Personal Mention.

Prof J D Miller, who has been so long connected with the Graded School of this city, has gone to Winston, N C which place he will probably make his home in the future, and will follow the profession of Civil Engineering. We regret to lose him and wish him abundant success in his new field, for he is worthy in every respect. We commend him to the kind consideration of the people of Winston.

A Good Appointment.

We had the pleasure of shaking hands with Judge Spier Whitaker this morning. He has just returned home from holding Pamlico court, and leaves next Monday to hold a two weeks term in Washington. The Judge is cheerful and looking well. Reports from every section where he holds court are unanimous, that he dispenses justice in an impartial and dignified manner, and is noted for dispatching business rapidly and satisfactorily. We do not know of any appointment Gov Fowle has made during his administration, that has given more, we might say, has given as much, general satisfaction as the appointment of Spier Whitaker, Esq, to the Superior court bench of North Carolina.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of the Capital Club held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock the following resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

The Capital Club mourns the death of William E. Anderson, one of its charter members.

A man of sterling character and unblemished life and without guile; a friend upon whose faithfulness one could rest as upon a rock, firm and unchangeable; a christian gentleman of simple faith, without fear and without reproach; a companion so gracious and gentle, so loveable and so beloved, a citizen holding through all the years of his life the affection and confidence of a community which trusted and honored him perhaps as no other was trusted and honored his death has shrouded in gloom the city that he loved so well. We, his friends who loved and esteemed him, desire to place upon record this expression of our grief at the calamity that has befallen us and left us sorrowing and desolate. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That in the death of Wm E Anderson we mourn the loss of a friend who by his rare qualities of head and heart, his genial companionship, his strict and unbending integrity, and his pure and blameless life, had bound himself to each one of us by hooks of steel. The recollection of his worth and virtues will be to us a fragrant memory forevermore.

Resolved, That the Club House be draped with the emblems of mourning in respect to his memory, and that we attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and copies furnished the city press for publication.

GRAND EXCURSION AND PIC-NIC.

The Sunday School of the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle Propose to Have a day of Solid Rural Enjoyment.

The season for rural enjoyment is at hand, and the teachers and pupils of the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle do not propose to be behind in the race for pure innocent recreation. It has been arranged to have a grand excursion and basket picnic to the beautiful town of Tarboro, on Tuesday June 3d, which will prove to be one of the most interesting occasions of the kind yet gotten up from this city. Every possible arrangement for the comfort and genuine pleasure of all who participate have been initiated and will be carried out. Eleven elegant and beautiful coaches have been secured from the Richmond & Danville and Atlantic Coast Lines. Of these, four will be reserved for such friends, not connected with the school as may desire to join in the excursion, for the benefit of these, the following low rates to Tarboro and return have been secured:

From Raleigh $1.50; Garner $1.50; Auburn $1.50; Clayton $1.50; Selma $1.50; Wilson $1.00; Toisnot $1.00. Rates for servants will be 75 cents each.

The train will leave Raleigh from the Union Depot at 6:45 a m, reaching Tarboro at 11 a m. Returning, will leave Tarboro at 4 p m reaching Raleigh at 8 p m. This schedule will give five hours at Tarboro, one of the prettiest and most interesting towns in eastern North Carolina. There is no lovelier place in the State for an excursion and picnic, as the town and vicinity is almost embowered in a "boundless contiguity of shade," where all can rest and enjoy themselves to their hearts content. One of the most important features of the place and surroundings is the pure water, abounding in ample quantity, thus insuring no bad results in the way of the contraction of sickness. The excursion train will pass through a most delightful country not inappropriately termed the "garden section of the Old North State," and one of the most pleasing features of the occasion is that there will be no trouble in the way of change of cars, as the coaches will run through without interruption passing over the new Norfolk and Carolina Road.

The utmost precaution will be taken by those having the excursion and picnic in charge, to guard against accident of any kind. Accommodating marshals will be along to look after the safety of all on board, and pains will be taken to prevent any of the children from getting off the train or standing on the platforms during the trip. In this respect parents need feel no apprehension whatever, as their little ones will be in safe hands.

It is much to the credit of this Sunday School that in all their previous excursions, no accident even of the most trivial nature has happened to mar the enjoyment, and care will be specially taken that the precedent, in this respect shall not be reversed.

In a word we can commend this occasion for a short respite, to the favorable consideration of all. It will be in every respect an opportunity for enjoyment rarely presented, and in which all can join with the most perfect assurance that nothing will be left undone to make it a grand success.

Mr Kendrick M Goodwin, age 70 years, and Mrs Martha Hurst, age 50 years, were united in marriage by Justice M B Barbee this morning at 9:15 o'clock, both of Swift Creek Township. Witnesses - Archibald B Booker, J W H Adams and James B Jordan. After the ceremonies they returned to the home of the bridegroom, as he said, to feed the chickens.

White Goods.

We must believe that we sell our white goods cheap, for if we did not, we could not sell so much. You know the majority of customers have a way of looking around before buying. We had three of this kind yesterday, and in spite of all persuasions, look around they would. Of course we did not expect to see them again for nine of every ten that looks around buy where they happen to be when they get tired. These all came back and said they had looked in every store in town and did not find any thing in white goods near as pretty as ours, and the prices from what they said must have been way up. We then sold. We have sold already an enormous amount of white goods and drapery nets, more already than we sold all last season. We have received this week a new lot of beautiful patterns. We have more than one hundred different styles of dress laces and flouncings and we know our prices are at least 20 per cent. less than you will find the same goods in town. New lot of slippers just come. Very cheap at
