kinston tomorrow afternoon. We wish them much success and only regret we are not with them.

Distinguished Citizen.

Raleigh was honored on yesterday by the presence of the Hon John W Daniel, the senior U S Senator from the State of Virginia, who appeared before our Supreme Court as an attorney in an important case, and during the afternoon was driven about the city by distinguished friends. The Hon Senator is one of the most eloquent speakers in the country. He delivered the oration at the unveiling of the recumbent statue of R E Lee, at Lexington, Va. Today the Hon Senator is delivering one of the most forcible and convincing arguments ever delivered before our Supreme Court. Many prominent gentlemen were present to hear his eloquence. Also a goodly number of prominent ladies graced the Supreme Court room and gave the Senator their undivided attention.

No Use for the United States Court House.

If the bill which is now pending before Congress, to change the jurisdiction of the United States Circuit court, shall become a law, and it has already passed the House of Representatives by a strict party vote. Should it become a law there will no longer be any use for the United States Court House in Raleigh, except for postoffice and internal revenue purposes.

The bill provides for the transfer from the Circuit court to the District court, of all of the business, civil and criminal, of a regional character, which the court has in hand, and convert the U S Circuit court into an Appellate court, to hold its sessions in the city of Richmond for this entire circuit, composed of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

No district court has ever been established to be held in the city of Raleigh, so all of the business of the Circuit court will be transferred to Elizabeth City, New Berne and Wilmington. Suitors, witnesses, lawyers and everybody, who have heretofore had business in the U S Circuit court at this place, will betake themselves to the sea-side. It is to be regretted that a district court has not been heretofore established in Raleigh, which might succeed to all of this business, and prevent this great inconvenience to parties and loss to the community of Raleigh.

The cities of Charlotte, Greensboro, Asheville and Statesville will not suffer by reason of this bill becoming law, because in each of those places a district court has already been established, which is held at the same time with the Circuit court.

It is to be hoped that the entire delegation from North Carolina will make a determined effort to have a district court established in Raleigh at the present session of Congress, whether the bill becomes a law or not.

We call this matter especially to the attention of Senators Ransom and Vance, and Mr Bunn the Congressman from this district. It is a matter of vital importance to our people.
